

The book cover features a complex, layered design. At the top right is a realistic image of the Earth. To its left, a hand reaches out from a purple, ethereal space. The background is a mix of soft, painterly colors (blue, green, yellow) and sharp, digital elements like circuit board patterns in the bottom left and a stylized figure in the bottom right. Thin, white, fiber-optic-like lines crisscross the upper half of the cover.
