J. David Markham

Reeling In Russia:

Reeling In Russia Fen Montaigne, 2024-09-04 In the summer of 1996 award winning journalist Fen Montaigne embarked on a hundred day seven thousand mile journey across Russia Traveling with his fly rod he began his trek in northwestern Russia on the Solovetsky Islands a remote archipelago that was the birthplace of Stalin's gulag He ended half a world away as he fished for steelhead trout on the Kamchatka Peninsula on the shores of the Pacific His tales of visiting these far flung rivers are memorable and at heart Reeling in Russia is far more than a story of an angling journey It is a humorous and moving account of his adventures in the madhouse that is Russia today and a striking portrait that highlights the humanity and tribulations of its people In the end the reader is left with the memory of haunted northern landscapes of vivid sunsets over distant rivers of the crumbling remains of pre Revolutionary estates and a cast of dogged Russians struggling to build a life amid the rubble of the Communist regime

Russia's Iron General Jamie H. Cockfield, 2019-10-09 This study provides a comprehensive biography of Russian general Aleksei A Brusilov 1853-1926 commonly considered Russia's greatest general in World War I Following in the footsteps of his military family he entered the cavalry and quickly rose through rank to the status of general by 1906 Brusilov's great fame largely rests on his successful offensive in the summer of 1916 when he inflicted a stinging defeat on Austro-German forces As commander of the Southwest Front he initiated his broad front tactics and attacked on a 250 mile front inflicting a million and a half casualties His successes crippled Austria permanently making it totally dependent on Germany for the remainder of the war thus insuring no German victory in the east When the Revolution began in March 1917 Brusilov readily gave his allegiance to the republican Provisional Government and cooperated with the socialist Petrograd Soviet and their commissars and soldiers committees The government eventually made him commander in chief of all Russian forces He died a hero to the Russian people and remains so to this day In Russia's Iron General Jamie H Cockfield extensively examines all facets of Brusilov's life that led to his renowned reputation that continues decades after his death This study analyzes Brusilov's political positions over several wars and changing political powers his military history theories and tactics and his personal and familial life Maintaining Arctic Cooperation with Russia Stephanie Pezard, Abbie Tingstad, Kristin Van Abel, Scott Stephenson, 2017-03-07 This report examines security challenges that could alter Russia's current cooperative stance in the Arctic explores how these could undermine Arctic cooperation and offers recommendations for the U S government to manage risks to cooperation

Reel Power Matthew Alford, 2010-08-06 Hollywood is often characterised as a stronghold of left liberal ideals In Reel Power Matthew Alford shows that it is in fact deeply complicit in serving the interests of the most regressive US corporate and political forces Films like Transformers Terminator Salvation and Black Hawk Down are constructed with Defence Department assistance as explicit cheerleaders for the US military but Matthew Alford also emphasises how so called radical films like Three Kings Hotel Rwanda and Avatar present watered down alternative visions of American politics that serve a similar function Reel Power is the first book to examine the internal workings of contemporary Hollywood as a politicised industry as well as scores of films across all genres No matter what the progressive impulses of some celebrities and artists Alford shows how they are part of a system that is hard wired to encourage American global supremacy and frequently the use of state violence

Blacks, Reds, and Russians Joy Gleason Carew, 2010 One of the most compelling yet little known stories of race relations in the twentieth century is the account of blacks who chose to leave the United States to be involved in the Soviet Experiment in the 1920s and 1930s In Blacks Reds and Russians Joy Gleason Carew offers insight into the political strategies that often underlie relationships between different peoples and countries Interviews with the descendants of figures such as Paul Robeson and Oliver Golden offer rare personal insights into the story of a group of emigrants who confronted by the daunting challenges of making a life for themselves in a racist United States found unprecedented opportunities in communist Russia

The year was the year 92 the year of leanness the scene a spot between Sukhum and Otchenchiri on the river Kodor a spot so near to the sea that amid the joyous babble of a sparkling rivulet the ocean's deep voiced thunder was plainly distinguishable Also the season being autumn leaves of wild laurel were glistening and gyrating on the white foam of the Kodor like a quantity of mercurial salmon fry And as I sat on some rocks overlooking the river there occurred to me the thought that as likely as not the cause of the gulls and cormorants fretful cries where the surf lay moaning behind a belt of trees to the right was that like myself they kept mistaking the leaves for fish and as often finding themselves disappointed Over my head hung chestnut trees decked with gold at my feet lay a mass of chestnut leaves which resembled the amputated palms of human hands on the opposite bank where there waved tanglewise the stripped branches of a hornbeam an orange tinted woodpecker was darting to and fro as though caught in the mesh of foliage and in company with a troupe of nimble titmice and blue tree creepers visitors from the far distant North tapping the bark of the stem with a black beak and hunting for insects To the left the tops of the mountains hung fringed with dense fleecy clouds of the kind which presages rain and these clouds were sending their shadows gliding over slopes green and overgrown with boxwood and that peculiar species of hollow beech stump which once came near to effecting the downfall of Pompey's host through depriving his iron built legions of the use of their legs as they revelled in the intoxicating sweetness of the mead or honey which wild bees make from the blossoms of the laurel and the azalea and travellers still gather from those hollow stems to knead into lavashi or thin cakes of millet flour
