Orientalism and Identity in Latin America Erik Camayd-Freixas, 2013-03-14 Building on the pioneering work of Edward Said in fresh and useful ways contributors to this volume consider both historical contacts and literary influences in the formation of Latin American constructs of the Orient and the Self from colonial times to the present In the process they unveil wide ranging manifestations of Orientalism Contributors scrutinize the other great encounter not with Europeans but with Arabic Chinese and Japanese cultures as they marked Latin American societies from Mexico Central America and the Caribbean to Peru Argentina and Brazil The perspectives experiences and theories presented in these examples offer a comprehensive framework for understanding wide ranging manifestations of Orientalism in Latin America and elsewhere in the developing world Orientalism and Identity in Latin America expands current theoretical frameworks juxtaposing historical biographical and literary depictions of Middle Eastern and Asian migrations both of people and cultural elements as they have been received perceived refashioned and integrated into Latin American discourses of identity and difference Underlying this intercultural dialogue is the hypothesis that the discourse of Orientalism and the process of Orientalization apply equally to Near Eastern and Far Eastern subjects as well as to immigrants regardless of provenance and indeed to any individual or group who might be construed as Other by a particular dominant culture

Colonial Tropes and Postcolonial Tricks Lesley Wylie, 2009-07-15 The vision of the South American rainforest as a wilderness of rank decay poisonous insects and bloodthirsty savages in the Spanish American novela de la selva has often been interpreted as a belated imitation of European travel literature This book offers a new reading of the genre by arguing that far from being derivative the novela de la selva re imagined the tropics from a Latin American perspective redefining tropical landscape aesthetics and ethnography through parodic rewritings of European perceptions of Amazonia in fictional and factual travel writing With particular reference to the four emblematic novels of the genre W H Hudson s Green Mansions 1904 Jos Eustasio Rivera s La vor gine 1924 R mulo Gallegos s Canaima 1935 and Alejo Carpentier s Los pasos perdidos 1953 the book explores how writers throughout post independence Latin America turned to the jungle as a locus for the contestation of both national and literary identity harnessing the superabundant tropical vegetation and native myths and customs to forge a descriptive vocabulary which emphatically departed from the reductive categories of European travel writing Despite being one of the most significant examples of postcolonial literature to emerge from Latin America in the twentieth century the novela de la selva has to date received little critical attention this book returns a seminal genre of Latin American literature to the centre of contemporary debates about postcolonial identity travel writing and imperial landscape aesthetics

Bibliographic Guide to Gabriel García Márquez, 1992-2002 Nelly S. de Gonzalez, 2003-08-30 With this latest installment Nelly Sfeir v de Gonzalez has completed her trilogy of bibliographies on Gabriel Garcia Marquez Born in Colombia in 1927 Garcia Marquez has become one of the most outstanding and influential novelists of the 20th century He has received numerous awards including the 1982 Nobel Prize for Literature His work has generated an enormous amount of scholarship and his writings are part of the curricula taught in most American colleges and universities This third volume presents a comprehensive annotated bibliography of books articles and non print materials by and about Garcia Marquez published between 1992 and 2002 The first part consists of primary sources by Garcia Marquez while the second part brings together entries for secondary sources including reviews

Handbook of Latin American Environmental Aesthetics Jens Andermann, Gabriel Giorgi, Victoria Saramago, 2023-09-05 The Handbook of Latin American Environmental Aesthetics offers a comprehensive overview of Latin American aesthetic and conceptual production addressing the more than human environment at the intersection between art activism and critique Fields include literature performance film and other audiovisual media as well as their interactions with community activisms Scholars who have helped establish environmental approaches in the field as well as emergent critical voices revisit key concepts such as ecocriticism post extractivism and multinaturalism while opening new avenues of dialogue with areas including critical race theory and ethnicity energy humanities queer trans studies and infrastructure studies among others This volume both traces these genealogies and maps out key positions in this increasingly central field of Latin Americanism at the same time as they relate it to the environmental humanities at large By showing how artistic and literary productions illuminate critical zones of environmental thought articulating urgent social and material issues with cultural archives historical approaches and conceptual interventions this volume offers cutting edge critical tools for approaching literature and the arts from new angles that call into question the nature culture boundary
