Perspectives on Children's Spiritual Formation Michael Anthony, 2007-01-01. Church scholars from varying denominational backgrounds discuss four basic common beliefs about children's spiritual formation with the goal of determining which is most scripturally sound.

The Unnecessary Pastor Marva J. Dawn, Eugene H. Peterson, 1999-11-17. Best selling authors Marva Dawn and Eugene Peterson offer encouragement to pastors. Pastors are strategically placed to counter the culture. No other profession looks so inoffensive but is in fact so dangerous to the status quo. Their weapon: A gospel that is profoundly countercultural. But standing firm in today's world isn't easy. Powerful forces, both subtle and obvious, attempt to domesticate pastors to make them in a word unnecessary. In this book, two of today's most respected authors help pastors recover their gospel identity and maintain a pure vision of Christian leadership. Marva Dawn and Eugene Peterson reconnect pastors with the biblical texts that will train them as countercultural servants of the gospel. Marva Dawn looks to Paul's letter to the Ephesians for instruction for churches seeking to live faithfully in today's world. In turn, Eugene Peterson explores Romans 1 and 2 Timothy and Titus, drawing from them the correct view of pastoral identity.

Redeeming the Text Charles Martindale, 1993. This book applies some of the procedures of modern critical theory, in particular reception theory, deconstruction, theories of dialogue, and the hermeneutics associated with the German philosopher Gadamer, to the interpretation of Latin poetry. Charles Martindale argues that we neither can nor should attempt to return to an original meaning for ancient poems free from later accretions and the processes of appropriation. More traditional approaches to literary enquiry conceal a metaphysics which has been put in question by various anti-foundationalist accounts of the nature of meaning and the relationship between language and what it describes. From this perspective, the author examines different readings of the poetry of Virgil, Ovid, Horace, and Lucan in order to suggest alternative ways in which those texts might more profitably be read. Finally, he focuses on a key term for such study, translation, and examines the epistemological questions it raises and seeks to circumvent.

The Marketplace Annotated Bibliography Pete Hammond, 2011-03. Every workday, millions of Christians enter the marketplace. Whether as sales associates or engineers, auto mechanics or executives, Christians are called to serve God in the workplace. But most need help integrating faith and work. How can you be salt and light on the job?
