Building Mennonite Belonging Hyung Jin (Pablo) Kim Sun, 2025-02-18 Hyung Jin Kim Sun is a Mennonite He was born in Paraguay and raised by a Korean immigrant family before attending an evangelical seminary in the United States There he joined a Mennonite church though he often returned from gatherings feeling uneasy Most Mennonites he met were white with European heritage and their faith community was often their ethnic community as well As a Korean Paraguayan Kim Sun felt that he would never be Mennonite enough This crisis of religious identity prompted him to work towards an intercultural Mennonite church where all people could experience full belonging Building Mennonite Belonging explores the interplay between ethnicity culture race and faith in Canada and other multicultural societies Using three Mennonite theologies messianic community missional church and shalom church Kim Sun navigates the intersection of identity and belief to broaden the vision of Mennonite peoplehood These theologies show that Mennonites aspire to engage with the world dialogue with those from diverse backgrounds seek peace and strive for reconciliation The materials to build an intercultural church can be found within existing Mennonite teachings and traditions Though centred on Mennonites Kim Sun's insights resonate with any faith community grappling with ethnocultural and racial diversity Envisioning new possibilities for faith communities in the twenty first century Building Mennonite Belonging advocates for a church that reflects and responds to the diverse society it inhabits Kim Sun's work is not only a call to action but a guide to fostering a more inclusive church and society

Wise as Serpents, Innocent as Doves Keith Graber Miller, 1996 In July 1968 the Mennonite Central Committee MCC opened an office in Washington D C for monitoring the actions of the federal government's various branches Given American Mennonites long history of noninvolvement in political affairs this shift toward engagement was dramatic indeed In this in depth study Keith Graber Miller shows how the church's distinctive traditions of pacifism humility and service have informed and shaped the nature of its activities in Washington Graber Miller argues that Mennonites have both influenced the national policymaking debate and have themselves been influenced by their increasing exposure to it Wise As Serpents Innocent as Doves not only explores the twentieth century transformations among American Mennonites but illuminates the larger issues of religious lobbying in the nation's capital Graber Miller suggests that the Mennonites have helped redefine what it means to be a lobbyist Because the Mennonites numbers are too few to make them a politically significant force he argues their only credibility in Washington lies in an astute and accurate analysis of how the world is and in the integrity of their witness to the truth as they see it BOOK JACKET doubt this would always have been a simplistic understanding but today as Canadian culture is increasing secularized it is religion itself that the majority sees as a minority concern Ethnic and religious loyalties pull together against a secular assimilation Such a change leaves the establishment denominations with an unwanted identity crisis of their own not the least part of which is due to an unfamiliar awareness of their own ethnic roots and histories Mennonite Society Calvin Redekop,1989-06 The Mennonite Mosaic J. Howard Kauffman,Leo Driedger,1991 Based on findings from surveys of thousands of Mennonite and Brethren in Christ denomination members in 1972 and 1989 this book answers such questions as What are the current beliefs and practices What happens when members become urban How do they cope with increasing pluralism while retaining their roots Ministry Among United States Hispanics by an Ethno-religious Minority Juan Francisco Martínez,1991 Faith and Fragility Hans Mol,1985 Canadian Ethnic Studies ,1977 Canadiana ,1978 Canadian Children's Literature ,1981 University of Toronto Quarterly University of Toronto,1895 Sessions D'étude Canadian Catholic Historical Association,1978 International Books in Print, 1995 Barbara Hopkinson,[Anonymus AC01401231],1995
