Nuer Conquest The Structure And Development Of An Expansionist System:

The Nuer Conquest Raymond Case Kelly, 1985 A study of Nuer expansionism with implications for research into the relationship between social and material causes of change Perspectives on Africa Roy Richard Grinker, Stephen C. Lubkemann, Christopher B. Steiner, 2010-05-17 The second edition of Perspectives on Africa A Reader in Culture History and Representation is both an introduction to the cultures of Africa and a history of the interpretations of those cultures Key essays explore the major issues and debates through a combination of classic articles and the newest research in the field Explores the dynamic processes by and through which scholars have described and understood African history and culture Includes selections from anthropologists historians philosophers and critics who collectively reveal the interpenetration of ideas and concepts within and across disciplines regions and historical periods Offers a combined focus on ethnography and theory giving students the means to link theory with data and perspective with practice Newly revised and updated edition of this popular text with 14 brand new chapters and two new sections Conflict and Violent Transformations and Development Governance and Globalization View from the Traveller Site Anna Hoare, 2025-04-24 Traveller specific architecture in Ireland and permanently temporary sites in the UK embody an insoluble contradiction as systems of control policing and strategic neglect and as a cultural right an alternative to housing that recognizes the dignity of choice View from the Traveller Site explores post nomadism as an artefact of statecraft in which contradictory processes occur in tandem legal insecurity persists and state policies have unexpected consequences as sites materialize the countervailing tendencies of post war European states At junctures of camps courtrooms sites and council houses Irish Travellers generate new architectures and revive old ones Architecture and the body form distributed fields of analogy and metaphor and are reciprocally constituted as social capacities and sites of personhood and relations Through ethnographic accounts of sites and camps funerary monuments and gift cycles of mares and foals the book reflects on material and performative architectures negotiations of gendered and generational rights and the role of women in encounters between the dead the living and the unborn in camps The author engages with debates in the anthropology of the state property citizenship and the family and offers a new analysis of Travellers concepts of personhood and embodiment as they negotiate the politics and poetics of citizenship kinship and sociality enfolding the settled non Traveller world of sites into the collective bodies of breeds and back breeds This exploration of the productivity of post nomadic architecture culture and sociality will be of particular interest to scholars of anthropology architecture and material and visual culture The Wintu & Their Neighbors Christopher K. Chase-Dunn, Kelly Marie Mann, 1998-10 On the cutting edge of world systems theory comes The Wintu and Their Neighbors the first case study to compare and contrast systematically an indigenous Native American society with the modern world at large Using an interdisciplinary approach that combines sociology anthropology political science geography and history Christopher Chase Dunn and Kelly M Mann have scoured the archaeological record of the

Wintu an aboriginal people without agriculture metallurgy or class structure who lived in the wooded valleys and hills of northern California By studying the household composition kinship and trade relations of the Wintu they call into question some of the basic assumptions of prior sociological theory and analysis Chase Dunn and Mann argue that Immanuel Wallerstein s world systems perspective originally applied only to the study of modern capitalistic societies can also be applied to the study of the social economic and political relationships in small stateless societies They contend that despite the fact that the Wintu appear on the surface to have been a household based society this indigenous group was in fact involved in a myriad of networks of interaction which resulted in intermarriage and which extended for many miles around the region These networks which were not based on the economic dominance of one society over another a concept fundamental to Wallerstein s world systems theory led to the eventual expansion of the Wintu as a cultural group Thus despite the fact that the Wintu did not behave like a modern society lacking wealth accumulation class distinctions and cultural dominance Chase Dunn and Mann insist that the Wintu were involved in a world system and argue therefore that the concept of the minisystem should be discarded They urge other scholars to employ this comparative world systems perspective in their research on stateless societies

Feuding and Warfare Keith F. Otterbein, 2020-12-22 Originally published in 1994 the late Keith F Otterbein s scholarship had followed an overall design since 1962 when he began conducting comparative studies of warfare using both ethnographic and cross cultural methods Through a conceptual framework derived from systems theory he made signal contributions to our understanding of the role of warfare in human social evolution He formulated a Fraternal Interest Group theory utilizing it to explain not only feuding and warfare but also rape and capital punishment Believing that armed combat is learned behaviour he posed questions about its learning process that had yet to be answered He acted as a major synthesizer of the growing literature on warfare and led attempts among anthropologists to apply their knowledge of war and peace to current events This volume will serve both as a useful introduction to the anthropology of war and as a needed compendium of Professor Otterbein s ideas Routledge Library Editions: Security and Society Various, 2021-09-30 This 12 volume set contains titles originally published between 1934 and 1995 An eclectic mix of titles this collection draws from anthropology economics ethics politics psychology and sociology Exploring security in both war and peacetime it includes volumes looking at the causes of war and its effect on society as a whole the soldiers themselves and their place in society the portrayal of war in the press both in words and photographs and the politics behind them

The Return of Science Philip Pomper, David Gary Shaw, 2002 In this collection of essays historians discuss the applications of evolutionary theory to cultural social economic and political phenomena William H McNeill presents a magisterial statement about the convergence of the sciences toward an evolutionary worldview Several contributors offer support for this thesis Anthropologist Donald Brown and archaeologist Albert Naccache bring together the realms of biology and culture in examinations of evolved human features and modes of evolution Demographer Noel Bonneuil and neuroscientist Alonso Pena apply mathematics to historical evolutionary processes such as the decision making of human agents and cultural diffusion

Contested Sudan Ibrahim Elnur, 2009-01-13 Since gaining independence in 1956 Sudan has endured a troubled history including the longest civil war in African history in Southern Sudan and more recent conflicts including the crisis in Darfur This book explores this history of ensuing conflict and analyses the different attempts to achieve political and economic reconstruction

Biosemiotics and Evolution Elena Pagni, Richard Theisen Simanke, 2022-01-03 This book reviews the evolution of Biosemiotics and gives an outlook on the future of this interdisciplinary new discipline In this volume the foundations of symbolism are transformed into a phenomenological technological philosophical and psychological discussion enriching the readers knowledge of these foundations It offers the opportunity to rethink the impact that evolution theory and the confirmations about evolution as a historical and natural fact has had and continues to have today The book is divided into three parts Part I Life Meaning and Information Part II Semiosis and Evolution Part III Physics medicine and bioenergetics It starts by laying out a general historical philosophical and scientific framework for the collection of studies that will follow In the following some of the main reference models of evolutionary theories are revisited Extended Synthesis Formal Darwinism and Biosemiotics The authors shed new light on how to rethink the processes underlying the origins and evolution of knowledge the boundary between teleonomic and teleological paradigms of evolution and their possible integration the relationship between linguistics and biological sciences especially with reference to the concept of causality biological information and the mechanisms of its transmission the difference between physical and biosemiotical intentionality as well as an examination of the results offered or deriving from the application in the economics and the engineering of design of biosemiotical models for the transmission of culture digitalization and proto design This volume is of fundamental scientific and philosophical interest and seen as a possibility for a dialogue based on theoretical and methodological pluralism The international nature of the publication with contributions from all over the world will allow a further development of academic relations at the service of the international scientific and humanistic heritage

Discourse and the Construction of Society Bruce Lincoln, 2014 In this new edition of his seminal theoretical work on myth ritual and classification Bruce Lincoln explores the ways in which these narratives and practices hold human societies together and how in times of crisis they can be used to take a society apart and reconstruct it The second edition includes three new chapters new images and an updated bibliography

The Social Dynamics Of Peace And Conflict Robert A Rubinstein, Mary Lecron Foster, 2019-07-11 This volume shows the importance for international security studies for better understanding the social dynamics of peace and conflict It illustrates the crucial role that culture and symbols play in facilitating peace or fostering conflict and intended for anthropologists widely

Cultural Anthropology Alexander Moore, 1998 TofC cont Anthropology of modern life Market and the modern metropolis a new system of exchange and the rise of commercial industrial cities Corporate bureaucracy and the culture of modern work Modernity and culture Epilogue applied anthropology and the policy process The framework on which this book hangs is an updated version of the community study method as network discerned at the expanding gas phase of our species random walk over the earth through our settling down into trading and warring tribal societies through the mesolithic and neolithic transitions into our densification into urban states and civilizations and finally at our emergence as a metropolitan species of unparalleled population aggregations

Pref South Coast New Guinea Cultures Bruce M. Knaft, 1993-03-25 The communities of south coast New Guinea were the subject of classic ethnographies and fresh studies in recent decades have put these rich and complex cultures at the centre of anthropological debates Flamboyant sexual practices such as ritual homosexuality have attracted particular interest In the first general book on the region Dr Knaft reaches striking new comparative conclusions through a careful ethnographic analysis of sexuality the status of women ritual and cosmology political economy and violence among the region's seven major language culture areas The findings suggest new Melanesian regional contrasts and provide for a general critique of the way regional comparisons are constructed in anthropology Theories of practice and political economy as well as post modern insights are drawn upon to provide a generative theory of indigenous social and symbolic development

Genealogies for the Present in Cultural Anthropology Bruce M. Knaft, 2013-09-13 In the wake of tensions between modern and postmodern sensibilities what larger directions now emerge in cultural anthropology In this major work Bruce Knaft takes stock of important recent initiatives in cultural and critical theory By combining critical reviews and ethnographic engagements with fresh readings of major figures and approaches the work develops a larger vantage point for considering the dispersing influence of practice theories postmodernism cultural studies postcolonial studies modern post positive feminism and multicultural criticisms

Supernatural Selection Matt Rossano, 2010-05-28 In 2006 scientist Richard Dawkins published a blockbuster bestseller The God Delusion This atheist manifesto sparked a furious reaction from believers who have responded with numerous books of their own By pitting science against religion however this debate overlooks what science can tell us about religion According to evolutionary psychologist Matt J Rossano what science reveals is that religion made us human In Supernatural Selection Rossano presents an evolutionary history of religion Neither an apologist for religion nor a religion basher he draws together evidence from a wide range of disciplines to show the valuable even essential adaptive purpose served by systematic belief in the supernatural The roots of religion stretch as far back as half a million years when our ancestors developed the motor control to engage in social rituals that is to sing and dance together Then about 70 000 years ago a global ecological crisis drove humanity to the edge of extinction It forced the survivors to create new strategies for survival and religious rituals were foremost among them Fundamentally Rossano writes religion is a way for humans to relate to each other and the world around them and in the grim struggles of prehistory it offered significant survival and reproductive advantages It emerged as our ancestors first health care system and a critical part of that health care system was social support Religious groups tended to be far more cohesive which gave them a competitive advantage over non religious groups and enabled them to conquer the globe Rather than focusing on one aspect of religion as many theorists do Rossano offers an all encompassing approach that is rich with surprises insights and provocative conclusions

Rise And Demise Christopher Chase-Dunn, 2018-02-06 The authors combine an excellent state of the art review of the literature in world systems analysis with a vigorous presentation of their own quite coherent views This book is a major contribution to our collective dialogue on the past and the future Immanuel Wallerstein Binghamton University author of The Modern World System An up to date and synthetic overview of current world systems research The authors draw on diverse literatures from political science to archaeology from contemporary policy issues to Native American studies and from history to sociology This thoughtful volume serves as both a provocative summary of ongoing scholarship and a fertile foundation for future cross disciplinary dialogue Gary M Feinman University of Wisconsin Madison To understand the evolution of the world s political economy we need empirical theories that can handle ancient and modern processes a longer time frame encompassing multiple millennia and less concern about trespassing in other people s disciplines Chase Dunn and Hall s new book Rise and Demise delivers all three with noteworthy style and effect William Thompson Indiana University Rise and Demise is a wide ranging and stimulating synthesis of the world systems approach and its main findings Its broad coverage of parallel social processes in various regions and time periods convincingly makes the argument that world systems theory is able to integrate many diverse historical and social science specializations Richard E Blanton Purdue University

The Anthropology of Art Robert Layton, 1991-08-30 An authoritative introduction to art forms in the non Western world addresses the problem of cross cultural aesthetic appreciation in societies ranging from traditional West African craftsmen to Australian hunter gatherers

Networks of Dissolution Anna Simons, 2019-03-13 In this penetrating and timely book Anna Simons documents Somalia s impending slide toward anarchy How do people react to a failing yet still repressive government What do they do when the banks run out of cash How do they cope with unprecedented uncertainty These are some of the questions Simons addresses as she introduces the reader to Somal
