Dillon Wallace,2014-06-15 With scant scraps of food remaining the three began a desperate struggle against starvation and the rapidly approaching and unforgiving winter as they raced home for their lives In the summer of 1903 Dillon Wallace had the privilege to accompany his friend Leonidas Hubbard Jr to explore a section of the unknown interior of Labrador The expedition had a disastrous ending and Hubbard fighting bravely and heroically to the last finally succumbed to starvation Before Hubbard s death Dillon Wallace gave him his promise that should he survive he would write and publish the story of the journey In The Lure of The Labrador Wild that pledge was kept While Hubbard and Wallace were struggling inland over those desolate wastes where life was always uncertain they entered into a pact that in case one of them fell the other would carry to completion the exploratory work that Hubbard had planned and begun Providence willed that it should become the duty of Dillon Wallace to fulfill this pact You will read the amazing record of this real life story in The Long Labrador Trail

Illustrated Dillon WALLACE, 1907 The Lure of the Labrador Wild Dillon Dillon Wallace, 2018-05-09 Three years have passed since Hubbard and I began that fateful journey into Labrador of which this volume is a record A little more than a year has elapsed since the first edition of our record made its appearance from the press Meanwhile I have looked behind the ranges Grand Lake has again borne me upon the bosom of her broad deep waters into the great lonely wilderness that lured Hubbard to his death It was a day in June last year that found me again at the point where some inexplicable fate had led Hubbard and me to pass unexplored the bay that here extends northward to receive the Nascaupsee River along which lay the trail for which we were searching and induced us to take instead that other course that carried us into the dreadful Susan Valley How vividly I saw it all again Hubbard resting on his paddle and then rising up for a better view as he said Oh that's just a bay and it isn't worth while to take time to explore it The river comes in up here at the end of the lake They all said it was at the end of the lake And we said Yes it is at the end of the lake they all said so and went on for that was before we knew Hubbard never knew A perceptible current a questioning word the turn of a paddle would have set us right No current was noticed no word was spoken and the paddle sent us straight toward those blue hills yonder where Suffering and Starvation and Death were hidden and waiting for us How little we expected to meet these grim strangers then That July day came back to me as if it had been but the day before I believe I never missed Hubbard so much as at that moment I never felt his loss so keenly as then An almost irresistible impulse seized me to go on into our old trail and hurry to the camp where we had left him that stormy October day and find if he were not after all still there and waiting for me to come back to him Scottish Geographical Magazine, 1908 The Dundurn Arctic Culture and Sovereignty Library
