Rainbow Warrior Sunday Times of London Insight Team,1986 Rainbow Warrior: the French Attempt to Sink Greenpeace Brian Whitaker,1986 Rainbow Warrior Times Insight Team Sunday,19?? The French Presence in the South Pacific, 1842-1940 Robert Aldrich,1989-06-18 An examination of France's presence in the South Pacific after the takeover of Tahiti It places the South Pacific in the context of overall French expansion and current theories of colonialism and imperialism and evaluates the French impact on Oceania Mammoth Books presents Terrorist Attacks and Clandestine Wars Jon E. Lewis,2012-07-26 7 7 Is the government covering up evidence of bungling by the intelligence services before the 7 7 bombings in London 9 11 Did George Bush stage the 9 11 attack or at least purposefully allow for it to occur so he could generate support to invade Afghanistan for reasons linked to the oil industry And was Flight 93 shot down on the order of the White House before it could reach its target Or was it really al Qaeda acting alone HAARP It is said that HAARP camouflages the most destructive weapon ever created Is it really possible that this is what this 33 acre site is concealing The Lockerbie Bombing Initially it was assumed that Libya had a clear motive for the Lockerbie bombing revenge for the 1986 US Air Force raid on the cities of Tripoli and Benghazi But the truth is inevitably far more complex The Madrid Train Bombings What is the truth behind this atrocity in Spain Oklahoma City Bombings Is the fact that the FBI failed to investigate McVeigh's connections with the Militias and the fact that they held back 3 000 pages of documents enough to prove the Oklahoma City bombing was orchestrated by them Pearl Harbor Did President Franklin D Roosevelt conspire to bring about the attack on US forces at Pearl Harbour The Port Chicago Explosion What was the real cause of this explosion The Rainbow Warrior French DGSE agents alleged to have sunk this Greenpeace ship How much of this is true and if it is why did they do it Roberto Calvi In 1982 God's banker was found dead swinging from Blackfriars Bridge in London As Calvi had been under enormous pressure it was assumed he had killed himself But twenty years on the case was reopened and reevaluated producing somewhat different findings The Sovereign Military Order of Malta Does the Order moonlight as an intelligence broker TWA Flight 800 Why did this plane explode over the Atlantic Make It a Green Peace! Frank Zelko,2013-04-03 The emergence of Greenpeace in the late 1960s from a loose knit group of anti nuclear and anti whaling activists fundamentally changed the nature of environmentalism its purpose philosophy and tactics around the world And yet there has been no comprehensive objective history of Greenpeace's origins until now Make It a Green Peace draws upon meeting minutes internal correspondence manifestos philosophical writings and interviews with former members to offer the first full account of the origins of what has become the most recognizable environmental non governmental organization in the world Situating Greenpeace within the peace movement and counterculture of the 1960s Frank Zelko provides a much deeper treatment of the group's groundbreaking brand of radical media savvy direct action environmentalism than has been previously attempted Zelko traces the complex intellectual and cultural roots of Greenpeace to the various protest movements of the 1950s and 1960s highlighting the influence of Quakerism with its practice of bearing witness Native American spirituality and the non violent resistance of Gandhi Unlike the more strait laced less confrontational Sierra Club and Audubon Society early Greenpeacers smoked dope dropped acid wore their hair long and put their bodies on the line interposing themselves between the harpoons of whalers and the clubs of seal hunters to save the animals and achieve what they hoped would be a lasting transformation in the way humans regarded the natural world And while it may not have achieved its most revolutionary goals Greenpeace inarguably created a heightened awareness of environmental issues that endures to this day Narrating the key campaigns and arguments among the group s early members Make It a Green Peace vividly captures all the drama pathos and occasional moments of absurd comic relief of Greenpeace s tumultuous first decade

Rainbow Warrior Sunday Times of London Insight Team,1986 Nonviolent Action Ronald M. McCarthy,Gene Sharp,Brad Bennett,2013-07-04 This comprehensive guide to research sources and theories about nonviolent action as a technique of struggle in social and political conflicts discusses the methods and techniques used by groups in various encounters Although violence and its causes have received a great deal of attention nonviolent action has not received its due as an international phenomenon with a long history An introduction that explains the theories and research used in the study provides a practical guide to this essential bibliography of English language sources The first part of the book covers case study materials divided by region and subdivided by country Within each country materials are arranged chronologically and topically The second major part examines the methods and theory of nonviolent action principled nonviolence and several closely related areas in social science such as conflict analysis and social movements The book is indexed by author and subject Environmental Activism and World Civic Politics Paul Wapner,1996-01-04 A theoretical study of the politics of transnational environmental activist groups such as Greenpeace Friends of the Earth and the World Wildlife Fund that argues that environmental activists practice world civic politics and play a central role in the way the world addresses environmental issues Defusing Armageddon: Inside NEST, America's Secret Nuclear Bomb Squad Jeffrey Richelson,2009-02-02 Richelson reveals the history of America s super secret government agency Nuclear Emergency Support Team NEST Defusing Armageddon provides a behind the scenes look at NEST s personnel operations and detection and disablement equipment 16 pages of illustrations 4 maps Nuclear Playground Stewart Firth,2020-11-19 In the late 1980s it was felt that World War III could start in the Pacific Long regarded by the USA as an American lake the Pacific was now a focus of competition between the superpowers The USSR whose nuclear arms navy was limited to their north Pacific ports now had a major new naval base at Cam Ranh Bay in Vietnam In response to this new threat the Americans were planning more urgently for nuclear war in the Pacific adding to their own mighty arsenal in the region and taunting the Soviets with aggressive surveillance and military exercises The Soviets did the same For 40 years Pacific Islanders have had cause to resent the use of their ocean as a nuclear playground of the five nuclear powers three the USA USSR and China launched missiles into the Pacific for test purposes too the USA and Britain exploded nuclear devices there but had stopped and one France continued to test nuclear bombs in one of its colonies Pacific Islanders now have cause to fear that the ocean is becoming a nuclear battleground Originally published in 1987 this book tells the story of the nuclear men in the Pacific and of those people they displaced and irradiated It is also about what these people and their governments had begun to do in response The nuclear issue had transformed the political landscape of Micronesia and the South Pacific in the 1980s loosening the US grip and making the French increasingly unpopular The people of these remote communities largely forgotten or considered dispensable had a nuclear past made for them Now they want to make their own future

An Environmental History of Canada Laurel Sefton MacDowell, 2012-07-31 Throughout history most people have associated northern North America with wilderness with abundant fish and game snow capped mountains and endless forest and prairie Canada's contemporary picture gallery however contains more disturbing images deforested mountains empty fisheries and melting ice caps Adopting both a chronological and thematic approach Laurel MacDowell examines human interactions with the land and the origins of our current environmental crisis from first peoples to the Kyoto Protocol This richly illustrated exploration of the past from an environmental perspective will change the way Canadians and others around the world think about and look at Canada

The Sounding of the Whale D. Graham Burnett, 2013-09-24 Explores how humans view of whales changed from the nineteenth to the twentieth century looking at how the sea mammals were once viewed as monsters but evolved into something much gentler and more beautiful

The Light-Green Society Michael Bess, 2003-11-15 The accelerating interpenetration of nature and culture is the hallmark of the new light green social order that has emerged in postwar France argues Michael Bess in this penetrating new history On one hand a preoccupation with natural qualities and equilibrium has increasingly infused France s economic and cultural life On the other human activities have laid an ever more potent and pervasive touch on the environment whether through the intrusion of agriculture industry and urban growth or through the much subtler and more well intentioned efforts of ecological management The Light Green Society limns sharply these trends over the last fifty years The rise of environmentalism in the 1960s stemmed from a fervent desire to save wild nature nature conceived as a qualitatively distinct domain wholly separate from human designs and endeavors And yet Bess shows after forty years of environmentalist agitation much of it remarkably successful in achieving its aims the old conception of nature as a separate sphere has become largely untenable In the light green society where ecology and technological modernity continually flow together a new hybrid vision of intermingled nature culture has increasingly taken its place

Environmental Journalism Henrik Bodker, Irene Neverla, 2014-10-29 Environmental journalism is an increasingly significant area for study within the broader field of journalism studies It connects the concerns of politics science business culture and the natural world whilst also exploring the boundaries between the local regional and global A central and typical focus for its concerns are the global summits convened to share scientific knowledge about global warming and to formulate policies to mitigate its consequences in particular locales But reporting environmental change creates difficulties for journalists who are often ill equipped to resolve the uncertainties in the disputed scientific accounts of climate change This research based collection focuses on aspects of environmental journalism in Australia France Norway Sweden the UK and the USA Contributors present case studies of media reporting of the environment and explore considerations of objectivity and advocacy in journalistic coverage of the environment and climate change This book was originally published as a special issue of Journalism Studies
