Wright,2015-08-15 Forever Forest celebrates the 150th anniversary of Nottingham Forest the second oldest professional football club in the world Join official club historian Don Wright as he commemorates 150 years of the Reds charting the lives of the people officials players and fans who have made this world famous football club The 1940's Stylus Press Publications,1993-01-01 Multicultural Britain Kieran Connell,2024-08-15 Shortlisted for the Wolfson History Prize 2025 Between the end of the Second World War and the early twenty first century Britain became multicultural This vivid book tells that remarkable story Kieran Connell an historian of Irish and German heritage who grew up in Balsall Heath inner city Birmingham takes readers into multicultural communities across Britain at key moments in their development Journeying far beyond London Multicultural Britain explores the messy contradictions of the country s transition into today s diverse society It reveals the ordinary people who have forged Britain s multiculturalism skewers public leaders from Enoch Powell to Harold Wilson to Margaret Thatcher who have too often weaponised race for their own political ends and shines a light on the shifting nature of British racism revealing its enduring day to day impact on ethnic minority groups Between postcolonial reckonings and immigration anxieties how people live together in Brexit Britain remains an urgent question for our time Connell s fresh thought provoking book unveils British multiculturalism not as a problematic idea but as a rich and complex lived reality Global Undergrounds Carlos López Galviz,Paul Dobraszczyk,Bradley L. Garrett,2016-06-15 Rest your eyes long enough on the skylines of Delhi Guangzhou Jakarta even Chicago or London and you will see the same remarkable transformation building after building going up with the breakneck speed of twenty first century urbanization But there is something else just as transformative that you won t see sprawling networks of tunnels rooting these cities into the earth Global Undergrounds offers a richly illustrated exploration of these subterranean spaces charting their global reach and the profound but often unseen effects they have on human life The authors shine their headlamps into an astonishing diversity of manmade underground environments including subway systems sewers communications pipelines storage facilities and even shelters There they find not only an extraordinary range of architectural approaches to underground construction but also a host of different cultural meanings Underground places can evoke fear or hope they can serve as sites of memory places of work or the hidden headquarters of resistance movements They are places that can tell a city s oldest stories or foresee its most distant futures They are places ultimately of both incredible depth and breadth crucial to all of us topside who work as urban planners geographers architects engineers or any of us who take subway trains or enjoy fresh water from a faucet Indeed as the authors demonstrate the constant flux within urban undergrounds the nonstop circulation of people substances and energy serves all city dwellers in myriad ways not just with the logistics of day to day life but as a crucial part of a city s mythology Record Series Thoroton Society,2002 The Routledge International Handbook on Fear of Crime Murray Lee,Gabe Mythen,2017-12-01 The Routledge International Handbook on Fear of Crime brings together original and international state of the art contributions of theoretical empirical policy related scholarship on the intersection of perceptions of crime victimisation vulnerability and risk This is timely as fear of crime has now been a focus of scholarly and policy interest for some fifty years and shows little sign of abating Research on fear of crime is demonstrative of the inter disciplinaryity of criminology drawing in the disciplines of sociology psychology political science history cultural studies gender studies planning and architecture philosophy and human geography This collection draws in many of these interdisciplinary themes This collections also extends the boundaries of fear of crime research It does this both methodologically and conceptually but perhaps more importantly it moves us beyond some of the often repeated debates in this field to focus on novel topics from unique perspectives The book begins by plotting the history of fear of crime s development then moves on to investigate the methodological and theoretical debates that have ensued and the policy transfer that occurred across jurisdictions Key elements in debates and research on fear of crime concerning gender race and ethnicity are covered as are contemporary themes in fear of crime research such as regulation security risk and the fear of terrorism the mapping of fear of crime and fear of crime beyond urban landscapes The final sections of the book explore geographies of fear and future and unique directions for this research

Crime in England 1880-1945 Barry

Godfrey,2013-10-30 This book is an ambitious attempt to map the main changes in the criminal justice system in the Victorian period through to the twentieth century Chapters include an examination of the growth and experience of imprisonment policing and probation services the recording of crime in official statistics and in public memory and the possibilities of research created by new electronic and on line sources an exploration of time space and place on crime and the growth internationalisation and science led approach of crime control methods in this period Unusually the book presents these issues in a way which illustrates the sources of data that informs modern crime history and discusses how criminologists and historians produce theories of crime history Consequently there are a series of interesting and lively debates of a thematic nature which will engage historians criminologists and research methods specialists as well as the undergraduates and school students that like the author are fascinated by crime history
