Population Health for Nurses prepares nurses to develop interventions, policies, and practices that promote health equity and improved health outcomes across the health care delivery continuum. The text emphasizes the social determinants of health and how nurses can plan and implement health promotion and disease prevention interventions. It takes a holistic perspective, connecting human health behavior to the dynamic, ongoing interactions of the person, social factors, and the physical environment in which people are born, live, learn, play, work, and age. Population Health for Nurses uses a logical thematic organization that breaks down content into manageable chunks. It presents the material in 35 chapters organized into 7 thematic units. The text defines and distinguishes among the interrelated nursing areas of population health, public health, and community health nursing, providing both historical context and up-to-date research to help students make connections.

across content that can inform practice. The result is a holistic approach that applies theoretical concepts to the practical assessment diagnosis planning implementation and evaluation steps of client care and community tailored interventions. This book is an essential resource for health visiting students that reflects the key changes required of health visiting practice at the beginning of the new millennium. It is a key text for specialist practitioner programmes and also for existing practitioners who are furthering their practice and academic development. It brings together the elements of theory and practice which are essential to health visiting practice. The book is research based and uses relevant evidence to support discussions. A particular strength is the use of case studies and practice examples to illustrate the theoretical discussions. Comprehensive coverage of all areas of health visiting practice will give the new practitioner confidence. Case studies help to relate the theory to practice. The up to date evidence base includes the latest research. The wide range of contributors ensures that the content is written by experts in their field. Coverage of aggression and violence, the needs of ethnic minorities and complementary therapies reflects the growing role of the HV in relation to contemporary issues. Fully updated throughout to reflect changes in practice including re organisation of the health care service, changes in social policy, child protection and nurse prescribing. New chapters on Working with individuals and families, Working with social groups and communities, Working with socially excluded groups, Quality improvement through leading and managing change and Nurse prescribing. Content reorganised to reflect changes in emphasis of various issues in practice. Addition of useful websites for further information. The Artinian Intersystem Model Barbara Artinian, Katharine West, Margaret Conger, 2011-04-01. This second edition graduate textbook and reference guide for nurses presents a practice focused intervention from the notable Artinian Intersystem Model. While the first edition focused largely on theory, this second edition seeks to integrate both theory and practice to ultimately help enhance the nurse patient relationship as well as nursing practice at large. The authors offer practical care plans at various levels of expertise across the continuum of care from acute care to long term care to resolve concerns through joint decision making and to document interventions. The text establishes exclusive care plans and scales for the Artinian Intersystem Model to document changes in health status. The book also employs evidence based Glaserian Grounded Theory research methods and serves as a companion to Springer Publishing's Glaserian Grounded Theory in Nursing Research. Key features: Uses evidence based Grounded Theories to guide clinical nursing practice. Establishes a care plan that accounts for the interaction of the biological psychosocial and spiritual subsystems. Discusses the application of the Artinian Intersystem Model in various practice settings including community health cosmetic procedures case management and assisted living Book includes a link to a digital adjunct containing forms for applying the model at the graduate and undergraduate levels as well as conceptual maps of research used for sample care plans
