Nutrition In Europe:

Europe and Central Asia - Regional Overview of Food Security and Nutrition 2022 Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations, International Fund for Agricultural Development, United Nations Children's Fund, United Nations, United Nations Development Programme, World Food Programme, World Health Organization, World Meteorological Organization, 2023-03-14 This report presents the latest updates related to food security and nutrition in Europe and Central Asia including estimates on the cost and affordability of healthy diets It also explores how governments are supporting the food and agriculture sector and how to repurpose policies and incentives to make healthy diets more affordable and agrifood systems more environmentally sustainable The new estimates confirm that the prevalence of hunger at chronic or severe levels is relatively low in the ECA region through the prevalence of food insecurity at moderate or severe levels can be quite high The region is seeing alarmingly high and rising rates of overweight and obesity The COVID 19 pandemic has added 25.5 million people in the region to the ranks of the moderately or severely food insecure leaving them without access to safe nutritious and adequate food The war in Ukraine has made the situation worse Almost all ECA subregions are experiencing increased costs and reduced affordability of healthy diets because of higher food prices and lower incomes This report contains an in depth analysis of the repurposing of food and agricultural policies to ensure the food systems transformation is better suited to addressing the triple challenge of achieving food security and good nutrition for better health providing livelihoods to farmers and others connected to the sector and reducing the nature and climate footprint of the sector This report also reviews complementing policies within and outside of agrifood systems to assess whether repurposing efforts are impactful in the ECA region

Prospects for Improving Nutrition in Eastern Europe and Central Asia Claudia Rokx, Rae Galloway, Lynn Brown, 2002 This report presents an overview of critical nutrition issues effecting the Eastern European and Central Asian ECA countries and suggests strategies for improvement The ECA region is diverse in economic political and social structures as are the nutrition problems in the region The report finds that in addition to poverty lack of knowledge about basic nutrition among populations is also a key determinant of malnutrition in the ECA region

European Nutrition and Health Report 2004 I. Elmadfa, Elisabeth Weichselbaum, 2005-01-01 The European Nutrition and Health Report is the first comprehensive assessment of the present status of nutrition and health in Europe and of the available resources and requirements for compatible and representative data from different countries 13 EU member states and Norway have participated in this project pursuing three main goals Compilation of available nutrient intake and health data Identification of major nutrition and health problems Identification of problems concerning the methods and compatibility of data collection The main topics include food supply and availability energy and nutrient intake in different age groups health indicators and status obesity physical activity and smoking The Appendix offers a detailed publication of national reports and single projects This book provides a solid basis for the planning of future projects in nutrition and health and should be of great interest to all professionals in the fields of nutrition preventive medicine and public health as well as to health policy makers

Nutrition in Europe Leif Hambræus, 1980 Abstract A variety of European specific and general interest topics in nutrition are covered in 14 papers and in 156 abstracts of general nutrition papers The European topics addressed include Europe's potential to assist nutrition research for developing countries collaborative research potentials in agriculture and nutrition for food and nutrition policy and planning and directions in public nutrition education by European countries The general nutrition papers are organized under 11 nutrition oriented categories including nutritional problems of the developing world nutrition policy and planning nutrition education cardiovascular disease clinical nutrition nutritional surveys and various nutrient focused topics fiber lipids minerals protein and vitamins wz The Rise of Obesity in Europe Derek J. Oddy, 2016-02-17

Twentieth century Europe went through a dramatic transition from low income populations experiencing hunger and nutritionally inadequate diets to the recent era of over consumption and growing numbers of overweight and obese people By examining the trends in food history from case studies across Europe this book offers a historical context to explain how and why this transition has occurred and what we can learn in order to try and address the vitally important issues arising from obesity in contemporary Europe Food Policy Trends in Europe H Deelstra, M. Fondu, W Ooghe, R Van Havere, 1991-01-01

This book provides a review of developments in food science and technology that have taken place over the years and have provided solutions to basic problems concerning the availability and quality of food Future trends in food policy are evaluated and the impact of food regulation on trends in nutrition techniques of safety assessment development in analytical techniques and the use of new technologies EU Food Law Handbook Bernd Van der Meulen, Bart Wernaart, 2020-09-01 The twenty first century has witnessed a fundamental reform of food law in the European Union to the point where modern EU food law has now come of age This EU Food Law Handbook presents the most significant elements of these legal developments with contributions from a highly qualified international team of academics and practitioners Their analysis is based on a shared vision of the structure and content of EU food law The book takes the perspective of food law embedded within general EU law It highlights the consequences of this combination and provides insights into both substantive and procedural food law Taking the General Food Law as a focal point this handbook systematically analyses and explains the institutional substantive and procedural elements of EU food law Principles are discussed as well as specific rules addressing food as a product the processes related to food and communication about food to consumers through labelling These rules define requirements on subjects like market authorisation for food additives novel foods and genetically modified foods chemical and biological contaminants in food food hygiene tracking tracing withdrawal recall food labelling and claims The powers of public authorities to enforce food law and to deal with incidents are outlined Attention is given to the international context WTO Codex Alimentarius as well as to private standards In addition to the systematic analysis the book includes selected topics such as nutrition and health policy special foods food import requirements food contact materials intellectual property

private food law and animal feed In this new edition existing chapters have been updated to take account of many important developments in legislation and case law Several new topics have been added to the analysis such as the right to food organics and food fraud The EU Food Law Handbook is produced in co operation with the European Institute for Food Law It is relevant for practitioners and academics both with and without a background in law It is ideal for education purposes

European Nutrition and Health Report 2009 I. Elmadfa, 2009-09-23 The main objective of the report at hand was to gather available and authorized data both published and unpublished on the nutrition and health situation in the countries of the European Union EU Whereas the first report released in 2004 included 13 EU member states and Norway the 2009 edition covers 24 EU member states and Norway For the collection of data the researchers concentrated on the following points The description of trends in food supply in the EU focusing also on the different regions the comparison of average daily individual food availability at household level the evaluation of individual food consumption and energy and nutrient intake the description of data on diet related health indicators and status and the analysis of food and nutrition policies in countries of the European Union Throughout the impact of age and gender is emphasized and special attention is being paid to the different regions of the EU The broad scope of the subjects covered and the improved quality of the data collected make the European Nutrition and Health Report 2009 an accurate documentation and sound source of information Providing a basis for the work of the institutions responsible for health and nutrition policy it is especially suitable for use in international comparisons of the nutrition and health situation

Food and Health in Europe Aileen Robertson, 2004-01-28 Poor nutrition foodborne disease and lack of secure access to good food make an important contribution to the burden of disease and mortality in the WHO European Region Better diets food safety and food security will not only reduce or prevent suffering to individuals and societies but also help cut costs to health care systems and bring social and economic benefits to countries People s chances for a healthy diet depend less on individual choices than on what food is available and whether it is affordable Policies to benefit health through good food and nutrition must extend beyond the health sector to include sectors ranging from agriculture and food processing manufacturing and trade to transport retailing catering and advertising Food and nutrition policies should be coordinated so that public health is given due priority in the making of food policies by non health sectors This publication discusses in depth the components of food and nutrition policies and the evidence of supporting them It highlights the urgent need for integrated multisectoral food and nutrition policies to encourage the sustainable production of food its safety and the provision of food of high nutritional quality for all Editor Food and Health in Europe , 2002 This booklet summarises a larger forthcoming publication containing an indepth analysis of nutritional health and the concerns regarding the supply and security of food in Europe This summary booklet aimed primarily at policy makers considers the key public health issues of concern and discusses policy options available Food and Nutrition Policy in Europe Organización Mundial de la Salud Regional Office for Europe, 1991 Population and Nutrition Massimo Livi Bacci,1990 In this essay the mechanisms of biological social and cultural nature linking subsistence mortality and population are discussed Foundations of EU Food Law and Policy Alberto Alemanno, Simone Gabbi,2016-04-15 This volume presents the viewpoints of academics food lawyers industry and consumer representatives as well as those of EU policymakers on the first ten years of activity of one of the most prominent European agencies Its broader purpose however is to discuss the future role played by EFSA within the rapidly evolving area of EU food law and policy By revisiting and discussing the milestones in the history of EFSA the collection provides forward looking views of food leaders and practitioners on the future scientific and regulatory challenges facing the European Union In particular by presenting a critical assessment of the agency s activities within its different areas of work the book offers readers a set of innovative tools for evaluating policy recommendations and better equips experts and the public to address pressing regulatory issues in this emotive area of law and policy Despite its celebratory mood the book s focus is more about the future than the past of EU food law and policy Each chapter discusses how EFSA s role has evolved and identifies what it should have done differently while presenting an overall assessment of how the agency has discharged its mandate Nutrition in Europe Leif Hambræus,1981-06-01 National Library of Medicine Current Catalog National Library of Medicine (U.S.), Status Report on the European Commission's Work in the Field of Nutrition in Europe, October 2002 European Commission.
