

UN Declaration on the Right to Development 1986

“an inalienable human right by virtue of which every human person and all peoples are entitled to participate in, contribute to, and enjoy economic, social, cultural and political development, in which all human rights and fundamental freedoms can be fully realized”
(Article 1.1)

It is a human right, and the source of the human rights-based approach to development

It is both individual and collective

It has both national and international dimensions

It entitles everyone to participate in, contribute to and enjoy development in its economic, social, cultural and political dimensions
