Berruezo-Sánchez, 2024-09-11 In this groundbreaking study Diana Berruezo S nchez recovers key chapters in the history of Afro Iberian diasporas by exploring the literary contributions and life experiences of black African communities and individuals in early modern Spain From the sixteenth to the eighteenth centuries international trade involving chattel slavery led to significant populations of enslaved free d and half manumitted black African women men and children in the Iberian Peninsula These demographic changes transformed Spain s urban and social landscapes In exploring Spain s role in the transatlantic slave trade and its effects on cultural forms of the period Berruezo S nchez examines a broad range of texts and unearths new documents relating to black African poets performers and black confraternities Her discoveries evince the broad yet largely disregarded literary and artistic impact of the African diaspora in early modern Spain expanding the scope of linguistic practices beyond habla de negros and creating space for early modern black poets in the Spanish literary canon These textual sources challenge established understandings of black Africans and black African history in early modern Spain They show how black Africans exerted significant cultural agency by collectively contributing to and shaping the literary texts of the period including those of the popular genre villancicos de negros and by developing artistic traditions as musicians dancers and poets As both creators and consumers of cultural forms black African men and women navigated a restrictive coercive slave society yet negotiated their own physical and cultural spaces

The Polyphonic World of Cervantes and Dostoevsky Slav N. Gratchev, 2017-12-06 This book is the first scholarly attempt to examine Don Quixote from the angle of dialogism and polyphony To begin with although Mikhail Bakhtin considered Dostoevsky the creator of a polyphonic novel we believe that the first elements of polyphony can be observed in Cervantes Don Quixote A preliminary objective will therefore be to articulate without reducing the role of Dostoevsky in the creation of the polyphonic novel and relying on Bakhtin's interpretation of polyphony heteroglossia and multivoicedness that the polyphonic structure appeared and evolved to a state of relative maturity centuries before Dostoevsky The book will subsequently explore how and why the polyphonic structure was born within the classic monophonic structure of Don Quixote the ways in which this new structure positioned itself in relation to the classic monophonic one and what relations it may be said to have established with it resulting in a unique amalgam the hybrid semi polyphonic novel An overarching concern throughout the project will be to trace Cervantes search for new and more sophisticated expressive possibilities that the old monophonic narration could not offer while also shedding light on how Cervantes systematically and deliberately employed polyphonic structure in Don Quixote
