Lew Smith, 1951 Herd Register American Guernsey Cattle Club, 1929 The Herd Register of the American Guernsey Cattle Club, 1929 Night Riders Lee Floren, 1988 The Raider Stephen R. Platt, 2025-05-13 The extraordinary life of forgotten World War II hero Evans Carlson commander of America's first special forces secret confidant of FDR and one of the most controversial officers in the history of the Marine Corps who dedicated his life to bridging the cultural divide between the United States and China He was a gutsy old man A corker said another You couldn't find anyone better They talked about him in hushed tones This Major Carlson wrote one of the officers in a letter home is one of the finest men I have ever known These were the words of the young Marines training to be among the first U.S. troops to enter the Second World War and the Major Carlson they spoke of was Evans Carlson a man of mythical status even before the war that would make him a military legend By December of 1941 at the age of forty-five Carlson had already faced off against Sandinistas in the jungles of Nicaragua and served multiple tours in China where he embedded with Mao's Communist forces during the Sino-Japanese War Inspired by their guerilla tactics and their collaborative spirit which he'd call gung ho introducing the term to the English language and driven by his own Emersonian ideals of self-reliance Carlson would go on to form his renowned Marine Raiders the progenitors of today's special operations forces who fought behind Japanese lines on Makin Island and Guadalcanal showing Americans a new way to do battle In The Raider Cundill Prize-winning historian Stephen R. Platt gives us the first authoritative account of Carlson's larger than life exploits the real story based on years of research including newly discovered diaries and correspondence in English and Chinese with deep insight into the conflicted idealism about the Chinese Communists that would prove Carlson's undoing in the McCarthy era Tracing the rise and fall of an unlikely American war hero The Raider is a story of exploration of cultural misunderstanding and of one man's awakening to the sheer breadth of the world *Catalog of Copyright Entries. Kim, Albert L. Park, 2023-05-15 Bringing together a multidisciplinary conversation about the entanglement of nature and society in the Korean peninsula Forces of Nature aims to define and develop the field of the Korean environmental humanities At its core the volume works to foreground non-human agents that have long been marginalized in Korean studies placing flora fauna mineral deposits and climatic conditions that have hitherto been confined to footnotes front and center In the process the authors blaze new trails through Korea's social and physical landscapes What emerges is a deeper appreciation of the environmental conflicts that have animated life in Korea The authors show how natural processes have continually shaped the course of events on the peninsula how floods droughts famines fires and pests have inexorably impinged on human affairs and how different forces have been mobilized by the state to variously control extract modernize and showcase the Korean landscape Forces of Nature suggestively reveals Korea's physical landscape to be not so much a passive context to Korea's history but an active agent in its transformation and reinvention across centuries With support from the Henry Luce Foundation our goal is to produce all titles in this series both in Open Access for reasons of global accessibility and equity as well as in print editions Cibola National Forest (N.F.) Plan (OK,TX,NM) ,1985 Al Sieber Dan L. Thrapp,2012-11-28 General George Crook planned and organized the principal Apache campaign in Arizona and General Nelson Miles took credit for its successful conclusion on the 1800s but the men who really won it were rugged frontiersmen such as Al Sieber the renowned Chief of Scouts Crook relied on Sieber to lead Apache scouts against renegade Apaches who were adept at hiding and raiding from within their native terrain In this carefully researched biography Dan L Thrapp gives extensive evidence for Sieber's expertise noting that the expeditions he accompanied were highly successful whereas those from which he was absent met with few triumphs Perhaps the greatest tribute to his abilities was paid by a San Carlos Apache who no matter how miserable life might become because he said Sieber would find him even if he left no tracks More Than a Scenic Mountain Landscape Kurt Frederick Anschuetz,2007 This study focuses on the cultural historical environment of the 88 900 acre 35 560 ha Valles Caldera National Preserve VCNP over the past four centuries of Spanish Mexican and U S governance It includes a review and synthesis of available published and unpublished historical ethnohistorical and ethnographic literature about the human occupation of the area now contained within the VCNP Documents include historical maps texts letters diaries business records photographs land and mineral patents and court testimony This study presents a cultural historical framework of VCNP land use that will be useful to land managers and researchers in assessing the historical ecology of the property It provides VCNP administrators and agents the cultural historical background needed to develop management plans that acknowledge traditional associations with the Preserve and offers managers additional background for structuring and acting on consultations with affiliated communities Cooperative Economic Insect Report United States.
