Brockmann, 2006 Nuremberg The Imaginary Capital is a broad study of German cultural and intellectual history since 1500 with a particular emphasis on the period from 1800 to the present The book explores the ways in which Germans over the past two centuries have imagined Nuremberg as a cultural and spiritual capital focusing feelings of national identity and belonging on the city or on their Images of it Nuremberg The Imaginary Capital analyzes the way in which a particular city came to be seen in Germany and elsewhere as representative of the national whole The book goes beyond the analysis of particular historical periods by showing how successive epochs images of Nuremberg built on those preceding them thus German cultural and intellectual history is shown as an intelligible unity centered around fascination with and veneration for

Einwohnerbuch der Stadt Nürnberg ,1928 The Reformation of the Image Joseph Leo Koerner,2004-05-03 With his 95 Theses Martin Luther advanced the radical notion that all Christians could enjoy a direct personal relationship with God shattering years of Catholic tradition and obviating the need for intermediaries like priests and saints between the individual believer and God The text of the Bible the Word of God itself Luther argued revealed the only true path to salvation not priestly ritual and saintly iconography But if words not iconic images showed the way to salvation why didn't religious imagery during the Reformation disappear along with indulgences The answer according to Joseph Leo Koerner lies in the paradoxical nature of Protestant religious imagery itself which is at once both iconic and iconoclastic Koerner masterfully demonstrates this point not only with a multitude of Lutheran images many never before published but also with a close reading of a single pivotal work Lucas Cranach the Elder's altarpiece for the City Church in Wittenberg Luther's parish As Koerner shows Cranach breaking all the conventions of traditional Catholic iconography created an entirely new aesthetic for the new Protestant ethos In the Crucifixion scene of the altarpiece for instance Christ is alone and stripped of all his usual attendants no Virgin Mary no John the Baptist no Mary Magdalene with nothing separating him from Luther preaching the Word and his parishioners And while the Holy Spirit is nowhere to be seen representation of the divine being impossible it is nonetheless dramatically present as the force animating Christ's drapery According to Koerner it is this iconoclasm that animates the best Reformation art Insightful and breathtakingly original The Reformation of the Image compellingly shows how visual art became indispensable to a religious movement built on words Bilder aus der schwäbisch-bayerischen Hochfläche den Neckar- und Maingebieten Fedor von Köppen,1878 Nürnberg Paul Johannes Rée,1900 Bayerische
