Recent Perspectives on Early Childhood Education and Care in Canada Larry Prochner, 2012-01-01 Early childhood education is critical for preparing children for success in formal school settings and as such is a major concern throughout the world This volume brings together ground breaking research in this area to help practitioners students policy makers curriculum designers and intervention program developers understand the latest ideas and advances in the field Recent Perspectives of Early Childhood Education and Care in Canada centres on three key themes The first provides a survey of historical social policy economic and provincial regulations and policies related to early childhood education and care The second focuses on issues related to children's learning curriculum and teachers. The final theme addresses recent developments in government involvement in early childhood education and care that are unique to Canada. The contributors to this volume demonstrate the pressing need that exists to further public discussion on early childhood education to help policymakers shape better decisions for Canadian families.

The Visionary Director, Third Edition Margie Carter, Luz Maria Casio, Deb Curtis, 2021-01-12

Create a larger vision in your child care program and perform your job as a center director with motivation and creativity. Early childhood leaders Deb Curtis, Margie Carter, and Luz Casio provide inspiration and support in this newly updated edition of The Visionary Director. The third edition reflects new requirements and initiatives in early childhood programs, adds QR Code access links with short video stories and print resources that further illuminate the ideas under consideration, has a stronger focus on creating an organizational culture that is shaped by more diverse perspectives with an anti-racist, anti-bias, equity lens, updates content to address current early childhood education trends and leadership for an expanded definition of quality. Find a concrete framework for approaching and organizing your work as well as principles, strategies, and self-directed activities to support your vision for building a strong learning community for your staff and the young children in their care.

The Art of Awareness Deb Curtis, Margie Carter, 2022-05-24

With new chapters and updates from early childhood leaders Deb Curtis and Margie Carter, invite early childhood educators to learn the art and skill of observation. The art of observing children is more than merely the act of watching them; it is also using what you see and hear to craft new opportunities in your classroom. This resource provides a wealth of inspiration and practice. It will help early childhood educators learn to observe in new ways, witness children's remarkable competencies as they experience childhood, and find new joy in their work with children. The third edition updates include: New information on schema theory including a list of the definitions of schemas; Updated stories that reflect schema explorations and focus on observing children's ability to get along; Added information on identity development and the anti-bias goals; New chapter on observing children using their bodies; New QR codes to videos to continue learning; Updates on technology and approaches to keeping observations at the center of required assessments.

Designs for Living and Learning, Second Edition Deb Curtis, Margie Carter, 2014-12-01

You likely have dreams for your early childhood environment that are greater than rating scales, regulations, and room arrangements. Designs for Living and Learning has been a favorite resource among educators and caregivers for more than a decade, and this new edition is packed with even more ideas that can be used as you create captivating environments that nurture children, families, and staff while supporting children's learning. With hundreds of all-new colorful photographs of real early learning settings and a multitude of simple and practical concepts for creative indoor and outdoor spaces and learning materials, this book truly is a source of inspiration as you learn how to shape welcoming spaces where children can learn and grow. Expanded chapters include new information reflecting current trends and concerns in early childhood, such as the use of repurposed and nontraditional materials, children in the outdoors, alternative ways to think about providing for learning.

Green is an early childhood educator with over a decade of experience in early childhood education. His teaching practice centers around an emergent project based approach to curriculum with an emphasis on learning through play, developing relationships with communities and building self regulation and resilience. Green also presents at many professional conferences including NAEYC's Professional Development Institute. Neoliberal Selfhood Stephen Vassallo, 2020-12-17

Psychological constructs such as emotion regulation, creativity, grit, growth mindset, lifelong learning, and whole child are appealing as pedagogical aspirations and outcomes. Researchers, policy makers, and educators are likely to endorse and accept these constructs as ways to make sense of students and inform pedagogical decision making. Few critically interrogate these constructs as they are associated with students' academic achievement, psychological well-being, civic virtue, and career readiness. However, this book shows how these constructs become entangled in a neoliberal vision of selfhood which is tied to market prescriptions and is thus associated with problematic ethical, psychological, moral, and economic consequences. The chapters draw attention to the ideological underpinnings in order to facilitate conversations about selfhood in schooling policy and practices. Planning for Play, Observation, and Learning in Preschool and Kindergarten Gaye Gronlund, 2012-11-16

Play is an important vehicle for learning in the early years. With intentional planning frameworks, this resource provides teachers with tools and strategies to organize and develop curriculum around high level, purposeful play. Practical application techniques help teachers create a cycle of planning and observation as they use a play based curriculum to help young children thrive in the classroom. Gaye Gronlund is an early childhood education consultant who trains early childhood educators across the country. She is the author of six books. The Art of Awareness, Second Edition Deb Curtis, Margie Carter, 2012-11-21

Learning to closely observe children requires commitment to systematic study and ongoing practice. With activities, experiences, and stories, this book provides that opportunity. Nine observation study sessions help educators of young children discover the many ways that being observant can enhance their teaching. Updates to this second edition reflect current issues in early childhood education including learning standards, assessment, and technology. Deb Curtis and Margie Carter are popular presenters at early childhood conferences, professional development speakers, and on site consultants. They have written several books together including Learning Together with Young Children and Designs for Living and Learning. Designs for Living and Learning Deb Curtis, Margie Carter, 2003

Give children wondrous places to learn and grow. Drawing inspiration from a variety of approaches from Waldorf to Montessori to Reggio to Greenman, Prescott and Olds, the authors outline hundreds of ways to create healthy and inviting physical, social, and emotional environments for children in child care. Full color photographs of actual early childhood programs demonstrate that the spaces children learn and grow in can be comfortable for children, teachers, and parents alike. Margie Carter serves on the adjunct faculty at Pacific Oaks College, Northwest Seattle, Washington. Deb Curtis works as a child care teacher at the Burlington Little School in Seattle. Their other books include The Art of Awareness, The Visionary Director, Training Teachers.
