Snapshot Photography Catherine Zuromskis,2021-08-24 An examination of the contradictions within a form of expression that is both public and private specific and abstract conventional and countercultural Snapshots capture everyday occasions Taken by amateur photographers with simple point and shoot cameras snapshots often commemorate something that is private and personal yet they also reflect widely held cultural conventions The poses may be formulaic but a photograph of loved ones can evoke a deep affective response In Snapshot Photography Catherine Zuromskis examines the development of a form of visual expression that is both public and private Scholars of art and culture tend to discount snapshot photography it is too ubiquitous too unremarkable too personal Zuromskis argues for its significance Snapshot photographers she contends are not so much creating spontaneous records of their lives as they are participating in a prescriptive cultural ritual A snapshot is not only a record of interpersonal intimacy but also a means of linking private symbols of domestic harmony to public ideas of social conformity Through a series of case studies Zuromskis explores the social life of snapshot photography in the United States in the latter half of the twentieth century She examines the treatment of snapshot photography in the 2002 film One Hour Photo and in the television crime drama Law and Order: Special Victims Unit the growing interest of collectors and museum curators in vintage snapshots and the snapshot aesthetic of Andy Warhol and Nan Goldin She finds that Warhol s photographs of the Factory community and Goldin s intense and intimate photographs of friends and family use the conventions of the snapshot to celebrate an alternate version of family values In today s digital age snapshot photography has become even more ubiquitous and ephemeral and significantly more public But buried within snapshot photography s mythic construction Zuromskis argues is a site of democratic possibility

Encyclopedia of Twentieth-century Photography Lynne Warren,2006 Publisher description Nan Goldin Guido Costa,Nan Goldin,2001 Etude l oeuvre de l artiste travers 55 de ses photographies bri vement comment es In Visible Archives Margaret Galvan,2023-09-26 Analyzing how 1980s visual culture provided a vital space for women artists to theorize and visualize their own bodies and sexualities In 1982 the protests of antiporn feminists sparked the censorship of the Diary of a Conference on Sexuality a radical and sexually evocative image text volume whose silencing became a symbol for the irresolvable feminist sex wars In Visible Archives documents the community networks that produced this resonant artifact and others analyzing how visual culture provided a vital space for women artists to theorize and visualize their own bodies and sexualities Margaret Galvan explores a number of feminist and cultural touchstones the feminist sex wars the HIV AIDS crisis the women in print movement and countercultural grassroots periodical networks and examines how visual culture interacts with these pivotal moments She goes deep into the records to bring together a decade s worth of research in grassroots and university archives that include comics collages photographs drawings and other image text media produced by women including Hannah Alderfer Beth Jaker Marybeth Nelson Roberta Gregory Lee Marrs Alison Bechdel Gloria Anzald a and Nan Goldin The art highlighted in In Visible Archives demonstrates how women represented their bodies and sexualities on their own terms and created visibility for new diverse identities thus serving as blueprints for future activism and advocacy work that is urgent now more than ever as LGBTQ and women s rights face challenges and restrictions across the nation

Twentieth Century United States Photographers Kristin G. Congdon, Kara Kelley Hallmark, 2008-04-30 Profiles seventy six American photographers both well known and more obscure who have made significant contributions to the field of photography throughout the twentieth century

Phototextualities Alex Hughes, Andrea Noble, 2003 How are photographs understood as narratives In this book twenty two original critical essays tackle this overarching question in a series of case studies moving chronologically across the history of photography from the 1840s to the twenty first century The contributors explore the intersections of photography with history memory autobiography time death mapping the discourse of Orientalism digital technology and representations of race and gender The essays range in focus from the role of photographic images in the memorialization of the Holocaust the Argentine Dirty War and Japanese American internment camps through Man Ray s classic image Noire et blanche and Nan Goldin s The Ballad of Sexual Dependency to the function of family albums in nineteenth century England and America

Photography Reframed Ben Burbidge, Annebella Pollen, 2020-09-10 At a critical point in the development of photography this book offers an engaging detailed and far reaching examination of the key issues that are defining contemporary photographic culture Photography Reframed addresses the impact of radical technological social and political change across a diverse set of photographic territories the ontology of photography the impact of mass photographic practice the public display of intimate life the current state of documentary and the political possibilities of photographic culture These lively accessible essays by some of the best writers in photography together go deep into the most up to date frameworks for analysing and understanding photographic culture and shedding light on its histories Photography Reframed is a vital road map for anyone interested in what photography has been what it has become and where it is going

Nan Goldin Guido Costa, 2005

Recognized internationally for her intimate and compelling images the American photographer Nan Goldin b 1953 has lived and worked in Boston New York Berlin and in Paris her current home Since the early 1970s Goldin has taken numerous photographs of her friends and family which form a significant and important body of work She is most famous for her Ballad of Sexual Dependency photographs a constantly changing slide show of approximately 750 photographs set to music Goldin's life and friends became the focus of her work a diary of friends and lovers in Europe and America in the underground and gay scene This accessible monograph is the perfect introduction to her work American Photo, 1998-03 American Exposures Louis Kaplan, 2005 American Exposures sheds light on photographs from Arthur Mole's propagandistic living photographs of American icons and symbols to the exploration of contemporary subcultural communities by the Korean born photographer and performance artist Nikki Lee and asserts that the depiction of community is a central component to photography Louis Kaplan deploys a number of critical concepts and theories developed by Jean Luc Nancy in The Inoperative Community as well as other philosophers and applies them to the field of photography studies With an original approach to photography from Edward Steichen's Family of Man exhibition to Pedro Meyer and the rise of the digital image Kaplan points to a new way to think about the intimate relationship among photography American life and the artistic imagination Back cover Canadian Art, 2001 Nan Goldin Nan Goldin, Fashioning Fiction in Photography Since 1990 Susan Kismaric, Eva Respini, Museum of Modern Art (New York, N.Y.), 2004 Essay and Interview with Dennis Freedman by Susan Kismaric and Dennis Freedman Nan Goldin Nan Goldin, 1985 Contemporary Photography and Theory Sally Miller, 2020-05-26 Contemporary Photography and Theory offers an essential overview of some of the key critical debates in fine art photography today Building on a foundational understanding of photography it offers an in depth discussion of five topic areas identity landscape and place the politics of representation psychoanalysis and the event Written in an accessible style it introduces the critical literature relevant to photography that has emerged over recent decades Moving beyond seminal works by writers such as Walter Benjamin Roland Barthes and Susan Sontag it enables readers to explore an extended canon of theorists including Jacques Lacan Judith Butler and Giorgio Agamben The book is illustrated throughout and analyses a range of works by established and emergent artists in order to show how these theoretical concepts are central to understanding contemporary photography These 15 short essays encourage readers to apply critical thinking to both their own work and that of others They are the perfect starting point for essays as well being of suitable length for assigned readings making this the ideal resource for learning about contemporary photography and theory Art about AIDS Sophie Junge, 2016-11-21 In addition to being a medical political and social crisis the AIDS epidemic in the United States also led to a crisis of artistic representation This book reveals the important political and moral role of American photographers in the social discourse on AIDS based on the 1989 New York exhibition Witnesses Against Our Vanishing curated by photographer Nan Goldin The Reclining Nude Emma Wilson, 2019 This book a sensuous evocation of images of the reclining nude claims a female identified pleasure in looking Agn s Varda Catherine Breillat and Nan Goldin are re imagining images of female beauty display auto eroticism and intimacy The reclining nude is compelling for female identified artists in the ethically adventurous politically complex feminist issues it engages The Domestic Interior and the Self in Contemporary Photography Jane Simon,2023-09-18 By carefully conceptualising the domestic in relation to the self and the photographic this book offers a unique contribution to both photography theory and criticism and life narrative studies Jane Simon brings together two critical practices into a new conversation arguing that artists who harness domestic photography can advance a more expansive understanding of the autobiographical Exploring the idea that self representation need not equate to self portraiture or involve the human form artists from around the globe are examined including Rinko Kawauchi Catherine Opie Dayanita Singh Moyra Davey and Elina Brotherus who maintain a personal gaze at domestic detail By treating the representation of interiors domestic objects and the very practice of photographic seeing and framing as autobiographical gestures this book reframes the relationship between interiors and exteriors public and private and insists on the importance of domestic interiors to understandings of the self and photography The book will be of interest to scholars working in photographic history and theory art history and visual studies
