make readily accessible the abstruse information contained in the book an elaborate topical cross index is included I make no claim for either the infallibility or the originality of any statement herein contained I have studied the fragmentary writings of the ancients sufficiently to realize that dogmatic utterances concerning their tenets are worse than foolhardy Traditionalism is the curse of modern philosophy particularly that of the European schools While many of the statements contained in this treatise may appear at first wildly fantastic I have sincerely endeavored to refrain from haphazard metaphysical speculation presenting the material as far as possible in the spirit rather than the letter of the original authors By assuming responsibility only for the mistakes which may appear herein I hope to escape the accusation of plagiarism which has been directed against nearly every writer on the subject of mystical philosophy Having no particular ism of my own to promulgate I have not attempted to twist the original writings to substantiate preconceived notions nor have I distorted doctrines in any effort to reconcile the irreconcilable differences present in the various systems of religio philosophic thought The entire theory of the book is diametrically opposed to the modern method of thinking for it is concerned with subjects openly ridiculed by the sophists of the twentieth century Its true purpose is to introduce the mind of the reader to a hypothesis of living wholly beyond the pale of materialistic theology philosophy or science The mass of abstruse material between its covers is not susceptible to perfect organization but so far as possible related topics have been grouped together
