

Brief Guide to APA Format for Citations, Quotes, and References

David Fendrich
last revised on 9/08

These guidelines were taken from the Publication Manual of the American Psychological Association (Fifth Edition). Examples are shown in boldface. This is not a complete guide to APA style, see the manual for more details. A more extensive on-line APA guide is available at <http://www.uwsp.edu/psych/apa4b.htm>. If you find mistakes in this guide please send corrections to dwfendrich@widener.edu

Citations

(always included author(s) last name(s), year, and page numbers)

Citations should be used whenever any information you read in a source is included in your paper. Citations must be used even though the information was written in your own words; you must give an author credit for an idea or finding. General knowledge (e.g., that George Washington was the first president of the United States) does not require a citation. When in doubt about whether information is general knowledge, use a citation.

Rogers (1994) measured simple reaction times.

Simple reaction times are about 150 ms., on average (Rogers, 1994).

- Old works where original date is known but source used is more recent (in the reference list give the reference to the source you used)

James (1890/1983)

- Very old works without an original date that have been translated

(Aristotle, trans. 1931)

- Citation of a source's citation – If you want to cite some information that was cited in a source you read but you don't have access to the cited source do the following. Avoid this practice, if possible.

Jones (1985) found a high incidence of drug use among high school students (cited in Smith, 1994).

In the above example, Jones made the finding that you read in a book by Smith and you don't have access to the original source by Jones.

Research, 5th Edition Koul Lokesh, Disaster Management is an intended textbook for students pursuing a first and intermediate course on the subject in any undergraduate programme especially engineering courses like civil structural geotechnical engineering and other specialized courses on the subject The latest AICTE and the earlier UGC model curriculums have been extensively consulted to design the contents of the book Knowledge of research methodology is essential for all who either play an active role in conducting research or desire to keep themselves updated in the field of knowledge. Keeping this in mind, this edition has been thoroughly revised. The book contains an up-to-date account of the methods and techniques suited to the field of education and other allied disciplines and thus provides an understanding of significant research problems that need to be tackled. The book elaborates the quantitative and qualitative data analysis techniques, use of descriptive and inferential statistics, reporting of the results of research along with the characteristics and uses of historical, descriptive, ethnographic and experimental methods. Case studies form an important part of the text. It also provides priority areas of educational research in India in the context of National Education Policy 1986 and its Programme of Action 1992, UGC DEC IGNOU 2006, NCERT 2005 and UNESCO initiatives and policies as well as the Surveys of Research in Education 1997 and 2006. Designed and written mainly for the students of M.A. Education, Psychology and Sociology, M.Ed. and M.Phil. Education, Psychology and Sociology, the book will be of immense value to the Ph.D. students and other researchers of Social Sciences, Biological Sciences, Management, Legal Studies, Humanities and Languages.

Quick Bibliography Series, 1976 Reference Information Circulars National Archives (U.S.), 1948 Current Catalog National Library of Medicine (U.S.), 1980. First multi-year cumulation covers six years 1965-70 National Library of Medicine Current Catalog National Library of Medicine (U.S.), 1990 Canadian Reference Sources Mary E. Bond, Martine M. Caron, 1996. This bibliography cites those Canadian and foreign reference sources that describe Canadian people, institutions, organizations, publications, art, literature, languages and history. It lists books of a general nature as well as works in the disciplines of history and the humanities. These large divisions are then broken down by subject, genre, type of document and province or territory. Titles of national, provincial, territorial or regional interest are included in every subject area when available. The contents of the book are indexed four ways by name, title, French subject and English subject. And to facilitate browsing, the major reference books, those dealing with more than one subject or a large geographical region, are also cross-referenced. Two entries have been created for each bilingual document in order to provide access and bibliographical descriptions in both of Canada's official languages. Entries for unilingual works include citation in the language of the publication and a bilingual annotation. The annotations are descriptive and provide information on the content, arrangements and indexing of works, the availability of non-print formats, previous editions and title changes and related works. Canadian Reference Sources will be an invaluable reference tool for future scholars and researchers.

Harmonized health facility assessment (HHFA): quick guide World Health Organization, 2022-11-09. The Harmonized Health Facility Assessment (HHFA) is a comprehensive health facility survey that assesses the availability of health facility services and the capacity to provide these services at required standards of quality. The HHFA is accompanied by a set of tools, guidance documents and training materials. This short guide aims to provide a quick overview of the HHFA and its resource package. The Quick guide summarizes the technical planning and implementation issues of the HHFA. It helps readers to gain a quick understanding of the main advantages limitations and requirements of the HHFA The HHFA Quick guide follows the structure of a companion reference document the HHFA Comprehensive guide to which it refers for details on technical issues and recommendations on how to conduct the assessment The Quick guide targets senior officials of the ministry of health MoH and its partners who are considering implementation of an HHFA in their country The guide will also be useful as an introductory document for staff of the MoH implementing partners and academic institutions who are involved in planning and implementing the HHFA and using its results Quick Reference Handbook for Surgical Pathologists Natasha Rekhtman,Justin A. Bishop,2011-08-27 This book is a compilation of high yield at a glance summaries for various topics on which pathologists frequently need information in a quick reference format while at the microscope or when cramming for the boards The authors are early career pathologists who have compiled this book from the perspective of pathologists in training The focus is not organ based histologic criteria but rather everything else that goes into pathologic diagnoses but is difficult to keep committed to memory The emphasis is on immunohistochemistry special stains grading systems molecular markers tumor syndromes and helpful clinical references The book has a unique format in that the information is presented primarily in tables and diagrams accompanied by minimal explanatory text It is intended to serve as a peripheral brain for pathology residents and also practicing pathologists where frequently needed information is readily accessible and easy to navigate Monthly Bulletin St. Louis Public Library,1916 Teachers bulletin vol 4 issued as part of v 23 no 9 International Bibliography on Crime and Delinquency ,1963
