Nyc Sex How New York City Transformed Sex In America:

NYC Sex Museum of Sex (New York, N.Y.),2002 Published to coincide with the much anticipated opening of the Museum of Sex in New York NYC Sex features conversations between major cultural figures and historians on sexual topics Includes 19th century drawings and photos film stills posters magazine pinups and images of sex symbols past and present A World Made Sexy Paul Rutherford,2007-01-01 Eroticism is a constant presence in modern society encompassing almost every aspect of our daily lives It is a product of one of the major commercial and political enterprises of the twentieth and twenty first centuries the cultivation of desire desire for sex desire for wealth desire for entertainment Paul Rutherford s A World Made Sexy looks at modern civilization s ongoing project to manufacture and encourage public wants building a utopia where just about everyone who is affluent dreams plays and of course shops A World Made Sexy uses museum exhibitions art books magazines films and television to examine the rise and purpose of eroticism first in America but soon across the affluent world Starting with a brief foray into the representation of history as past pornography Rutherford explores a sexual liberation movement shaped by the ideas of Marx and Freud the erotic styles of Salvador Dali and pop art the pioneering use of publicity as erotica by Playboy and other products and the growing concerns of cultural critics over the emergence of a regime of stimulation In one case study Rutherford pairs James Bond and Madonna in order to examine the link between eroticism and aggression He further details how television advertising after 1980 constructed a theatre of the libido to entice the buying public and concludes by situating the Eros project in the wider context of Michel Foucault s account of the administration of life and specifically sexuality during the modern era A World Made Sexy is about power and pleasure emancipation and domination and the relationship between the personal passions and social controls that have crafted desire

Cities of Pleasure Alan Collins,2013-09-13 This book contains a collection of cutting edge chapters that explore various connections between urban living sexuality and sexual desire around the world The key themes featured address a number of topical issues including the controversies and debates raging around the evolution defining patterns and appropriate regulation of commercial sex zones and markets in the urban landscape how gay public spaces districts and gay villages emerged and developed in various towns and cities around the world how changing attitudes to and the usage of urban sexual spaces as depicted in iconic television series such as Sex and the City and Queer as Folk reflect the reality of working women s or gay men s changing life experiences With detailed case studies and a strong interdisciplinary appeal this book will be a valuable reference for postgraduates and advanced students in the fields of cultural studies as well as human urban and social geography This book was previously published as a special issue of the journal Urban Studies Gutter Auteur Rob Craig,2012-12-13 Grindhouse filmmaker Andy Milligan has been the subject of a revealing biography and boasts a grassroots fan base but his remarkable work has thus far received no serious critical overview Working virtually alone on infinitesimal budgets often using a used 16mm newsreel camera Milligan crafted some of the most unique melodramas of the 1960s and 1970s Often mounted as period pieces using costumes sewn by the filmmaker Milligan s gritty bizarre films come across as inimitable meldings of the avant garde theater of Jean Genet the experimental films of Jack Smith and the random cinema verite of a lunatic with a home movie camera Yet Milligan s films are anything but random ruminating at length on profound sociocultural themes of the day including the emptiness of the sexual revolution Evident throughout all the films are two pet themes a rabid deconstruction of the heterosexual paradigm and a grotesque illumination of the family as breeder of dysfunction
