Gathered in my Name William T. Cavanaugh,2020-12-28 This volume differs from many quincennial discussions of the Protestant Reformation and ecumenical scholarship more generally in that it shifts the focus from Europe and the West to the global South where ecumenism s promises and challenges are quite different In postcolonial and post missionary Africa the churches continue to expand competition among denominations is lively and Christian rivalry with Islam is often a reality In Latin America Protestants have severely eroded the Catholic Church s hegemony originally forged in the zeal of the Counter Reformation to combat the perceived errors of Luther and Calvin In India the Christian churches are a tiny beleaguered minority facing an increasingly militant Hindu nationalism These essays pay close attention to the different contexts of intra Christian relationships worldwide the actual situation on the ground If ecumenism will succeed it cannot be simply a matter of experts at a conference attempting to agree about doctrines abstracted from the contexts in which they were forged the contexts in which doctrinal disagreements caused ecclesial ruptures or the contexts in which Christians continue to live out our divided existence This volume attempts to be sensitive to the lived experience of divided Christians in whatever part of the world they find themselves

The Ambiguous Figure of the Neighbor in Jewish, Christian, and Islamic Texts and Receptions Marianne Bjelland Kartzow,2021-09-12 This book examines an undertheorized topic in the study of religion and sacred texts the figure of the neighbor By analyzing and comparing this figure in Jewish Christian and Islamic texts and receptions the chapters explore a conceptual shift from Children of Abraham to Ambiguous Neighbors Through a variety of case studies using diverse methods and material chapters explore the neighbor in these neighboring texts and traditions The figure of the neighbor seems like an innocent topic at the surface It is an everyday phenomenon that everyone have knowledge about and experiences with Still analytically it has a rich and innovative potential Recent interdisciplinary research employs this figure to address issues of cultural diversity gender migration ethnic relationships war and peace environmental challenges and urbanization The neighbor represents the borderline between insider and outsider friend and enemy us and them This ambiguous status makes the neighbor particularly interesting as an entry point into issues of cultural complexity self definition and identity This volume brings all the intersections of religion ethnicity gender and socio cultural diversity into the same neighborhood paying attention to sacred texts receptions and contemporary communities The Ambiguous Figure of the Neighbor in Jewish Christian and Islamic Texts and Receptions offers a fascinating study of the intersections between Jewish Christian and Islamic text and will be of interest to anyone working on these traditions

Fearless Living is a unique reflective journey that leads the reader from looking at the world circumstances events with fear to a place of trust in God Each day presents a passage of scripture where we are told not to fear The context of when and where this directive was given by God is explored Then the lessons and truths that are evident in the day s scripture are given for thought and reflection Each day reveals the consistent immutable character of God and how he wants those that follow Him to trust and obey Him A prayer is given to help the reader to connect with God and seek to apply the lessons and truths The next step in trusting is to learn to fear God not those circumstances A verse or two of scripture is given for reflection to help refine our thinking into placing our trust and fear in God alone The last section of each day is devoted to personal reflection and thinking on how the scripture can be applied to life How do I go about living each day without fear as God intended Each day builds one upon another to give assurance and hope for life without fear based on trust in God

Teaching Biblical Faith Jack L. Seymour, 2015-05-05 Biblical faith is a lens for viewing life and Jack Seymour refreshingly illustrates how the reading of scripture is a resource for ongoing theological reflection connecting experience vocation daily life and faith Teaching has concrete consequences affecting the very ways people of faith view the world and make decisions for living It matters it makes a difference in how people think and act Written in an accessible style the book provides a manageable way to inspire conversation about the many ways the Bible can be taught the purposes and outcomes of each approach and how biblical wisdom shapes personal and corporate decision making Useful strategies for leading group Bible study help congregations respond faithfully to the Biblical witness and cultivate a whole congregation approach to Bible study Seymour provides guidance on what it means to be a teacher and how to teach Christian faith suggesting that teachers are like animators who envision and enliven the biblical stories and invite people to make connections in life Narola Ao McFayden Union Presbyterian Seminary Richmond Va Interpretation A Journal of Bible and Theology 71 4

Romans: Three Exegetical Interpretations and the History of Reception Daniel Patte, 2018-07-26 In the first of a three volume work Daniel Patte presents three very different critical exegeses of Romans 1 arguing that all are equally legitimate and hermeneutically plausible By expanding upon and respecting the exegeses of many erudite scholars of the last two centuries Patte concludes that three families of vastly different critical interpretations are fully justified traditional philological and epistolary studies rhetorical and sociocultural studies and figurative studies of the coherence of Paul s teaching Arising from a long standing interdisciplinary investigation of many receptions of Romans in light of recent diversification of exegetical methodologies Patte concludes that the interpretation of a scriptural text necessarily involves making a choice among equally legitimate and plausible alternatives and second that this choice is always contextual and ethical When these points are denied by failing to respect the interpretations of others and absolutizing one s interpretation instead of being a scriptural blessing Romans becomes a deadly weapon against others heretics Jews Shoah and many others The result is a threefold commentary of Romans 1 that is unique in its scope and thorough going exegesis

,1982 To Win Our Neighbors for Christ Wes Bredenhof,2015-02-01 In many modern histories of Christian missions the Protestant Reformation of the sixteenth century is depicted as a movement lacking missionary zeal It has virtually become a given that the Reformation was not oriented to the church s missionary task In order to win our neighbors for Christ Wes Bredenhof answers these charges proving that it is a mistake to say the Reformation and the confessional documents it produced have nothing to say about missions the author demonstrates that the three forms of Unity the Belgic Confession the Heidelberg Catechism and the Canons of Dort properly understood have much to off err the study of missions more importantly they encourage us to care about a world lost in unbelief making us more mission oriented and outward looking
