Radical Church:

Radical David Platt, 2010-05-04 New York Times bestseller What is Jesus worth to you It's easy for American Christians to forget how Jesus said his followers would actually live what their new lifestyle would actually look like They would leave behind security money convenience even family for him They would abandon everything for the gospel They would take up their crosses daily But who do you know who lives like that Do you In Radical David Platt challenges you to consider with an open heart how we have manipulated the gospel to fit our cultural preferences He shows what Jesus actually said about being his disciple then invites you to believe and obey what you have heard And he tells the dramatic story of what is happening as a successful suburban church decides to get serious about the gospel according to Jesus Finally he urges you to join in The Radical Experiment a one year journey in authentic discipleship that will transform how you live in a world that desperately needs the Good News Jesus came to bring The Radical Question and A Radical Idea David Platt, 2012-10-02

Challenge the Status Quo The Radical Question offers a compelling introduction to Radical's challenge to the contemporary church In this concise message Platt asks What is Jesus worth to you Then he explores what a commitment to Jesus would actually look like in action The Radical Idea extracts key passages in Radical Together the follow up to Radical to show readers that church is not built on places performances programs or professionals but on people Platt argues that those of us in the pews are meant to be active and intentional in spreading the good news of the gospel because when ordinary believers mobilize in everyday ministry communities and church families change dramatically The goal of the church is never for one person to be equipped and empowered to lead as many people as possible to Christ The goal is always for all of God's people to be equipped and empowered to lead as many people as possible to Christ David Platt Is a Radical Church Possible?

Subterranean Dan White,2015-08-24 The landscape of Christian spirituality in the West is no longer lush with green grass and wild flowers blooming Instead across the country we find dry terrain where churches no longer can expect interested seekers yet most of our solutions for addressing this predicament link to anxiety around our performance and personality Rather than going back to the boardroom to cook up new techniques for a trendier church let s ask more meaningfully rooted questions Do we know how to be present in our neighborhoods Do we know how to be present in community Do we know how to be present to the in breaking kingdom of God There is a growing groundswell discovering that we have become uprooted and detached from each other in the way we express being the church We need a subterranean movement that plunges below the surface into a way of being the people of God that carries an unwavering incarnational creed Dan White Jr uses crisp criticism narrative theology and tangible practices to uncover a hopeful pathway for being radically rooted in God s world Dietrich Bonhoeffer and Arnold Koster Paul Spanring,2014-09-25 Baptists and Lutherans often define the tension of being in the world but not in terms of two separate realms the kingdom of God and the kingdom of the world However their understanding of these realms and their delicate connection is quite nuanced Within the Lutheran tradition the two kingdoms are held in tension which in turn leads to a precarious interaction of state and church In the Ana Baptist tradition a much stricter duality is emphasised resulting in a more radical and separatist stance Dietrich Bonhoeffer and Arnold Koster analyses and compares the historical development of these two viewpoints and to discover how these traditions represented in the lives of two individual followers responded to the ideological onslaught of neopaganism and the enforced political conformity of the Third Reich Compared with Dietrich Bonhoeffer little is known of the Baptist preacher Arnold Koster His ministry as a pastor of the Baptist church in Vienna lasted from 1928 1960 During the Nazi regime he consistently preached critically and prophetically against its underlying ideology Living in Christian Community Art Gish,1998-09-29 This book is a description of what the church ought to be Gish purposes to deal with the concrete issues of what it really means to be a Christian community the body of Christ Popular Voices in Latin American Catholicism Daniel H.
