Prospects for Peace in South Asia Rafiq Dossani, Henry S. Rowen, 2022 Prospects for Peace in South Asia addresses the largely hostile often violent relations between India and Pakistan that date from their independence in 1947 The persistent conflict between the two neighboring countries over Kashmir has defied numerous international attempts at resolution and entered its most dangerous phase when both India and Pakistan became nuclear powers in 1998 The struggle over Kashmir is enduringly rooted in national identity religion and human rights It has also influenced the politicization of Pakistan's army religious radicalism and nuclearization in both countries This incisive volume analyzes these forces their impact on relations between the two countries and alternative roles the United States might play in resolving the dispute While acknowledging the risks the book is optimistic about peace in South Asia The key argument is that many of the domestic concerns such as territorial integrity in both countries and civilian military rapprochement in Pakistan that were fueling the conflict have abated

South Asia and the Great Powers Sten Rynning,2017-02-23 Where the implications of war and peace are open to question the possibility of change depends more on politics than economics This book asks whether the region s great powers can overcome opposing interests and commit to political restraint The concept of regional security is based on great power support for regional order However there are many pitfalls to consider notably the politics of contested nationalisms the Asia Pacific rivalry of China and the US and India s inclinations to function or be seen as a benevolent hegemon for the region Yet there are signs of renewed determination to move the region in new directions While China s Silk Road projects are long term regional investments that hinge on regional stability the US is attempting to fashion new partnerships and India strives to reconcile regional differences to promote a peaceful environment This book as it sets out the emerging agendas of the great powers and local powers makes a significant contribution to a better understanding of the international relations and diplomatic politics of South Asia

Forging Peace in Southeast Asia Zachary Abuza, 2016-09-26 Until recently Southeast Asia was plagued by separatist insurgencies that had simmered seemingly intractable for several decades But peace processes in Indonesia and the Philippines have been some of the most innovative and successful in the world a model and counterpoint for Thailand and other protracted conflicts Since the 1970s Indonesia the Philippines and Thailand have wrestled with secessionist groups Each government entered into peace talks then though without any sincerity or willingness to make significant concessions By the turn of the millennium the governments of Indonesia and the Philippines began to reevaluate their strategies while insurgents came to the conclusion that the changed global environment and waning capabilities made victory unlikely Further the impact of the 2004 tsunami brought not only another impetus but also the involvement of the international donor community and peace processes began in both countries where they were successfully implemented Successful devolution of political and economic powers that protected the cultural rights of the minority population as well as substantial wealth sharing brought an end to these conflicts Such successful peace building efforts serve as both a model and counterpoint for Thailand Each of the case studies begins with a history of the insurgency an analysis of the insurgent group s organization operations tactics and capabilities before delving into the history of the peace processes and analyzing the factors that made them successful Nothing is harder than a peace process but the lessons of Southeast Asia show that it is made possible through such factors as a national devaluation of power bold and creative statesmanship the successful neutralization of spoilers and the role of neutral third party facilitators These cases provide important lessons for the fields of counterinsurgency and peace making

Peace and Security in South Asia Fahmida Ashraf, Amera Saeed, Najam Rafique, 2002 Peace Watch, 1995 Peace and Security in Indo-Pacific Asia Sorpong Peou, 2021-11-21

Peace and Security in Indo Pacific Asia is for the informed the interested and the engaged Sorpong Peou brings together the skills of the pedagogue with the knowledge of the scholar Dr David Dewitt University Professor Emeritus Senior Scholar York University Toronto Canada Peou's excellent book provides both the lay reader and the specialist with six important theoretical frameworks which should provide the basis for better appreciation of what a security community in Indo Pacific Asia means in our world today There are very few scholars who understand the region like Peou Dr W Andy Knight Professor of Political Science the University of Alberta Canada Sorpong Peou's extraordinary breadth of knowledge of both International Relations theory and the key trends in Indo Pacific Asia shines through in this authoritative analysis Dr Richard Stubbs Professor of Political Science McMaster University Canada A pedagogical approach of the textbook that is appreciated is how the author respectfully engages with the theories of IR and is not pushing an agenda of denouncing some theories and trying to persuade the reader of others We live in such polarizing times that it is truly refreshing to read scholarly work that avoids sensationalistic attacks on theories that have been debated for decades Each theory in this manuscript is explored on its own terms and the reader is encouraged to figure out where they stand on these enduring debates in the context of Indo Pacific security The approach will lead to compelling classroom discussions of the theories and the politics of the region This book is a must read for any student or observer of security trends in the region Dr Mark Williams Chair and Professor of Political Studies Vancouver Island University B C Canada
