Socioeconomic Stress, Health and Child Nutritional Status in Zimbabwe at a Time of Economic Structural Adjustment Leon A. Bijlmakers, Mary T. Bassett, David Sanders, 1998 The exact implications of implementing structural adjustment in the social sector in Africa have been hotly disputed and have polarized researchers Using an empirically grounded longitudinal study of urban and rural households in Zimbabwe this report examines the consequences of market based economic reforms It focuses on observed changes in the household economy in urban and rural Zimbabwe The study offers extensive documentation and analysis of shifts in the health status and behavior of the people as well as changes in health outcomes especially as they relate to nutritional status and child mortality The authors make the case for policy reforms that could safeguard the health and well being of people at a time of continuing economic decline      Evaluation of the Zimbabwe Livelihoods and Food Security Programme Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations, 2022-06-24 This report presents the results of the evaluation of the Zimbabwe Livelihoods and Food Security Programme LFSP GCP ZIM 025 UK implemented by the Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations FAO between 2013 and 2021 The programme sought to contribute to poverty reduction by actively addressing the specific constraints that smallholder farmers particularly

Beyond the Crises: Zimbabwe's Prospects for Transformation Tendai Murisa, Tendai Chikweche, 2015-12-01 Over the past years few African countries have been the focus of discussions and analyses generating a vast array of literature as much as Zimbabwe The socioeconomic and political crises since the turn of the century have deeply transformed the country from the ideals of a vibrant freshly independent nation just two decades earlier These transformations have necessitated the call for the restructuring of Zimbabwean society polity and economy But this literature remains exclusively within the realm of academic thinking and theorising with no concerted effort to move beyond this by explicitly drawing out the policy implications Beyond the Crises Zimbabwe's Prospects for Transformation is a welcome addition to the academic and policy literature with a much broader and all embracing focus in terms of policy interventions By focusing on different aspects of social and economic justice Murisa and Chikweche go beyond initiating a broad discussion on these two key pillars of human development with a view to suggesting possible future directions of practical solutions and policy development for the attainment of inclusive social and economic justice for Zimbabweans
