Headley, 2016-07-26 The Europeanization of the World puts forward a defense of Western civilization and the unique gifts it has bequeathed to the world in particular human rights and constitutional democracy at a time when many around the globe equate the West with hubris and thinly veiled imperialism John Headley argues that the Renaissance and the Reformation provided the effective currents for the development of two distinctive political ideas The first is the idea of a common humanity derived from antiquity developed through natural law and worked out in the new emerging global context to provide the basis for today's concept of universal human rights The second is the idea of political dissent first posited in the course of the Protestant Reformation and later maturing in the politics of the British monarchy Headley traces the development and implications of this first idea from antiquity to the present He examines the English revolution of 1688 and party government in Britain and America into the early nineteenth century And he challenges the now common stance in historical studies of moral posturing against the West Headley contends that these unique ideas are Western civilization's most precious export however presently distorted Certainly European culture has its dark side Auschwitz is but one example Yet as Headley shows no other civilization in history has bequeathed so sustained a tradition of universalizing aspirations as the West The Europeanization of the World makes an argument that is controversial but long overdue Written by one of our preeminent scholars of the Renaissance and Reformation this elegantly reasoned book is certain to spark a much needed reappraisal of the Western tradition Framing China Ariane Knüsel, 2016-04-15

Framing China sheds new light on Western relations with and perceptions of China in the first half of the twentieth century In this ground breaking book Ariane Knüsel examines how China was portrayed in political debates and the media in Britain the USA and Switzerland between 1900 and 1950 By focusing on the political economic cultural and social context that led to the construction of the particular images of China in each country the author demonstrates that national interests anxieties and issues influenced the way China was framed and resulted in different portrayals of China in each country The author's meticulous analysis of a vast amount of newspaper and magazine articles commentaries editorials cartoons and newsreels that have previously not been studied before also focuses on the transnational circulation of images of China While previous publications have dealt with the occurrence of the Yellow Peril and Red Menace in particular countries Framing China reveals that these images were interpreted differently in every nation because they both reflected and contributed to the discursive construction of nationhood in each country and were influenced by domestic issues cultural values pre existing stereotypes pressure groups and geopolitical aspirations Paradise Discourse, Imperialism, and Globalization Sharae Deckard, 2009-12-04

This comparative study the first of its kind discusses paradise discourse in a wide range of writing from Mexico Zanzibar and Sri Lanka including novels by authors such as Malcolm Lowry Leonard Woolf Juan Rulfo Wilson Harris Abdulrazak Gurnah and Romesh Gunsekera Tracing dialectical tropes of paradise across the long modernity of the capitalist world system Deckard reads literature from postcolonial nations in context with colonial discourse in order to demonstrate how paradise begins as a topos motivating European exploration and colonization shifts into an ideological myth justifying imperial exploitation and finally becomes a literary motif used by contemporary writers to critique neocolonial representations and conditions in the age of globalization Combining a range of critical perspectives cultural materialist ecocritical and postcolonial the volume opens up a deeper understanding of the relation between paradise discourse and the destructive dynamics of plantation tourism and global capital Deckard uncovers literature from East Africa and South Asia which has been previously overlooked in mainstream postcolonial criticism and gestures to how the utopian dimensions of the paradise myth might be reclaimed to promote cultural resistance Contemporary Tibet Barry Sautman, June Teufel Dreyer, 2006 Providing an analysis of the Tibet question this work explores essential themes and issues concerning modern Tibet It considers such topics as representations and sovereignty economic development and political conditions the exile movement and human rights historical legacies and international politics identity issues and the local society
