Translated from the French by C. Martel Michel Eugène CHEVREUL, 1854      Not a Choice, Not a Job JANICE G. RAYMOND, 2013-07-15 A generation ago most people did not know how ubiquitous and grave human trafficking was Now many people agree that the $7 billion business is an appalling violation of human rights But when confronted with prostitution many people experience an odd disconnect because prostitution is shrouded in myths among them the claims that prostitution is inevitable and prostitution is a job or service like any other In Not a Choice, Not a Job Janice Raymond challenges both the myths and their perpetrators Raymond demonstrates that prostitution is not sex but sexual exploitation and that legalizing and decriminalizing the system of prostitution as opposed to the prostituted women promotes sex trafficking expands the sex industry and invites organized crime Specifically Raymond exposes how legalized prostitution in the Netherlands Germany Australia and Nevada worsens crime and endangers women In contrast she reveals when governments work to prevent the demand for prostitution by prosecuting pimps brothels and prostitution users as in Norway Sweden and Iceland trafficking does not increase women are better protected and fewer men buy sex Raymond expands the boundaries of scholarship in women s studies making this book indispensable to human rights advocates around the world      The Coordinated

Leinaweaver, 2011-07 Internationally adopted persons confront multiple challenges in constructing their identities This study of the narrative burden of self looks at and interprets the dynamic process in which internationally adopted people develop coordinate and manage their sense of self identity and cultural racial personhood Drawing on the theory of the Coordinated Management of Meaning CMM the study focuses on their use of orphaning and adoption stories to most skillfully position and tell one s origin story in concert with one s internal sense of self and the pressures and forces found in interpersonal and intercultural dialogue The research reveals how internationally adopted people develop and demonstrate varying levels of game mastery in managing societal scripts and oppressive frames of stigma Through this game mastery the research brings to view how the participants have reflexively learned to claim ownership of their stories and develop a sense of agency while fashioning self empowering narratives out of the resources of their personal root journeys to better manage frame and coordinate the meaning of their stories across cultural and interpersonal boundaries      A Social Archaeology of Roman and Late Antique Egypt Ellen Swift, Jo Stoner, April Pudsey, 2022 Artefact evidence has the unique power to illuminate many aspects of life that are rarely explored in written sources This book presents the first in depth study that uses everyday artefacts as its principal source of evidence to transform our understanding of the society and culture of Roman and Late Antique Egypt      Gender, Ethnicity and publication history scholarly investigation compositional problems and evidence of redaction as well as a in depth analysis of the narrative For the first time the readings of the vast majority of the known Greek manuscripts appear together with a transcription of the original text of the complete copy of the ProtJas found in Papyrus Bodmer V
