Primal Vision Christian Presence Amid Af:

Primal Religion and the Bible Gillian M. Bediako, 1997-08-01 This important study of the published and unpublished writings of Scotland's most brilliant and controversial nineteenth century theologian focuses on his concern to situate biblical religion within the context of the primal religions of Israel's neighbours. The book explores the implications of the relationship between the Christian faith and primal religion. Robertson Smith has still a contribution to make to contemporary discussion of the phenomenology of the Christian faith and Christian responses to religious pluralism. Theology and Identity Kwame Bediako, 2011-06-01 Kwame Bediako examines the question of Christian identity in the context of the Greco-Roman culture of the early Roman Empire. He then addresses the modern African predicament of quests for identity and integration. Theology and Identity was one of the finalists for the 1992 HarperCollins Religious Book Award. Evangelizing Neopagan North America Alfred C. Krass, 2001-03-01 Coping with Evil in Religion and Culture, 2008-01-01 The various Christian Muslim traditional African and secular Western ways of imagining and coping with evil collected in this volume have several things in common. The most crucial perhaps and certainly the most striking aspect is the problem of defining the nature or characteristics of evil as such. Some argue that evil has an essence that remains constant whereas others say its interpretation depends on time and place. However, much religious and secular interpretations of evil may have changed the human search for sense and meaning never ends. Questions of whom to blame and whom to address: God, the devil, fate, bad luck, or humans remain at the center of our explanations and our strategies to comprehend, define, counter, or process the evil we do and the evil done to us by people, God, nature, or accident. Using approaches from cultural anthropology, religious studies, theology, philosophy, psychology, and history, the contributors to this volume analyze how several religious and secular traditions imagine and cope with evil. The Origins of the New Churches Movement in Southern Ethiopia, 1927-1944 Brian L. Fargher, 2023-09-20 This study describes the beginnings of a movement which has created another face for Ethiopian Christianity. The expatriate missionary evangelists who in 1927 were encouraged by Emperor Haile Selassie to work in southern Ethiopia intentionally bypassed the Orthodox model and made a fresh start. Three of the many facets of the movement comprise the body of the book: There is the religious backdrop of Orthodox Christianity and the expatriates' fundamentalist traditions; then the praxis and polity of their work; finally, the post-Occupation outcome which confirmed their choices. Since its beginning in 1932, the New Churches Movement has impacted every part of Ethiopian society: religious, political, and socio-economic. It demonstrates that a fresh start can be complementary rather than competitive. The movement's success encourages missionary evangelists to continue making new beginnings. Toward an Anabaptist-Pentecostal Vision Joseph C. L. Sawatzky, 2023-03-28 What does Pentecostalism, the fastest growing Christian expression worldwide, have to do with Anabaptism, whose Mennonite adherents have sometimes been called the quiet in the land? In this groundbreaking study, Joseph C. L. Sawatzky explores a mission history of North American Mennonites working with African Initiated and

Pentecostal type churches in southern Africa illuminating points of divergence and convergence between Anabaptist and Pentecostal streams Placing testimonies of African and North American participants in this history within a broader biblical and theological framework this study proposes bases for an emerging Anabaptist Pentecostal vision with implications for the church its leadership and its witness in the world This lively interdisciplinary study will interest students of mission interculturality and the Christian faith itself War and Faith in Sudan Gabriel Meyer, 2005 This account of the tragic civil war in Sudan is more than a skillful journalist's firsthand report Meyer also offers a deeper understanding of the cultural racial and religious fault lines that divide the world at the start of the 21st century The Human Condition Joe M. Kapolyo, 2013-05-14 Human beings are complex For all our contemporary knowledge and ability however wonderful and widely available people around the world face a crisis of human identity that calls into question the meaning of existence and the basis of moral behaviour Responding to these challenges Joe Kapolyo recognizes both the authority of the Bible which teaches that people are created in the image of God but also corrupted by rebellion and sin and the relevance of distinctly African perspectives on what it means to be human Although he reads these perspectives critically they lead him to reaffirm the biblical vision of redeemed human life in community in Christ This vision offers a solution to the crisis of identity experienced by people who have forgotten who they are and whose they are The Gospel Interpreting Cultural Traditions for Reconciliation Plaisance Rivoli M'bara, 2025-09-30 Just as the world's peoples are in desperate need of hearing the gospel in their own languages they are equally in need of experiencing Christ's ministry of reconciliation in their own contexts In this contextualized study of conflict and reconciliation Dr Plaisance Rivoli M'bara examines the factors contributing to the outbreak of armed conflict in Central African Republic in 2013 as well as those impeding reconciliation in its aftermath He explores how the indigenous ritual of the blood pact Mbuki could strengthen the peacebuilding process in CAR drawing on field research and secondary sources to establish Mbuki's power as a tool for facilitating forgiveness justice and peace By bringing this traditional practice into conversation with Scripture Dr M'bara demonstrates its potential for helping believers formulate a contextualized theology of reconciliation that would directly impact their ability to effectively witness to the nature of Christ and his kingdom in the aftermath of violent conflict This is a powerful resource for theological practitioners humanitarian aid workers politicians church leaders and anyone working to restore peace in a war-torn world Who wants to be a Millionaire? Emanuel Anim, 2020-01-01 Prosperity Teaching is fast becoming a standard part of contemporary African Christianity This teaching is best understood in the Charismatic and Pentecostal churches in Africa The varied expressions and nuances call for a critical analysis of the phenomenon Prosperity Teaching affirms wealth divine healing good health and long life as manifestations of God's blessing Conspicuous consumption is often seen as a sign of a successful life and suffering has no place in the divine order of God's sovereignty This book Who Wants to be a Millionaire seeks to bring some understanding to this teaching and shows the extent of its impact in the wider society
