Nuggets Of The African Novel:

Nuggets of the African Novel K-Moses Nagbe, 2005-09-08 In Nuggets of the African Novel With Notes on the Liberian Literary Heritage Nagbe charts a critical course which seeks to consolidate a unit approach to African literature reinforcing one continental mind and soul He has summarized nearly thirty African novels in Nuggets The summaries are rich The comments are insightful They contain very many topics that will possibly evoke or sustain interest in the novels themselves and interest in seeing literature as an irresistible shadow of history Even so on the pages the reader will understand that because all literature tells the human story all literature speaks a universal language The notes on the Liberian component of African literature are revealing Only a few of Nagbe's compatriots can boast of the insight which he brings to the subject of the ironies and forces that have impacted the progress of imaginative writing in Liberia a modern nation state established by repatriated African Americans Even so the three phases of national struggle which Nagbe constantly refers to in the Notes as intra national struggle is poignant Here lies an important testimony of the biting pain which the politics of long suffering can inflict on a nation It is an implicit testimony of the attributes of the mental ailment which with insidious and protracted attack decimates a person or a group of people In a larger sense the Liberian story is the story of Africa and her scars from cultural misinformation and confusion and what needs to be done in the new millennium

The Scum of the Earth K-Moses Nagbe, 2018-03 The Scum of the Earth provides some context to results of Liberia's Election 2017 Here Dr K Moses Nagbe sheds light on how empathy and genuine mutual respect can transform lives of ordinary people and provide professionals and technocrats the type of deference they need to help drive growth and development in society

Studies in the African Novel Samuel O. Asein, Albert Olu Ashaolu, 1986 African Literature in French Dorothy S. Blair, 1976-11-18 This 1976 book provides both a historical survey and a critical analysis of the literature in French from West and Equatorial Africa Professor Blair begins by discussing the social educational and political influences which led to the formation of the Negritude movement and to a flowering of French African creative writing This historical approach is then complemented by a study of the different literary genres She traces the evolution of the first manifestations of literary activity in French by African writers the written folk tale fable and short story from the oral tradition of the indigenous culture and the eventual appearance of the novel with a legendary or historical theme The origins of French African drama are considered for the first time and the work of the minor poets analysed Finally Professor Blair attempts a definition of the French African novel and studies examples from three major periods from the 1930s onwards

Tradition and Change in Contemporary West and East African Fiction Ogaga Okuyade, 2014-08-15 The essays in this volume capture the exciting energy of the emergent novel in East and West Africa drawing on different theoretical insights to offer fresh and engaging perspectives on what has been variously termed the new wave emergent generation and third generation Subjects addressed include the politics of identity especially when re constructed outside the homeland or when African indigenous values are eroded by globalization transnationalism and the exilic condition or the self undergoes fragmentation Other essays examine once taboo concerns including gendered accounts of same sex sexualities Most of the essays deal with shifting perceptions by African women of their social condition in patriarchy in relation to such issues as polygamy adultery male domination and the woman's quest for fulfilment and respect through access to quality education and full economic and socio political participation Themes taken up by other novels examined include the sexual exploitation of women and criminality generally and the exposure of children to violence Likewise examined is the contemporary textualizing of orality the trickster figure Writers discussed include Chimamanda Ngozi Adichie Okey Ndibe Helon Habila Ike Oguine Chris Abani Tanure Ojaide Maik Nwosu Unoma Azuah Jude Dibia Lola Shoneyin Mary Karoro Okurut Violet Barungi Adaobi Tricia Nwaubani Abidemi Sanusi Akachi Ezeigbo Sefi Atta Kaine Agary Kojo Laing Ahmadou Kourouma Uwen Akpan and Alobwed Epie Ogaga Okuyade teaches popular folk culture African literature and culture African American and African diasporic studies and the English novel in the Department of English and Literary Studies Niger Delta University Wilberforce Island Nigeria He has guest edited special issues of ARIEL and Imbizo and is the editor of Eco Critical Literature Regreening African Landscapes 2013

Encyclopedia of the American Novel Abby H. P. Werlock, 2015-04-22 Praise for the print edition no other reference work on American fiction brings together such an array of authors and texts as this Critical Engagements on African Literature Abba A. Abba, Benedictus C. Nwachukwu, 2019-09-24 Beyond the critical examination of Isidore Diala's award winning poetry and drama the essays in this collection offer fresh insights on the complex methodological and theoretical patterns underlying the readings of African literary landscapes This is the first book to devote considerable attention to the study of Diala's creative works The Pyre drama and The Lure of Ash poetry The majority of the contributors here are selected from among the finest of Diala's former teachers colleagues and students who know him very closely The collection addresses fertile areas of African literary expression such as the relationship between literature and national history African ritual aesthetics affirmation denial and ambivalence as products of social constructions and exile migration and home coming Contributions also explore poetry and poetic truths semiotics anticolonial revolutions and postcolonial implosions oil politics discontent and militancy and feminism and gender politics The book stands out among its peers and offers great insights to scholars researchers and teachers working in the fields of African literature cultures and aesthetics The Culture Game Olu Oguibe, 2004 Thirteen previously published essays notes and interviews by Olu Oguibe with revisions with an additional list of where the contributions were originally published and a cumulative index for this anthology as a whole Chinua Achebe and the Igbo-African World Chima J. Korieh, Ijeoma C. Nwajiaku, 2022-04-12 Chinua Achebe and the Igbo African World Between Fiction Fact and Historical Representation explores Chinua Achebe's literary works and how they communicated the Igbo African world to readers Engaging in the politics of representation Achebe sought to demystify deterministic views of race and cultural ethnocentrism While his books and commentaries have been very influential in shaping a unique and multifaceted view of the African world some scholars have challenged Achebe's representations of historical reality Through in depth analyses of his writing contributors examine the interpretations Achebe imposed on African culture and history in his texts The chapters cover Achebe's engagement with critical issues like historical representation gender relations and indigenous political institutions in a changing society Throughout contributors present new ways for understanding Achebe's literary works and show how his work draws from African historical reality and identity while challenging Western epistemological hegemony Facts, Fiction, and African Creative Imaginations Toyin Falola, Fallou Ngom, 2009-09-11 This volume brings together insights from distinguished scholars from around the world to address the facts fiction and creative imaginations in the pervasive portrayals of Africa its people societies and cultures in the literature and the media The fictionalization of Africa and African issues in the media and the popular literature that blends facts and fiction has rendered perceptions of Africa its cultures societies customs and conflicts often superficial and deficient in the popular Western consciousness The book brings eminent scholars from a variety of disciplines to sort out the persistent fictionalization of Africa from facts pertaining to the genesis of powerful cultural political or religious icons the historical and cultural significance of intriguing customs such as tribal marks gender relations causes of conflicts and African responses and creative imaginations in contemporary African films fiction and literature among others The Routledge Companion to International Children's Literature John Stephens, 2017-09-11 Demonstrating the aesthetic cultural political and intellectual diversity of children's literature across the globe The Routledge Companion to International Children's Literature is the first volume of its kind to focus on the undervisited regions of the world With particular focus on Asia Africa and Latin America the collection raises awareness of children's literature and related media as they exist in large regions of the world to which mainstream European and North American scholarship pays very little attention Sections cover Concepts and theories Historical contexts and national identity Cultural forms and children's texts Traditional story and adaptation Picture books across the majority world Trends in children's and young adult literatures Exposition of the literary cultural and historical contexts in which children's literature is produced together with an exploration of intersections between these literatures and more extensively researched areas will enhance access and understanding for a large range of international readers The essays offer an ideal introduction for those newly approaching literature for children in specific areas looking for new insights and interdisciplinary perspectives or interested in directions for future scholarship Emerging Traditions Vicki Briault Manus, 2012-07-10 The monograph explores the linguistic impact of the colonial and postcolonial situations in South Africa on language policy on literary production and especially on the stylistics of fiction by indigenous South Africans writing in English A secondary concern is to investigate the present place of English in the multilingual spectrum of South African languages and to see how this worldly English relates to Global English in the South African context The introduction presents a socio linguistic overview of South Africa from pre historic times until the present including language planning policies during and after the colonial era and a cursory review of how the difficulties encountered in implementing the Language Plan provided for by the new South African constitution impinge on the development of black South African English Six chapters track the course of English in South Africa since the arrival of the British in 1795 considered from the point of view of the indigenous African population The study focuses on ways in which indigenous authors indigenize their writing innovating and subverting stylistic conventions including those of African orature in order to bend language and genre towards their own culture and objectives Each chapter corresponds to a briefly outlined historical period that is largely reflected in linguistic and literary developments A small number of significant works for each period are discussed one of which is selected for a case study at the end of each chapter where it is subjected to detailed stylistic analysis and appraised for the degree of indigenization or other linguistic or socio historic influences on style The methodology adopted is a linguistic approach to stylistics focusing on indigenization of English inspired by the work of Chantal Zabus in her book The African Palimpsest Indigenization of Language in the West African Europhone Novel 2007 1991 The conclusion reappraises the original hypothesis that the specific characteristi

Expressions of Indigenous and Local Knowledge in Africa and its Diaspora Akinloye Ojo, Mobolanle Sotunsa, Karim Traore, 2016-06-22 Expressions of Indigenous and Local Knowledge in Africa and its Diaspora provides critical discourses on Africa and the various configurations of its reflections in folklore literature music languages and philosophy The collection through its selected works focuses on the African continent in terms of preserving the unique identity of African Indigenous and Local Knowledge In reality this preservation effort is confronted by a number of challenges within today s increasingly globalized and westernized world This book documents ongoing scholarly discussion on the paradoxical dynamics of preserving this identity and consequently enhancing the relevance of African Indigenous and Local Knowledge This volume articulates the representation of knowledge and values lodged in the diverse knowledge systems in Africa and its diaspora and which are constantly expressed in local and global spaces It highlights the prejudicial assessment of African Indigenous knowledge systems that has ensured that Western epistemological systems are internationally recognized and supported while African epistemological systems are denigrated discouraged or simply ignored even on the African continent Given that the term expressions entails making something known or manifest this edited collection is assembled to make known some of the elements of indigenous and local knowledge as well as the practices that these elements necessitate both historically and contemporarily in the African situation

Palavers of African Literature Toyin Falola, Barbara Harlow, 2002 Celebrating Chinua Achebe Chukwuemeka Bosah, 2013-11-16 In essays verse and questions twenty two contributors representing a plethora of endeavors discuss Chinua Achebe s life and works and legacy These contributors who were Achebe s friends peers colleagues scholars proteges and yet others who were influenced by him and come from different generations discuss the man and his influence in this uniquely remarkable book Wole Soyinka and Ngugi wa Thiong'o lead an ensemble cast of outstanding individuals that include two up and coming young writers Ugo F. Edu and Chiderah A. Monde in celebrating Chinua Achebe. The picture that emerges from reading this book is a beautiful mosaic of a mild mannered but powerful man who made a difference to the lives of many people.

Reading Africa into American Literature Keith Cartwright, 2014-10-17 The literature often considered the most American is rooted not only in European and Western culture but also in African and American Creole cultures. Keith Cartwright places the literary texts of such noted authors as George Washington Cable, W. E. B. DuBois, Alex Haley, Zora Neale Hurston, Ralph Ellison, William Faulkner, Joel Chandler Harris, Herman Melville, Toni Morrison and many others in the context of the history, spiritual traditions, folklore, music, linguistics and politics out of which they were written. Cartwright grounds his study of American writings in texts from the Senegambian, Old Mali region of Africa. Reading epics, fables and gothic tales from the crossroads of this region and the American South, he reveals that America's foundational African presence along with a complex set of reactions to it is an integral but unacknowledged source of the national culture identity and literature.

Intertextualizing Collective American Memory Grażyna Maria Teresa Branny, 2024-07-15 This study of collective American memory exposes the historical phenomenon of self-directed American imperialism still frequently ignored or denied in the United States. Over the course of the 250 years of its history, this has taken the form of African American slavery, thwarted black motherhood, same race slavery both white and African American as well as the extermination of indigenous American peoples. On the literary level, the study helps to broaden or even modify the present perspective on the oeuvres of four major American writers, i.e. William Faulkner, Toni Morrison, Louise Erdrich and Cormac McCarthy by pointing to the intertwining of their themes, motifs and techniques of writing to form an intricate pattern of the intertextualized collective memory of the American nation.
