Sjoquist, 2005 No police force in history has gained as much fame and notoriety as the Los Angeles Police Department The acronym LAPD is practically synonymous with the idea of professional law enforcement The men in blue who patrol Hollywood and the sprawling metropolis of L A have been investigated by screenwriters more times than vice versa With more than 9 300 sworn officers today the LAPD endures seemingly endless controversies and media circuses But then there s the other side of L A s protective shield the story of the force s evolution alongside the spectacular growth of its unique melting pot city This book s rare and often never before published photographs focus on that side the excitement danger tragedy and comedy of everyday beat cops and workaday detectives with concessions to their limelight representations including Jack Webb s Dragnet and Adam 12

Narcotic Rehabilitation Act of 1966 United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on the Judiciary, 1966 Considers S 2113 and related S 2114 S 2152 and H R 9167 to provide optional treatment to addicts in lieu of trial extend coverage of Federal Youth Corrections Act to drug offenders up to 26 year olds and revise parole procedures on marijuana offenses Focuses on LSD and marijuana use on college campuses DARE to Say No Max Felker-Kantor, 2024-04-02 With its signature DARE to keep kids off drugs slogan and iconic t shirts DARE Drug Abuse Resistance Education was the most popular drug education program of the 1980s and 1990s But behind the cultural phenomenon is the story of how DARE and other antidrug education programs brought the War on Drugs into schools and ensured that the velvet glove of antidrug education would be backed by the iron fist of rigorous policing and harsh sentencing Max Felker Kantor has assembled the first history of DARE which began in Los Angeles in 1983 as a joint venture between the police department and the unified school district By the mid 90s it was taught in 75 percent of school districts across the United States DARE received near universal praise from parents educators police officers and politicians and left an indelible stamp on many millennial memories But the program had more nefarious ends and Felker Kantor complicates simplistic narratives of the War on Drugs He shows how policing entered US schools and framed drug use as the result of personal responsibility moral failure and poor behavior deserving of punishment rather than something deeply rooted in state retrenchment the abandonment of social service provisions and structures of social and economic inequality
