Sims, 2009-06-01 This work presents an evangelical theology of the child nurtured in the context of American evangelicalism and affluence It employs an eclectic theological critical method to produce a theological anthropology of the affluent American evangelical child AAEC through interdisciplinary evangelical engagement of American history sociology and economics Sims articulates how affluence constitutes a significant impediment to evangelical nurture of the AAEC in the discipline and instruction of the Lord Thus the problem he addresses is nurture in evangelical affluence conceived as a theological anthropological problem Nurture in the cultural matrices of the evangelical affluence generated by technological consumer capitalism in the U S impedes spiritual and moral formation of the AAEC for discipleship in the way of the cross This impediment risks disciplinary formation of the AAEC for capitalist culture cultivates delusional belief that life consists in an abundance of possessions and hinders the practice of evangelical liberation of the poor on humanity s underside The result is the AAEC s spiritual moral lack in late modernity Chapter 1 introduces the problem of the AAEC Chapters 2 and 3 provide a diachronic lens for the theological anthropology of the AAEC through critical assessment of the theological anthropologies of the child in Jonathan Edwards Horace Bushnell and Lawrence Richards Chapters 4 and 5 constitute the synchronic perspective of the AAEC Chapter 4 presents an evangelical sociology of the AAEC drawing upon William Corsaro s theory of interpretive reproductions and chapter 5 constructs an evangelical theology of the AAEC through critical interaction with John Schneider's moral theology of affluence Chapter 6 Whither the AAEC concludes with a recapitulation of the work and a forecast of possible futures for the AAEC in the twenty first century The Secret of My Child's Success Gizel Hazan, 2017-03-20 Every parent brings her his child into the world

wishing that the child will be healthy happy and successful What is SUCCESS and what is the SECRET of being successful There are two different ideas in the education world Does the child develop a personality by nature or by nurture Even if we accept both views to a certain degree we need to know that every minute we can educate and change ourselves by improving our brain's functioning In recent years even people who were raised under difficult conditions have been able to find opportunities to improve and educate themselves thanks to self help books This book draws on my educational and professional experience on child psychology as well as on information derived from other helpful books We should perform our parenthood duties as set forth in the famous Khalil Gibran poem Children At the end of my book an unexpected surprise will surprise you Please read until the end of my book to learn what the surprise is Teacher Robert Mitchell, 2024-07-24 The vocational archetype stands behind the character of the teacher's personality focusing lessons on both the intellectual and personality development of students Teachers discover the vocational archetype in themselves through trial and error The teacher student relationship in the autonomy of the classroom inspires the mind and nurtures the character of the soul However consciousness of mind and soul are different Soul consciousness has an imagistic nature that can see the spiritual archetype that stands behind the individual personality. The child archetype is depicted in many cultures as the divine child The archetype of the adolescent is the hero The vocational archetype of the teacher is expressed in personality and character nurturing the archetypal characteristics in the personalities of the students However many teachers have lost touch with the archetypal characteristics of their vocation and must seek the vocational archetype on their own through trial and error This book is a portrait of one teacher's process of seeking the vocational archetype Experiences with students are a major part of the process The other part is to find and defend a classroom philosophy that evokes the teacher archetype in front of the students their parents and the administration The author will inspire encourage and empower teachers who are seeking the vocational archetype in themselves and give voice to the vocational archetype in our school communities and in our culture
