Maritime Music Greats:

Maritime Music Greats Virginia Beaton, Stephen Pedersen, 1992 Encyclopedia of American Literature of the Sea and Great Lakes Jill B. Gidmark, 2000-11-30 The sea and Great Lakes have inspired American authors from colonial times to the present to produce enduring literary works This reference is a comprehensive survey of American sea literature The scope of the encyclopedia ranges from the earliest printed matter produced in the colonies to contemporary experiments in published prose poetry and drama The book also acknowledges how literature gives rise to adaptations and resonances in music and film and includes coverage of nonliterary topics that have nonetheless shaped American literature of the sea and Great Lakes The alphabetical arrangement of the reference facilitates access to facts about major literary works characters authors themes vessels places and ideas that are central to American sea literature Each of the several hundred entries is written by an expert contributor and many provide bibliographical information While the encyclopedia includes entries for white male canonical writers such as Herman Melville and Jack London it also gives considerable attention to women at sea and to ethnically diverse authors works and themes The volume concludes with a chronology and a list of works for further reading The Greatest Maritime Novels, Pirate Stories & Treasure-Hunt Tales Rafael Sabatini, R. The Garland Encyclopedia of World Music Ellen Koskoff,2017-09-25 This volume makes available the full range of the American Canadian musical experience covering for the first time in print all major regions ethnic groups and traditional and popular contexts From musical comedy to world beat from the songs of the Arctic to rap and house music from Hispanic Texas to the Chinese communities of Vancouver the coverage captures the rich diversity and continuities of the vibrant music we hear around us Special attention is paid to recent immigrant groups to Native American traditions and to such socio musical topics as class race gender religion government policy media and technology The Great Transformation of 2021 Norman Poire,2010-11-23 The decade of the 2020s promises to be as dynamic as any in recorded history Those ten years will be characterized by an unprecedented commingling of an extremely rare confluence of social cycles with the three ingredients of the looming Sustainability Crisis overpopulation peak oil and global climate change Out of the ashes will arise the Great Transformation of 2021 a cultural upheaval at least as significant as the Protestant Reformation of the sixteenth century It is unlikely that either capitalism or the nation state will survive it and quite likely that the United States will descend into permanent decline because of it The Great Transformation of 2021 will present mankind with challenges of historic proportions If global society makes the right choices the world could come out a better place on the other side If it chooses wrongly a nightmarish existence if not outright human extinction will be the consequence

Great Thoughts from Master Minds ,1908 Hawaiian Music in Motion James Revell Carr,2014-10-15 Hawaiian Music in Motion explores the performance reception transmission and adaptation of Hawaiian music on board ships and in the islands revealing the ways both maritime commerce and imperial confrontation facilitated the circulation of popular music in the nineteenth century James Revell Carr draws on journals and ships logs to trace the circulation of Hawaiian song and dance worldwide as Hawaiians served aboard American and European ships He also examines important issues like American minstrelsy in Hawaii and the ways Hawaiians achieved their own ends by capitalizing on Americans conflicting expectations and fraught discourse around hula and other musical practices The Tragic Story of the Empress of Ireland, and Other Great Sea Disasters Logan Marshall,2019-12-05 In The Tragic Story of the Empress of Ireland and Other Great Sea Disasters Logan Marshall delves into the harrowing accounts of maritime tragedies that have marked human history This compelling collection intertwines meticulous research with a vivid narrative style encapsulating the emotional weight and human experiences surrounding the sea disasters particularly the tragic sinking of the RMS Empress of Ireland in 1914 Marshall weaves together personal stories with broader historical context highlighting the societal implications and lessons learned from these cataclysmic events Logan Marshall a noted historian and journalist dedicated his career to chronicling significant occurrences that shaped maritime travel His fascination with maritime history stems from a deep understanding of its impact on socioeconomic factors and international relations of the early 20th century This background drives him to uncover not only the events themselves but also the human stories intertwined with them making them resonate with modern readers and historians alike This book is essential for readers interested in maritime history disaster studies and the interplay of human experiences with the unpredictable nature of the sea Marshall s deft storytelling invites readers to reflect on these tragedies offering insights into resilience and the indomitable spirit of those affected
