Nuremberg Jeffrey Chipps Smith, 1983 Unbuilt Utopian Cities 1460 to 1900: Reconstructing their Architecture and Political Philosophy Tessa Morrison, 2016-03-09 Bringing together ten utopian works that mark important points in the history and an evolution in social and political philosophies this book not only reflects on the texts and their political philosophy and implications but also their architecture and how that architecture informs the political philosophy or social agenda that the author intended Each of the ten authors expressed their theory through concepts of community and utopian architecture but each featured an architectural solution at the centre of their social and political philosophy as none of the cities were ever built they have remained as utopian literature Some of the works examined are very well known such as Tommaso Campanella's Civitas Solis while others such as Joseph Michael Gandy's Designs for Cottages are relatively obscure However even with the best known works this volume offers new insights by focusing on the architecture of the cities and how that architecture represents the author's political philosophy It reconstructs the cities through a 3 D computer program ArchiCAD using Artlantis to render Plans sections elevations and perspectives are presented for each of the cities The ten cities are Filarete Sforzina Albrecht Dürer Fortified Utopia Tommaso Campanella The City of the Sun Johann Valentin Andreae Christianopolis Joseph Michael Gandy An Agricultural Village Robert Owen Villages of Unity and Cooperation James Silk Buckingham Victoria Robert Pemberton Queen Victoria Town King Camp Gillette Metropolis and Bradford Peck The World a Department Store Each chapter considers the work in conjunction with contemporary thought the political philosophy and the reconstruction of the city Although these ten cities represent over 500 years of utopian and political thought they are an interlinked thread that had been drawn from literature of the past and informed by contemporary thought and society The book is structured in two parts Hans Folz and Print Culture in Late Medieval Germany Caroline Huey, 2016-04-22 In this study author Caroline Huey analyzes the copious literary output of medieval poet and barber surgeon Hans Folz in all its variety whether Meisterlied Reimpaarspruch or carnival play Heretofore published research to do with Folz's multifaceted and compelling oeuvre has been fragmentary because scholars have restricted themselves by genre in examining themes in Folz's work By integrating the different themes across Folz's output and by integrating consideration previously neglected by earlier critics of Folz's role as barber surgeon Huey offers new insights as to the interaction of these themes and to the character of the poet's work overall She shows that ultimately Folz is concerned with the circulation of knowledge and power correct and incorrect behavior and above all with finding order In each chapter Huey examines a particular theme from Folz's life and or work She looks at how adeptly he commandeers the new technology of printing to further his own ends how his ubiquitous physicality connects his medical body to his Christian body his attitude toward women and the anti Jewish thread in his work Emblems in the Free Imperial City Mara R. Wade, Christopher D. Fletcher, Andrew C. Schwenk, 2024-03-04 Civic virtues were central to early modern N rnberg's visual culture These essays in this volume explore N rnberg as a location from which to study the intersection of art and power The imperial city was awash in emblems and they informed most aspects of everyday life The intent of this collection is to focus new attention on the town hall emblems while simultaneously expanding the purview of emblem studies moving from strict iconological approaches to collaborations across methodologies and disciplines Painted Prints Susan Dackerman, 2002 Betr u a Hans Holbeins Totentanz in den Simulachres histori es faces de la mort Lyon 1538 S 176 179 The Eucharist in the Reformation Lee Palmer Wandel, 2006 The Eucharist in the Reformation Incarnation and Liturgy takes up the words this is my body this do and remembrance of me that divided Christendom in the sixteenth century It traces the different understandings of these simple words and the consequences of those divergent understandings in the delineation of the Lutheran Reformed and Catholic traditions the different formulations of liturgy with their different conceptualizations of the cognitive and collective function of ritual the different conceptualizations of the relationship between Christ and the living body of the faithful the different articulations of the relationship between the world of matter and divinity and the different epistemologies It argues that the incarnation is at the center of the story of the Reformation and suggests how divergent religious identities were formed Parody and Festivity in Early Modern Art David R. Smith, 2017-07-05 Dwelling on the rich interconnections between parody and festivity in humanist thought and popular culture alike the essays in this volume delve into the nature and the meanings of festive laughter as it was conceived of in early modern art The concept of carnival supplies the main thread connecting these essays Bound as festivity often is to popular culture not all the topics fit the canons of high art and some of the art is distinctly low brow and occasionally ephemeral themes include grobianism and the grotesque scatology popular proverbs with ironic twists and a wide range of comic reversals some quite profound Many hinge on ideas of the world upside down Though the chapters most often deal with Northern Renaissance and Baroque art they spill over into other countries times and cultures while maintaining the carnivalesque air suggested by the book's title Albrecht Dürer's material world Edward H. Wouk, Jennifer Spinks, 2024-04-30 The painter and printmaker Albrecht Dürer is one of the most important figures of the German Renaissance This book accompanies the first major exhibition of the Whitworth art gallery's outstanding Dürer collection in over half a century It offers a new perspective on Dürer as an intense observer of the worlds of manufacture design and trade that fill his graphic art Artworks and artefacts examined here expose understudied aspects of Dürer's art and practice including his attentive examination of objects of daily domestic use his involvement in economies of local manufacture and exchange the microarchitectures of local craft and finally his attention to cultures of natural and philosophical inquiry and learning

Painting on Light Barbara Butts, Lee Hendrix, 2001-03-01 The names Albrecht Dürer and Hans Holbein the Younger evoke the dazzling accomplishments of Renaissance panel painting and printmaking but they may not summon images of stained glass Nevertheless Dürer Holbein and their southern German and Swiss contemporaries designed some of the most splendid works in the history of the medium This lavish volume is a comprehensive survey of the contribution to stained glass made by these extraordinarily gifted draftsmen and the equally talented glass painters who rendered their compositions in glass Included are discussions of both monumental church windows and smaller scale stained glass panels made for cloisters civic buildings residences and private chapels The subjects of these rarely seen drawings and panels range from religious topics to secular themes including love planets hunts and battles Focusing on stained glass produced in Germany and Switzerland from about 1495 to 1530 Painting on Light includes drawings by Dürer Holbein Albrecht Altdorfer Hans Baldung Grien Jörg Breu the Elder Hans Burgkmair Urs Graf Hans von Kulmbach Hans Leu the Younger Niklaus Manuel Deutsch Hans Schüfelein Hans Weiditz and others This informative book is published in conjunction with an exhibition at the Getty Museum from July 11 through September 24 2000 and from November 7 2000 to January 4 2001 at the Saint Louis Art Museum

The Material Imagination Matthew Mindrup, 2016-03-03 In recent years architectural discourse has witnessed a renewed interest in materiality under the guise of such familiar tropes as material honesty form finding or digital materiality Motivated in part by the development of new materials and an increasing integration of designers in fabricating architecture a proliferation of recent publications from both practice and academia explore the pragmatics of materiality and its role as a protagonist of architectural form Yet as the ethos of material pragmatism gains more popularity theorizations about the poetic imagination of architecture continue to recede Compared to an emphasis on the design of visual form in architectural practice the material imagination is employed when the architect thinks matter dreams in it lives in it or in other words materializes the imaginary As an alternative to a formal approach in architectural design this book challenges readers to rethink the reverie of materials in architecture through an examination of historical precedent architectural practice literary sources philosophical analyses and everyday experience Focusing on matter as the premise of an architect's imagination each chapter identifies and graphically illustrates how material imagination defines the conceptual premises for making architecture

Public Performances Jack Santino, 2017-12-15 Public Performances offers a deep and wide ranging exploration of relationships among genres of public performance and of the underlying political motivations they share Illustrating the connections among three themes the political the carnivalesque and the ritualesque this volume provides rich and comprehensive insight into public performance as an assertion of political power Contributors consider how public genres of performance express not only celebration but also dissent grief and remembrance examine the permeability of the boundaries between genres and analyze the approval or regulation of such events by municipalities and other institutions Where the particular use of public space is not sanctioned or where that use meets with hostility from institutions or represents a critique of them performers are effectively reclaiming public space to make public statements on their own terms an act of popular sovereignty Through these concepts Public Performances distinguishes the sometimes overlapping dimensions of public symbolic display Carnival and thus the carnivalesque is understood to possess tacit social permission for unconventional or even deviant performance on the grounds that normal social order will resume when the performance concludes Ritual and the ritualesque leverages a deeper symbolic sensibility one believed or at least intended by the participants to effect transformative longer term change Contributors Roger D Abrahams John Borgonovo Laurent S bastien Fournier Lisa Gilman Barbara Graham David Harnish Samuel Kinser Scott Magelssen Elena Martinez Pamela Moro Beverly J Stoeltje Daniel Wojcik Dorothy L Zinn and theological currents in Europe during the first half of the sixteenth century With an astute knowledge of the theology of the period and a keen interest in the lives and work of prominent artists Dillenberger makes incisive connections that illuminate the cultural movements of the time Images and Relics considers both popular and professional art within distinct religious contexts It examines the works of Matthias Grunewald Albrecht Durer Lucas Cranach the Elder Michelangelo Hans Holbein the Younger Hans Baldung Grien and Albrecht Altdorfer and demonstrates how these artists expressed and transformed the reigning theological ideas of their day The book also addresses the range of iconoclastic movements from the 1520s to the 1570s particularly in northern Europe Finally Dillenberger reflects on the ambiguity of the history of this period and its continuing impact on modern day life

The Bayeux Tapestry and Its Contexts Elizabeth Carson Pastan, Stephen D. White, Kate Gilbert, 2014 A full and provocative reappraisal of the Bayeux Tapestry its origins design and patronage Aspects of the Bayeux Tapestry in fact an embroidered hanging have always remained mysterious despite much scholarly investigation not least its design and patron Here in the first full length interdisciplinary approach to the subject the authors an art historian and a historian consider these and other issues Rejecting the prevalent view that it was commissioned by Odo the bishop of Bayeux and half brother of William the Conqueror or by some other comparable patron they bring new evidence to bear on the question of its relationship to the abbey of St Augustine s Canterbury From the study of art historical archeological literary historical and documentary materials they conclude that the monks of St Augustine s designed the hanging for display in their abbey church to tell their own story of how England was invaded and conquered in 1066 Elizabeth Carson Pastan is a Professor of Art History at Emory University Stephen D White is Asa G Candler Professor of Medieval History emeritus Emory University and an Honorary Professor of Mediaeval History at the University of St Andrews

Perfection's Therapy Mitchell B. Merback, 2018-01-02 Albrecht Dürer's master engraving Melencolia I has stood for centuries as a pictorial summa of knowledge about melancholia and an allegory of the limits of earthbound arts and sciences Zealously interpreted since the nineteenth century the work also presides over the origins of modern iconology Yet more than a century of research has left us with a tangle of mutually contradictory theories In Perfection's Therapy Mitchell Merback discovers in Melencolia I's opacity a fascinating possibility that Dürer's masterpiece is not only an arresting diagnosis of melancholic distress but an innovative instrument for its undoing Merback deftly analyses the visual and narrative structure of Dürer's image revisits its philosophical and medical contexts and resituates it within the long history of the therapeutic artifact Placing Dürer's project in dialogue with that of humanism's founder Francesco Petrarca Merback also unearths the German artist's ambition to act as a physician of the soul Celebrated by contemporaries as the Apelles of our age and ever since as Germany's first Renaissance painter theorist the Dürer we encounter here is also the first modern Christian artist addressing himself to the distress of souls including his own Melencolia I thus emerges as a key reference point in a project of spiritual ethical therapy a work designed to exercise the mind rebalance the passions remedy the soul and help in getting on with the project of perfection
