Modern Mortgage Law And Practice:

Modern Mortgage Law and Practice Robert Kratovil, 1972 Modern Mortgage Law and Practice Robert Kratovil, Raymond J. Werner, 1981 A Treatise on the Law and Practice of Mortgage Foreclosure on Real Property Charles Hastings Wiltsie, 1927 TM Products, Inc. V. Domicile Manor, Inc, 1981 A Treatise on the Law and Practice of Foreclosing Mortgages on Real Property Charles Hastings Wiltsie, 1890 A Treatise on the Law and Practice of Foreclosing Mortgages Charles Hastings Wiltsie, 1889 Title News, 1972 Modern Studies in Property Law - Volume 9 Heather Conway, Robin Hickey, 2017-07-27 This book contains a collection of peer reviewed papers presented at the Eleventh Biennial Modern Studies in Property Law Conference held at Queen's University Belfast in April 2016. It is the ninth volume to be published under the name of the Conference. The Conference and its published proceedings have become an established forum for property lawyers from around the world to showcase current research in the discipline. This collection reflects the diversity and contemporary relevance of modern research in property law. Following a foreword from the keynote speaker at the Conference, Queen's alumnus Lord Kerr of Tonaghmore, the chapters address a range of issues from the nature of land law and property rights through claims to the home and digital assets to the growing debate on the nature of public property. Collectively, the chapters demonstrate the vibrancy and importance of property law in dealing with modern concerns across the common law world. Clearinghouse Review, 1974 New York University Law Review, 1924 Cornell University Announcements Cornell University, 1928 Modern Studies in Property Law University of Reading. Centre for Property Law. Conference, 2001 A New Land Law Peter Sparkes, 2003-08-05 Peter Sparkes' path-breaking text on land law has been rewritten with two aims in mind: to incorporate the seismic changes introduced by the Land Registration Act 2002 along with commonholds; the explosion of human rights jurisprudence and the unremitting advance of judicial exposition; and to accommodate the author's developing thinking on the structural aspects of the subject. The book opens with a series of shorter chapters each exploring a fundamental building block: registration, houses, flats and commonholds, land ownership and its transactional powers, social controls, balanced by human rights, to property fragmentation by time, the doctrine of estates, divisions of ownership and proprietary rights. In terms of substantive chapters, the book opens with discussion of the new transfer system, paper-based transfer alongside the evolution towards electronic conveyancing and the consequent changes to the proof of registered titles and to the registration curtain. The new approach to adverse possession against registered titles has called for extended discussion, as has the authoritative elucidation of the concept of adverse possession in Pye. In terms of proprietary interests, the fundamentals are seen as rights to transfer, beneficial interests under trusts which are overreachable, burdens which are enduring, leases, money charges such as mortgages which are redeemable, and the obligations enforceable within the neighbour principle, easements, covenants and positive covenants being treated as a semi-coherent whole. An attempt has been made to assist students by moving some of the more arcane learning later into the book or into separate chapters where these matters might be more readily ignored by a candidate concerned primarily to prepare for an examination A massive amount of research and scholarship has gone into the book with impressive citation of cases articles and case notes and of other text books This newcomer on the scene is a considerable addition to the ranks of serious text books on land law and the author is to be congratulated The New Law Journal The scope of this work is ambitious it is a bold attempt to take the study of land law forward much more than a basic land law text book it would be a pleasure to be able to teach a course requiring students to cover the substance or the bulk of it whether in one or more modules a difficult blend of background and history massive referencing discussion of statute and case law all wrapped up in a text that is not too difficult to absorb The Law Teacher A most interesting and ground breaking book Michael Cardwell University of Leeds At last a brilliant land law book I think the approach is marvellous and will strongly recommend it to my students Keith Gompertz University of Central England takes a more modern approach to the area I am very impressed with the style layout and format It will be a good teaching tool and I am looking forward to using it Alison Dunn Newcastle Law School not baffling in the way land law texts tend to be Helen Taylor University of Teesside Excellent Professor Edward Burn City University Modern Studies in Property Law - Volume 1 Elizabeth Cooke, 2001-03-12 This book comprises a collection of papers given at the third biennial conference of the Centre for Property Law at the University of Reading held in March 2000 and is the first in the series Modern Studies in Property Law The Reading conference is becoming well known as a unique opportunity for property lawyers to meet and confer both formally and informally this volume marks a new development being a refereed and revised selection of the papers given there Speakers from around the world focus on issues of immediate importance ranging from human rights to electronic conveyancing as well as timeless but ever relevant subjects such as trusts mortgages and the numerous clauses of property rights As ever a range of international topics are discussed this time including land registration in the Nordic countries and the re privatisation of land in Eastern Europe
