Reflections From Canoe Country Paddling The Waters Of The Adirondacks And Canada:

Reflections from Canoe Country Christopher Angus, 1997-04-01 When Christopher Angus and two friends were canoeing a stretch of the Grass River in the Adirondacks in 1986 they were cited by the Department of Environmental Conservation for trespassing on the timberlands of the Champion Paper Company Amazed to find that the law protects corporate rather than environmental interests in a publicly owned state park Angus joined the decades long battle to reopen Adirondack waterways In this collection Angus a columnist and lifelong resident of the Adirondack region writes with the discerning eye of a poet and the ear of a political commentator He treats the reader to descriptions of his many canoeing experiences and to his thoughts on environmental protection As Paul Jamieson writes in the Foreword Reading these short pieces in rhythmic sequence is like riding the waves in a kayak off the Nova Scotia coast Angus s strong ties to Canada s maritime provinces and to the St Lawrence River expand the focus of the book to include the larger Northeastern wilderness It is here he maintains in the most densely populated region of North America that we will finally learn whether man can coexist with the natural world

North Country Reflections Neal Burdick, Maurice Kenny, 2013-05-28 New York s North Country can be hard to define the region has solid boundaries on three sides but not on the south where it mingles with the Adirondack Mountains The spare and isolated landscape experiences long and harsh winters tempered with bucolic scenery Small town life and farming both traditional and innovative have found a haven and even thrive The region plays host to determined community oriented people who have traded the financial lure of big cities for the satisfaction of barn raisings outdoor hockey quiet hikes and old fashioned diners In this collection residents of the region probe their own lives and experiences with the land in a corner of America that is both demanding and rewarding Discover their exciting uplifting and poignant tales

The Extraordinary Adirondack Journey of Clarence Petty Christopher Angus, 2015-02-25 Author and naturalist Christopher Angus profiles for the first time the adventurous life of Clarence Petty one of the great pioneer conservationists of the Adirondack Mountain region of New York State Raised in the heart of the Adirondack wilderness between Tupper and Saranac Lakes Petty overcame his humble beginnings and pursued a variety of careers as wilderness guide forester Civilian Conservation Corps camp director World War II pilot district ranger and aerial forest fire fighter ultimately leaving his indelible mark as a lifelong advocate for the protection of the wilderness The story of Petty s life reads like a Horatio Alger novel His father moved to the mountains in the 1880s to work as a guide His mother was a cook for one of the popular sportsmen s hotels in the area Young Clarence and his brothers enjoyed the kind of childhood freedom and independence that today s youngsters can only dream about Their father s sense of self reliance and their mother s drive to educate her sons led all three to attend college Clarence followed a path of service to the American landscape His influence on state policy regarding the Adirondack Park and especially its millions of acres of wilderness has been profound His life story provides a window into the politics of conservation in the Adirondack region from the early days of the twentieth
