Men And Forces Of Our Time:

Men of Our Times: Leading Patriots of The Day Harriet Beecher Stowe, 2020-09-28 In these sketches of some of the leading public men of our times the editor professes to give such particulars of their lives and such only as the public have a right to know Every such man has two lives his public and his private one The one becomes fairly the property of the public in virtue of his having been connected with events in which every one has a share of interest but the other belongs exclusively to himself his family and his intimate friends and the public have no more right to discuss or pry into its details than they have into those of any other private individual The editor has aimed to avoid all privacies and personalities which might be indelicate in relation to family circles She has indeed in regard to all the characters so far as possible dwelt upon the early family and community influences by which they were formed particularly upon the character and influence of mothers but such inquiries relate for the most part to those long dead and whose mortal history has become a thing of the past Whenever the means have been at hand the family stock from which each man has been derived has been minutely traced The question of inherited traits is becoming yearly one of increasing interest and most striking results come from a comparison of facts upon this subject The fusion of different races is said to produce marked results on the characteristics of the human being America has been a great smelting furnace in which tribes and nations have been melted together and the result ought to be some new developments of human nature It will always be both interesting and useful to know both the quality of the family stock and the circumstances of the early training of men who have acted any remarkable part in life Our country has recently passed through a great crisis which has concentrated upon it for a time the attention of the civilized world It has sustained a shock which the whole world judging by past experience said must inevitably shatter the republic to fragments and yet like a gallant ship in full sail it has run down the terrible obstacle and gone on triumphant and is this day stronger for the collision This wonderful success is owing to the character of the people which a Christian Democracy breeds Of this people we propose to give a specimen to show how they were formed in early life from the influences which are inherent in such a state We are proud and happy to know that these names on our list are after all but specimens Probably every reader of this book will recall as many more whom he will deem equally worthy of public notice There is scarcely one of them who would not say in reference to his position before the public what Lincoln said I stand where I do because some man must stand there but there are twenty others that might as well have been leaders as myself On the whole we are not ashamed to present to the world this list of men as a specimen of the graduates from the American school of Christian Democracy So far as we know the American government is the only permanent republic which ever based itself upon the principles laid down by Jesus Christ of the absolute equal brotherhood of man and the rights of man on the simple ground of manhood Notwithstanding the contrary practices of a section of the States united in the Union and the concessions which they introduced into the constitution nobody doubts that this was the leading idea of the men who founded our government

The declaration of American Independence crystalized a religious teaching within a political act The constitution of the United States still further elaborates these principles and so strong was the logic of ideas that the conflict of opinions implied in the incidental concessions to opposite ideas produced in the government of the country a continual and irrepressible discord For a while it seemed doubtful which idea would triumph and whether the accidental parasite would not strangle and wither the great original tree The late war was the outcome of the whole The fierce fire into which our national character has been cast in the hour of trial has burned out of it the last lingering stain of compromise with anything inconsistent with its primary object to ordain justice and perpetuate liberty

Our Time in Vietnam John H.

Corns, 2009-12-17 Captain John Corns leads his Special Forces team into the jungles of the Central Highlands of Vietnam in 1963. There is an insurgency and he and his Green Berets have undergone extensive training for the mission of assisting the Vietnamese and Montagnard people in their fight against communist terrorism. What they find is a challenge that resists rapid progress and a cause that leaves destruction and death in its wake. Corns returns four years later as a major and operations officer for the Army Navy Mobile Riverine Force in the Mekong Delta. The conflicting military forces are larger losses to both the insurgent Viet Cong and to American Forces are greater and the sacrifices of men around him beg the question of what will it cost to win and will it be worth the losses. Now a retired Lieutenant General Corns looks back at those days as a young officer to share the worth to him of that experience his time in Vietnam with men like himself Men of our Times ... She begins with the primordial Garden of Eden and then examines the missions of Christian Rosenkreutz, Mani, Joan of Arc, St Paul, St Francis and Raphael. She then contemplates the mysterious acts of healing performed by Christ as described in the Gospels. The author ends with an examination of the Christian core of Steiner's Philosophy of Spiritual Activity: Intuitive Thinking as a Spiritual Path. Michaelmas and the Soul Forces of Man Rudolf Steiner, 1923-05 4 lectures Vienna September 27 October 1 1923 from CW 223 Steiner shows the need to expand the horizon of life into the breadth of the world in order to overcome today's hermit-like existence. He shows that the path to becoming true citizens of the cosmos is through the forces of the Archangel Michael who is always present and prepared to help us. Synopses September 27 How shall man, the earth citizen, once more become a citizen of the cosmos? The expansion of life's horizon into cosmic reaches. Philosophic aspects and impulses determining the human being in the picture of Michael's Conflict with the Dragon. September 28 Present-day man as a world hermit. The way back to spirit through the Michael force. Enchantment and liberation of the elemental beings. Man's responsibility to the cosmos. What is demanded of us is a profound faith in the spirit that will make us into instruments of the divine spiritual forces. Experiencing spirit through pure thought leads to inspiration. September 30 Prerequisites of the inauguration of an autumn festival penetrating extra-terrestrial cosmic contexts: experiencing the course of the seasons. The Druidic and the Mithras Mysteries: the sun circles and cromlechs. Observation of the sun yielded knowledge of the connection between heaven and earth. The language of the heavens was deciphered and the cult gave directions regulating practical and social life, thereby becoming a sort of divine service: the image of the Bull in the Mithras cult and the schooling of the neophyte's capacity for sensitive perception: the heart as a sense organ was raised to a certain degree of consciousness. Through the heart organization the course of nature was perceived within man and through the heart science the spirit of the sun's annual passage through the zodiac was studied. In this way men read in the heavens what was to be done on earth. Concerning the cosmic historical evolution of the planetary system. October 1 We need realistic
