Item Interpretation of the Luria-Nebraska Neuropsychological Battery, 1982-01-01 The Luria Nebraska Neuropsychological Battery is a relatively new neurodiagnostic test and there is a growing demand for material on the more advanced aspects of its interpretation This book organized around the theoretical meaning of items the empirical correlations between items and the factor structure of the individual scales is a first response to that demand It will serve to give greater understanding of the psychological skills that underlie each item on the Luria Nebraska battery an understanding prerequisite to the techniques of syndrome analysis described in the writings of A R Luria and it will be particularly useful to those who have limited experience with actual case material The major part of the book is an analysis of each Luria Nebraska scale either item by item or as a unit For each scale the authors examine the theoretical intent of the items and the underlying skills according to Luria's theory They then present the results of item interrelations analysis to determine whether the items tap common skills Finally they describe the factor structure of the various scales exploring the interrelations of items within each scale In addition to analyzing the behavioral scales of the Luria Nebraska battery the book reviews a number of other empirical scales that further aid interpretation particularly the experimental localization scales that tap focal deficits in specific areas of the brain Also included are case histories that illustrate the process of diagnosis in patients who receive a series of Luria Nebraska batteries over the course of their treatment Finally the authors briefly discuss subcortical disorders an issue often ignored in clinical neuropsychological testing

Balaam in Text and Tradition Jonathan Miles Robker, 2019-08-19 The figure Balaam has interested exegetes and scribes for millennia Jonathan Miles Robker examines the different versions of the literary character Balaam as attested in biblical and epigraphic literature By contrasting the distinct information about Balaam presented in the various sources the plaster inscription from Dêla Numbers 22 24 31 Deuteronomy 23 Joshua 13 24 Judges

11 Micah 6 and Nehemiah 13 the author seeks to trace the development of characterizations of Balaam from the oldest available material to the youngest in the Hebrew Bible In this way Jonathan Miles Robker advances discourse about the literary and tradition historical development of the texts that became the Hebrew Bible Beyond the text of the Hebrew Bible he also traces the continued development of Balaam s characterization through the texts of Qumran and the New Testament To this end the author contributes discussions of the history of religion in Antiquity      The Book of Leviticus Rolf Rendtorff, Robert A. Campbell, 2025-03-31 Appealing to God or Man Contrasting Barrenness and Family Death Narratives in the Hebrew Bible and Ancient Near East argues for a reevaluation of barrenness type scenes in the Hebrew Bible and ancient Near East More specifically the argument is for a distinction women in family death narratives appeal to men while women in barrenness narratives appeal to God Even the male centric epics of the ancient Near East show that women interact with the divine more during barrenness crises e g the wife s prophetic dream in the Etana myth than during family death crises e g male divine narratives in Kirta and Aqhat This distinction not only clarifies the narrative tropes but emphasizes the role of women in these crises and intersects with discussions of household roles in the ancient Near East Male and female roles in marriage and fertility drive the responses of characters in these idealized narrative worlds especially in family death and barrenness narratives      What Does God Want of Us Anyway? Mark Dever, 2010-03-09 Originally delivered as sermons by pastor Mark Dever at Capitol Hill Baptist Church in Washington DC these three studies are now available in one hardcover volume Dever guides readers to take a step back and look at the Bible from a broader perspective As we notice new features of an object when viewed from a distance so too the major themes of Scripture become more apparent when we take in the Bible as a whole Part of the IXMarks series this book considers the central messages of the Bible as seen in the promises of God Dever examines the general narrative of God s Word to answer the question What does God want of us anyway Readers looking for a panoramic view of Scripture will be reminded of the faithful persistent love of God and find themselves drawn into a broader but deeper understanding of the primarily the Dead Sea Scrolls and the Septuagint Each case is examined independently through a linguistic analysis of the variants their process of development and an evaluation of which version is preferable when possible It then presents a statistical analysis of the data Moreover the volume offers a paleographic analysis of the interchanging letters in the three relevant scripts Hebrew Jewish and Samaritan script Through this process it determines the script in which the variants have occurred and estimates the chronological framework of the variants This study has implications for the textual history of the Samaritan Pentateuch and more broadly for the distribution of the Pentateuch and the extent of its transmission in the late Second Temple period

God and Gods in the Deuteronomistic History Corrine Carvalho, John McLaughlin, 2024-10-31 Like other constructs in biblical studies the Deuteronomistic History has come under scrutiny in the 21st century The books beginning with Joshua and concluding with 2 Kings were thought to be at their core a unified explication of Israel's demise in Deuteronomistic terms of sin and its consequences Current scholarship views these books as more disparate and influenced by a number of different texts not limited to Deuteronomy God and Gods in Deuteronomistic History exemplifies the latest research on these Hebrew Scriptures Each study focuses on the question of how God is disclosed in Israel's history Contributors look at the topic in a single book to bring forth the richness and variety of the Deity's descriptions The results show an array of understandings about the divine figure Yhwh whose titles also include El El the Living and Yhwh God in heaven to name but a few A strength of this volume is the meticulous analysis of Mesopotamian and West Semitic sources expressed both textually and in material culture The biblical writers adopted and adapted these ancient Near Eastern sources to create various pictures of God in the Deuteronomistic History at times mirroring the deities of the so called idolatrous religions This book brings forth portrayals of Israel's God as well as other regional deities in their contingency and complexity across the Deuteronomistic History

The Liturgy of Creation Michael LeFebvre, 2019-08-06 How were holidays chosen and taught in biblical Israel and what did they have to do with the creation narrative Michael LeFebvre considers the calendars of the Pentateuch arguing that dates were added to Old Testament narratives not as journalistic details but to teach sacred rhythms of labor and worship LeFebvre then applies this insight to the creation week finding that the days of creation also serve a liturgical purpose
