Radio Comedy Diary Gary Poole, 2001-07-11 This book is a real find for those who enjoy radio nostalgia but more importantly for scholars of broadcasting From 1947 to 1950 while listening to such voices as Bob Hope Red Skelton Milton Berle Jack Benny Fred Allen and Jimmy Durante and shows like Fibber McGee Molly Amos n Andy Blondie and You Bet Your Life the author was writing down jokes gags one liners and quotations In that short time he had filled 11 spiral notebooks Fifty years later in a labor of love the author painstakingly transferred those childhood notes into this invaluable in fact undoubtably unique record of a boom time in American radio This is an unexpected treasure for radio scholars who have long lamented the lack of recordings for the majority of radio programming Television researchers as well will benefit here are root sources of television comedy It is a revelation to find that what we are laughing at today often was first done on radio over 50 years ago The author has also included a notes and comments section which includes background material on all the radio programs in this book

Jack Benny and the Golden Age of American Radio Comedy Kathryn Fuller-Seeley, 2017-10-17 Jack Benny became one of the most influential entertainers of the 20th century by being the top radio comedian when the comics ruled radio and radio was the most powerful and pervasive mass medium in the US In 23 years of weekly radio broadcasts by aiming all the insults at himself Benny created Jack the self deprecating Fall Guy character He indelibly shaped American humor as a space to enjoy the equal opportunities of easy camaraderie with his cast mates and equal ego deflation Benny was the master of comic timing knowing just when to use silence to create suspense or to have a character leap into the dialogue to puncture Jack s pretensions Jack Benny was also a canny entrepreneur becoming one of the pioneering showrunners combining producer writer and performer into one job His modern style of radio humor eschewed stale jokes in favor informal repartee with comic hecklers like his valet Rochester played by Eddie Anderson and Mary Livingstone his offstage wife These quirky characters bouncing off each other in humorous situations created the situation comedy In this career study we learn how Jack Benny found ingenious ways to sell his sponsors products in comic commercials beloved by listeners and how he dealt with the challenges of race relations rigid gender ideals and an insurgent new media industry TV Jack Benny created classic comedy for a rapidly changing American culture providing laughter that buoyed radio listeners from 1932 s depths of the Great Depression through World War II to the mid 1950s Provided by publisher Jack Benny and the Golden Age of American Radio Comedy Kathryn H. Radio Goes to War Gerd Horten, 2002-02-06

By focusing on the medium of radio during World War II Horten has provided us with a window into an important change in radio broadcasting that has previously been ignored by historians The depth of research the book s contribution to our understanding of radio and the war make Radio Goes to War an outstanding work Lary May author of The Big Tomorrow Hollywood and the Politics of the American Way Radio broadcasting and its impact on American life still remains a neglected area of our national history Radio Goes to War demonstrates conclusively how short sighted that omission is As we enter what is sure to be another era of contested claims of government control over freedom of speech the controversies and compromises of wartime broadcasting sixty years ago provide an ominous example of difficult decisions to be made in the future The alliance of big business advertising and wartime propaganda that Horten so convincingly illuminates takes on a heightened significance especially as this relationship has tightened in the last several decades When radio and television go to war again will they follow the same course This is cautionary reading for our new century Michele Hilmes author of Radio Voices American Broadcasting 1922 1952
