Ceremony and Ritual in Parliament Shirin M. Rai, 2013-10-18 Ceremony and Ritual in Parliament breaks new ground in the study of legislatures It combines mainstream historical and social science approaches with cultural theory to consider how parliamentary ritual is constructed through ceremony space and socialisation The focus is on the marginalised groups especially women and members of ethnic minorities who seek inclusion as representatives in democratic legislatures This book assesses aspects of the role that ceremony and ritual in legislatures play especially but not exclusively in their gendered and racialised dimensions Within this broad frame it considers the impact of space identity ritual and or ceremony on the institutional form of parliament how power is shaped within it how the behaviour of members is facilitated constrained and shaped how power and rituals interact to and how they impinge upon the relationships between representative institutions and citizens Contributions are theoretical and empirical comparative or single country studies of national or sub national legislatures They have interdisciplinary historical or postcolonial perspectives that contribute to this emerging field in the study of parliaments This book was previously published as a special issue of the Journal of Legislative Studies

Democracy in Practice S. Rai, R. Johnson, 2014-12-09 This collection makes a compelling case for the importance of studying ceremony and ritual in deepening our understanding of modern democratic parliaments It reveals through rich case studies that modes of behaviour the negotiation of political and physical spaces and the creation of specific institutional cultures underpin democracy in practice offers a fresh comparative approach to analysing parliaments and democratic politics drawing together rare ethnographic work by anthropologists and politics scholars from around the world Crewe's insights deepen our understanding of the complexity of political institutions She reveals how elected politicians navigate relationships by forging alliances and thwarting opponents how parliamentary buildings are constructed as sites of work debate and the nation in miniature and how politicians and officials engage with hierarchies continuity and change This book also proposes how to study parliaments through an anthropological lens while in conversation with other disciplines The dive into ethnographies from across Africa the Americas Asia Europe the Middle East and the Pacific Region demolishes hackneyed geo political categories and culminates in a new comparative theory about the contradictions in everyday political work This important book will be of interest to anyone studying parliaments but especially those in the disciplines of anthropology and sociology politics legal and development studies and international relations Diplomacy and lobbying during Turkey's Europeanisation Bilge Firat, 2019-09-26 This book presents intricate backstage negotiations of interests and compromises between diplomats and lobbyists through the corridors of power which drove Turkey both closer to and farther apart from the EU Exploring

Parliament Cristin Leston-Bandeira, 2025 Banning them, securing us? Lee Jarvis, Tim Legrand, 2020-03-26 Jarvis and Legrand explore the banning of terrorist organisations in liberal democratic states such as the United Kingdom This process they argue is far more a ritualized performance of national identity than it is a meaningful contribution to national security
