Reflections On Inequality:

Reflections on Inequality Stanislav Andreski, 2023-03-31 Originally published in 1975 this anthology of essays focusses on the historical dimension of class inequality which has long concerned both sociologists and social philosophers but has often been neglected in literature Although Marx is the first name to come to mind when social inequality and class struggles are mentioned most of the authors included here precede him Each analyses and discusses the problems of class conflict as they understood them in the light of their own times Taken together these writers treat stratification as essentially a pecking order where position is determined by relative power a notion which subsumes rather than contradicts the economic interpretation of social inequality because wealth is a form of power The relation between the views of these authors and the well known theory of Marx is discussed in the Introduction Reflections on Inequality and Equality Stein Ringen, 2006

exemplary service learning courses faculty reflection and course revision often goes unmentioned In response to the lack of attention on the role of reflection and course revision we convened groups of faculty from a variety of disciplines to reflect deeply on their courses paying specific attention to obstacles and challenges These conversations were converted to articles for this edited collection each chapter representing the process of reflection and revision and serving as a guide to develop effective practice in varied curricular contexts This text contributes to the body of literature on service learning in a unique and practical manner Faculty teaching or interested in teaching service learning classes would benefit from this text as well as university administrators and community service directors involved in service learning at a programmatic and institutional level This book should be marketed to faculty teaching disciplinary service learning classes and service learning pedagogy classes and administrative offices involved in service learning This could be a supplementary text for graduate level pedagogy courses Higher education institutional libraries would benefit from this text as well as the national and state campus compact offices
