Loss Understanding The Emptiness:

Loss Eileen Kuehn, 2001 Describes how the loss of loved ones affect teenagers and the various ways in which they react to loss and suggests techniques to cope with loss and help grieving friends Locating and Losing the Self in the World Masato Ishida, Laura Specker Sullivan, 2014-10-16 Comparative philosophy brings into focus relationships found across philosophies of disparate cultures In the contemporary globalizing world this perspective is vital it ensures that diverse voices have the opportunity to be heard and refines the understanding of the many varieties of philosophical thought Philosophy departments around the world are beginning to see the import of this broader perspective Recent years have seen tremendous growth in the areas of Chinese Japanese Indian Islamic African Latin American and indigenous philosophies Every year graduate students from around the world gather at the University of Hawai i at M noa the defining center of this comparative movement in order to attend the Uehiro Graduate Student Philosophy Conference These students bring a range of philosophical interests that converge to a definite theme over the course of the conference At the 2012 meeting this theme revolved around human beings recognition of themselves as selves the discovery of the nature of these selves and their relation to the world at large These issues are comparative in the best sense of the word drawing on the interests of canonical Western philosophy as well as reflecting the fundamental concerns of non Western philosophies The three sections of this volume capture the stages of thought moving from self awareness to self transcendence and leading to the general theme of the volume locating and losing the self in the world The papers in this volume represent diverse philosophical viewpoints from canonical Western figures such as Immanuel Kant and Simone de Beauvoir to those of non Western philosophers who have been gaining interest in the English speaking world such as N g rjuna and Nishida Kitar By gaining familiarity with these figures perspectives readers will become better able to distinguish and think through issues including linguistic and phenomenological understanding of the self the self s full engagement with the world and the world s reciprocal determination of the self Understanding Grief Alan Wolfelt, 2013-06-17 This classic resource helps guide the bereaved person through the loss of a loved one and provides an opportunity to learn to live with and work through the personal grief process The Two Truths in Chinese Buddhism 二谛, 2004-01-01 This book originates from a thesis work whereby it is one of the first comprehensive study of Chi Tsang s treatment of The Two Truths in English The work aims to build up a strong interest in readers particularly people in Western societies who are unfamiliar with Chinese tradition culture and language The topic is not only important in the theoretical approach but also critical to a practitioner to comprehend Chinese Buddhism for its ability to be a good reference work Culture and Depression Arthur Kleinman, Byron J. Good, 2023-04-28 Some of the most innovative and provocative work on the emotions and illness is occurring in cross cultural research on depression Culture and Depression presents the work of anthropologists psychiatrists and psychologists who examine the controversies agreements and conceptual and methodological problems that arise in the course of such research

A book of enormous depth and breadth of discussion Culture and Depression enriches the cross cultural study of emotions and mental illness and leads it in new directions It commences with a historical study followed by a series of anthropological accounts that examine the problems that arise when depression is assessed in other cultures This is a work of impressive scholarship which demonstrates that anthropological approaches to affect and illness raise central questions for psychiatry and psychology and that cross cultural studies of depression raise equally provocative questions for anthropology This title is part of UC Press s Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press s mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1987 Some of the most innovative and provocative work on the emotions and illness is occurring in cross cultural research on depression Culture and Depression presents the work of anthropologists psychiatrists and psychologists who examine the controversies

Lost Beyond Telling Richard Howard Stamelman,1990 In seeking to give voice to absent things or lost experiences Richard Stamelman says modern poetry attempts to give absence a shape Loss in his view is both the cause and the subject of the modern poem Fittingly in Lost beyond Telling he formulates and develops what he calls a poetics of loss with which he frames his treatment of modern French poetry

Loss, Grief and Existential Awareness Mai-Britt Guldin,Carlo Leget,2024-12-17 Loss Grief and Existential Awareness introduces the Integrated Process Model IPM a new interdisciplinary and interprofessional model for grief research education and accompaniment that distinguishes and integrates five dimensions of grief physical emotional cognitive social and spiritual Central in this book is the insight that grief is connected to love because it is rooted in losing what is meaningful and dear to us Once we recognize this grief can become a window to existential awareness Combining research on the physical emotional cognitive social and spiritual dimensions of grief the integrated process approach connects this quest for a personal and authentic answer to the big questions in life with the philosophical and therapeutic tradition of existential thinking Structured in an accessible informative manner with gradual information building the book presents the IPM approach at the beginning and then turns to it as a model throughout the book so the reader gradually will start to deepen their understanding and memorize the framework The structure is enhanced with boxes with existential reflections and exercises to engage the reader and case presentations of grieving persons who are followed throughout the book This book is meant for everyone who is interested in a deeper understanding of how loss and grief can help opening the door to a more meaningful way of living It is especially helpful for healthcare professionals therapists counsellors chaplains and researchers
