Losing Heart The Moral And Spiritual Mis Education Of Americas Children:

Losing Heart H. Svi Shapiro, 2006-08-15 In this book Svi Shapiro explores the ideological and attitudinal functions of schools looking especially at what is called the hidden curriculum He offers both an analysis of the role of education in producing and maintaining attitudes and values that contribute to our competitive socially unequal instrumental consumerist and self oriented culture and a radically different vision for what our schools should be about a vision that focuses on education s role in supporting a more critically reflective socially responsible and compassionate culture Federal and state legislation have propelled schools today in the direction of an increasingly test driven instrumental and individually competitive regime Under these legislative mandates schools are increasingly alienating and stressful places for both students and teachers Most disturbing is that this form of education is not conducive to providing young people with the capacity to cope with the moral cultural spiritual and political challenges of the world they inhabit More than only offering a critique of schools Shapiro proposes a counter vision that can lead to a different kind of culture and society and he discusses strategies for advocating and implementing it Written in a style that is very accessible to a wide range of readers Losing Heart The Moral and Spiritual Miseducation of America s Children is also carefully researched and draws on relevant theory to make a strong case This book speaks to a wide range of readers including academics and students in education sociology anthropology political science and cultural studies public school professionals and the general public interested in education It will appeal to faculty in schools of education who are looking for a text that offers both a critical language and one that speaks to possibility and change Critical Issues in Peace and Conflict Studies Thomas Matyók, Jessica Senehi, Sean Byrne, 2011-05-19

Peace and Conflict Studies PCS includes scholars and practitioners throughout the world working in peace studies conflict analysis and resolution conflict management appropriate dispute resolution and peace and justice studies They come to the PCS field with a diversity of ideas approaches disciplinary roots and topic areas which speaks to the complexity breadth and depth needed to apply and take account of conflict dynamics and the goal of peace Yet a number of key concerns and dilemmas continue to challenge the field Critical Issues in Peace and Conflict Studies Theory Practice and Pedagogy edited by Thomas Maty k Jessica Senehi and Sean Byrne is a collection of essays that explores a number of these issues providing a means by which academics students and practitioners can develop various methods to confront the complexity of contemporary conflicts Critical Issues in Peace and Conflict Studies discusses the emerging field of PCS and suggests a framework for the future development of the field and the education of its practitioners and academics The book has a wide audience targeting students at the undergraduate graduate and post graduate levels It also extends to those working in and leading community conflict resolution efforts as well as humanitarian aid workers Practising

Spirituality Laura Beres, 2017-03-07 The steady increase in economic social environmental and political hardships experienced by many around the globe has led in recent years to a corresponding growth in the importance ascribed to finding meaning in life and to addressing the bigger questions As deliverers of care and assistance to people across many different faiths and cultures whose lives are impacted directly by these hardships current and future social workers must learn to apply concepts of spirituality in their own professional practice In this unique and inspiring book a diverse group of authors draws deeply on their own experiences of spirituality in practice providing a fascinating and often moving exploration of how meaning is derived in a variety of different contexts Topics discussed include Mindfulness meditation and the practice of Falun Gong The interaction between spirituality social justice and professional practice The role of spirituality in the provision of palliative care Indigenous spiritualities interconnectedness and human animal bonds The role of spirituality in providing hospitality and acceptance in practice Enriched by a wealth of case studies and a strong focus on critical reflection throughout Practising Spirituality is an important and thought provoking read for students and practitioners across the full range of health and social care disciplines from social work and counselling to nursing youth work and beyond
