Looking For Eulabee Dix:

Looking for Eulabee Dix Jo Ann Ridley, 1997 It was not unusual for young women of the late Victorian era to take to art with a passion and flamboyance that brought them either fame or notoriety and sometimes both One such artist was Eulabee Dix 1878 1961 a leading miniaturist of the American revival period at the turn of the century A fascinating and determined woman Eulabee painted in little but was larger than life The artist s memoirs her family s recollections and letters to her from John Butler Yeats energize and balance this biography of a woman whose blazing talent was joined to a personality that sometimes defied understanding She painted the last portrait of Mark Twain from life as well as miniatures of Ethel Barrymore the Countess of Warwick and her titled friends and Hollywood and New York luminaries of social artistic and literary prominence Eulabee s exquisite color sense and brushwork are seen today in the collection of her work at The National Museum of Women in the Arts and in miniature collections at the Smithsonian s National Portrait Gallery and National Museum of American Art The Metropolitan Museum of Art and the Worcester Art Museum A great beauty herself Eulabee was painted by other artists including her friends Robert Henri John Sloan and Charles Hawthorne and she was photographed by Gertrude Kasebier These acclaimed works and her own beautiful miniatures illustrate the life of a woman dedicated to preserving an art form that had endured since the Middle Ages

The Miniature Painter Revealed Kathleen Langone, 2025-05-06 The riveting story of how one woman rose from simple beginnings to become one of the most sought after miniaturists of the Gilded Age Richly illustrated with over 70 photos including color images of her rare surviving works No other female portrait artist had the notoriety or esteemed clientele that Amalia Kussner did Although photography was on the rise during the late 1800s miniatures had a feeling and soul to them that photos could not capture Amalia s portraits provided a grandeur that presented Gilded Age elites as American royalty Her subjects included reigning social queen Mrs Caroline Astor Mrs John Jacob Astor Consuelo Vanderbilt Mamie Fish dollar heiress Minnie Paget Edward VII of England Czar Nicholas II and Alexandra of Russia and diamond magnate Cecil Rhodes From the mid 1890s to 1910 having a Kussner miniature was just as important as owning fine jewelry or a mansion in Newport Amalia s style was also provocative for the late Victorian period Her subjects were draped in off the shoulder satin or tulle with their hair loosely pinned around their heads and tendrils framing their faces She kept the women s best features but gave them an almost mythical appearance akin to the fairy queen Titania in A Midsummer Night s Dream Amalia Kussner has been included along with other nineteenth century women artists in the first wave of feminism in large part because she commanded very high commissions comparable to male artists of the time She was fascinating and sometimes mysterious particularly regarding her sudden marriage to lawyer Charles du Pont Coudert She achieved fame and fortune but her story also revealed a few lawsuits scandals and lies

North American Women Artists of the Twentieth Century Jules Heller, Nancy G. Heller, 2013-12-19 First Published in 1997 North American Women Artists of the Twentieth Century A Biographical Dictionary was created to fill a gap of there being a comprehensive reference work like this available even though the bibliography in English on various aspects of the history of women artists has grown exponentially during the past ten years As researchers the editors have been frustrated many times by being unable to locate basic information about many of the artists included in this volume especially those working outside the United States This leads directly to another reason for producing this particular kind of reference book to try and create a better understanding between and among the artists and art audiences in these countries Mathias J.
