Reflexions On Poetry Poetics:

Reflexions on Poetry & Poetics Howard Nemerov, 1972 Reflections on Aristotle's Treatise of Poesie René Rapin, 1674 Poetics of the Pretext Roland-François Lack, 1998 Poetics of the Pretext is an original study of the French poet Lautréamont 1846 1870 who was rediscovered by the Surrealists in the 1920s and promoted to the vanguard of theoretical debate by the Telquelists of the 1960s but whose work has remained largely ignored or misinterpreted beyond a small circle of enthusiasts Poetics of the Pretext analyses closely the texts pretexts and intertexts of this innovative poet bringing Les Chants de Maldoror and Poésies to the foreground of contemporary critical debates around poetics genre intertextuality and influence This book will make a major contribution to our understanding not only of the work of Lautréamont but also to the function of originality imitation and plagiarism in the nineteenth century Reflections in a Poet's Mirror Robert Dale McManes, 2001-11 A look at the world around through the reflection of a poet What lies in the depths of a poet's mirror Poetry from inside the soul Reflections on Poetry and the World Emily Grosholz, 2020-12-18 This collection brings together 40 years of essays about poetry and literature written by Emily Grosholz The first section includes essays about some of her favorite poets and thinkers in the United States England France and Germany The second section brings poetry into relation with ethics politics and practical deliberation and the third considers it alongside science and imagination The last section is an homage to The Hudson Review for whom she has served as an Advisory Editor for many years As a philosopher Emily Grosholz has written and thought about feminism racism and mathematics and science which has led her to admire all the more the distinct wisdom of poetry These essays show how poetry reorganized language and memory eros and experience and time and place and how and why it deepens our understanding of life Cartesian Poetics Andrea Gadberry, 2020-11-10 What is thinking What does it feel like What is it good for Andrea Gadberry looks for answers to these questions in the philosophy of René Descartes and finds them in the philosopher's implicit poetics Gadberry argues that Descartes's thought was crucially enabled by poetry and shows how markers of poetic genres from love lyric and elegy to the puzzling forms of the riddle and the anagram betray an impassioned negotiation with the difficulties of thought and its limits Where others have seen Cartesian philosophy as a triumph of reason Gadberry reveals that the philosopher accused of having slashed poetry's throat instead enlisted poetic form to contain thought's frustrations Gadberry's approach to seventeenth century writings poses questions urgent for the twenty first Bringing literature and philosophy into rich dialogue Gadberry centers close reading as a method uniquely equipped to manage skepticism tolerate critical ambivalence and detect feeling in philosophy Helping us read classic moments of philosophical argumentation in a new light this elegant study also expands outward to redefine thinking in light of its poetic formations Way Beyond Words Alan Gilbert, 2012-03 After years of decline poetry is once again regaining its rightful place in the field of popular art and entertainment This growth has been spurred on by the advent of social networking which has made it possible for groups of poets to emerge led by poets who are confident and at ease with their art One among these is author Alan Gilbert Way beyond Words Poetry on Reflection is Gilbert's fourth book of poetry a collection of poems covering a myriad of feelings and emotions Gilbert has been influenced by the romantic poets as well as more contemporary writers such as Phillip Larkin He has developed a unique way of exploring evocative poetry in his range and style Rejecting the obscure language that has deterred readers in the past in favour of poetry that speaks to the soul Gilbert has created artful poems that hold an immediate powerful appeal and evoke intense feelings Examining topics from love lost to a brightly shooting star the poetry in Way beyond Words seeks to inspire all to explore the wide range of human emotions

Reflections and New Perspectives on Virgil's Georgics Nicholas Freer, Bobby Xinyue, 2019-02-21 Virgil's Georgics the most neglected of the poet's three major works is brought to life and infused with fresh meanings in this dynamic collection of new readings The Georgics is shown to be a rich field of inherited and varied literary forms actively inviting a wide range of interpretations as well as deep reflection on its place within the tradition of didactic poetry The essays contained in this volume contributed by scholars from Australia Europe and North America offer new approaches and interpretive methods that greatly enhance our understanding of Virgil's poem In the process they unearth an array of literary and philosophical sources which exerted a rich influence on the Georgics but whose impact has hitherto been underestimated in scholarship A second goal of the volume is to examine how the Georgics with its profound meditations on humankind nature and the socio-political world of its creation has been re-interpreted and appropriated by readers and critics from antiquity to the modern era The volume opens up a number of exciting new research avenues for the study of the reception of the Georgics by highlighting the myriad ways in which the poem has been understood by ancient readers early modern poets explorers of the New World and female translators of the twentieth and twenty-first centuries

Self-reflection in Literature, 2019-12-16 Self-reflection is fundamental for human thinking on many levels Philosophy has described the mind's capacity to observe itself as a core element of human existence Political and social sciences have shown how modern democracies depend on society's ability to critically reflect on their own values and practices And literature of all ages has proven self-reflexivity to be a crucial trait of cultural production This volume provides the first diachronic panorama of genres forms and functions of literary self-reflection and their connections with social political and philosophical discourses from the 17th century to the present Far beyond the usual focus on postmodernist opacity these contributions present a rich tradition of critical transparency Literary texts that show us what is behind and beyond them

Reflections on Poetry and Poetics Howard Nemerov, 1972 A Second Supplement to the Catalogue of Books in the Signet Library. 1882-1887 Signet Library (Great Britain), 1891 Poems Containing History Gary Grieve-Carlson, 2013-11-08 Ezra Pound's definition of an epic as a poem containing history raises questions how can a poem contain history And if it can does it help us to think about history in ways that conventional historiography cannot Poems Containing History Twentieth Century American Poetry's Engagement with the Past by Gary Grieve Carlson argues that twentieth century American poetry has contained and helped its readers to think about history in a variety of provocative and powerful ways Tracing the discussion of the relationship between poetry and history from Aristotle's Poetics to Norman Mailer's The Armies of the Night and Hayden White's Metahistory the book shows that even as history evolves into a professional academic discipline in the late nineteenth century and as its practitioners emphasize the scientific aspects of their work and minimize its literary aspects twentieth century American poets continue to take history as the subject of their major poems Sometimes they endorse the views of mainstream historians as Stephen Vincent Benét does in John Brown's Body but more often they challenge them as do Robert Penn Warren in Brother to Dragons Ezra Pound in The Cantos or Charles Olson in The Maximus Poems In Conquistador Archibald MacLeish illustrates Aristotle's claim that poetry tells more philosophical truths about the past than history does while in Paterson William Carlos Williams develops a Nietzschean suspicion of history's value Three major American poets T S Eliot in Four Quartets Hart Crane in The Bridge and Carolyn Forché in The Angel of History present different challenges to professional historiography's assumption that the past is best understood in strictly material terms Poems Containing History devotes chapters to each of these poets and offers a clear sense of the seriousness with which American poetry has engaged the past as well as the great variety of those engagements
