They don't mess around pretending to describe every experience as if it were the feature in Cond Nast Traveler. They do, however, reveal what it's really like to travel Out There. They describe everything: the good, the twisted, the ugly, and occasionally the sublime. No punches are pulled. It's all in there. These are all out of the ordinary experiences that lie within reach of ordinary people like you and I. Anyone can go and do those things. You too, but only if you want to. That's what the Travelogues are. That's what The South is. Go ahead, discover the new kind of travel writing. The Rotarian, 1943-04. The discovery paths have taken me to create my own personal journey and life purpose. Through challenge and self-discovery, I went from a sleepy little town in California to live and work in cities and towns all over the world where I met people from different intersectionalities and sociocultural identities to the founding of a program that allowed me to use my newly discovered talents. As a transformational leader, I dedicated my life to educating and managing talent with a purpose. The intrinsic motivation came from my travels and journey of self-improvement and growth from the warmth of Kingsburg, California, to the impactful cross-cultural communicator globally.
