Classicism of the Twenties Theodore Ziolkowski,2015-01-08 The triumph of avant gardes in the 1920s tends to dominate our discussions of the music art and literature of the period But the broader current of modernism encompassed many movements and one of the most distinct and influential was a turn to classicism In Classicism of the Twenties Theodore

Ziolkowski offers a compelling account of that movement Giving equal attention to music art and literature and focusing in particular on the works of Stravinsky Picasso and T S Eliot he shows how the turn to classicism manifested itself In reaction both to the excesses of neoromanticism and early modernism and to the horrors of World War I and with respectful detachment artists writers and composers adapted themes and forms from the past and tried to imbue their own works with the values of simplicity and order that epitomized earlier classicisms By identifying elements common to all three arts and carefully situating classicism within the broader sweep of modernist movements Ziolkowski presents a refreshingly original view of the cultural life of the 1920s "Visual Propaganda, Exhibitions, and the Spanish Civil War " MiriamM.

Basilio,2017-07-05 Visual Propaganda Exhibitions and the Spanish Civil War is a history of art during wartime that analyzes images in various media that circulated widely and were encountered daily by Spaniards on city walls in print and in exhibitions Tangible elements of the nation's past monuments cultural property and art historical icons were displayed in temporary exhibitions and museums as well as reproduced on posters and in print media to rally the population define national identity and reinvent distant and recent history Artists political party propagandists and government administrators believed that images on the street in print and in exhibitions would create a community of viewers brought together during the staging of public exhibitions to understand their own roles as Spaniards This book draws on extensive archival research brings to light unpublished documents and examines visual propaganda exhibitions and texts unavailable in English It engages with questions of national self definition and historical memory at their intersections with the fine arts visual culture exhibition history tourism and propaganda during the Spanish Civil War and immediate post war period as well as contemporary responses to the contested legacy of the Spanish Civil War It will be of interest to scholars in art history visual and cultural history history and museum studies The Cone Sisters of Baltimore Ellen B. Ramage,2008-07-03 They were friends with Picasso and Matisse They ran in the same circles as Gertrude and Leo Stein They avidly purchased works by Manet Gauguin Cezanne Seurat and Degas at a time when other Americans didn't They were two Victorian women from Baltimore buying avant garde art in Paris attending salons with friends and building a collection that would initially puzzle and eventually awe the art world Over a period of fifty years sisters Claribel and Etta Cone amassed one of the most acclaimed collections of late nineteenth and twentieth century art in America Dr Claribel and Miss Etta were two halves of an idiosyncratic team who used the fortunes of their German Jewish immigrant family to seek out works that inspired and pleased them regardless of public opinion This richly illustrated biography documents their lives from a unique perspective that of their great niece and their great great niece Ellen B Hirschland and her daughter Nancy Hirschland Ramage delve into Claribel's and Etta's world following the sisters through letters and personal stories as they travel to meet the artists whose work would turn their adjoining apartments into a virtual museum The sisters' experiences in Paris in the 1910s and 1920s provide an exceptional view of the bright artistic ferment in the city at that time Only time would vindicate
