Reform Within Islam:

Revival and Reform in Islam Fazlur Rahman, 2021-01-21 This authoritative book argues that what is considered today to be Islamic fundamentalism is inconsistent with the true meaning of this faith Rahman demonstrates that the true roots of Islamic teachings advocate adaptability creativity and innovation

Radicalism and Political Reform in the Islamic and Western Worlds Kai Hafez, 2010-05-24 Over the last decade political Islam has been denounced in the Western media and in the surrounding literature as a terrorist or fascist movement that is entirely at odds with Western democratic ideology Kai Hafez's book overturns these arguments contending that despite its excesses as a radical form of political opposition the movement plays a central role in the processes of democratization and modernization and that these processes have direct parallels in the history and politics of the West By analyzing the evolution of Christian democratization through the upheavals of the Reformation colonisation fascism and totalitarianism the book shows how radicalism and violence were constant accompaniments to political change and that these components despite assertions to the contrary are still part of Western political culture to this day

Revival and Reform in Islam Bernard Haykel, 2003-05-27 Revival and Reform in Islam is at once an intellectual biography of Muhammad al Shawkani and a history of a transitional period in Yemeni history This was a time when a society dominated by traditional Zaydi Shiism shifted to one characterised instead by Sunni reformism The author traces the origins and outcomes of this transition presenting the first systematic account of the ways in which the eighteenth and nineteenth century reorientation of the Zaydi madhhab and consequent sunnification of Yemeni society were intricately linked to tensions within the political realm In advocating juridical systematization of religious belief and practice Shawkani espoused a socio religious order which in its dominant features echoed key aspects of Western modernity Yet he did so in a context bereft of Western ideational influence This study then presents a textured account of eighteenth century Islamic reformist thought and challenges the meaning of modernity in an Islamic context Islam and Political Reform in Saudi Arabia

Mansoor Jassem Alshamsi, 2012-06-12 This book examines the link between Islamic thought jurisprudence on the one hand and political action on the other It shows how reformism is deeply rooted in Islamic tradition and how Sunni scholars have become activists for change in Saudi Arabia

An Islamic Reformation? Michaelle Browsers, Charles Kurzman, 2004-01-01 This book brings together scholars with expertise in modern Islamic thought and practice to evaluate the claim that we are witnessing something tantamount to an Islamic Reformation by assessing the character and impact of various reformist trends in the Middle East and North Africa Each chapter also addresses the question of the appropriateness and usefulness of comparisons between Christian and Islamic or Western and Eastern reformations

Islamic Reform David Dean Commins, 1990-04-12 Religious community and nation have long been the chief poles of political and cultural identity for peoples of the modern Middle East This work explores how men in turn of the century Damascus dealt in word and deed with the dilemmas of identity that arose from the Ottoman Empire's 19th century reforms Muslim religious scholars ulama who advocated a return to scripture as the basis of social and political order were the pivotal group. The reformers clashed with their fellow ulama who defended the integrity of prevailing religious practices and beliefs. In addition to two conflicting interpretations of Islam, Arabism comprised a new strand of thought represented by young men with secular educations advancing Arab interests in the Ottoman Empire. Religious reformers and Arabists shared a political agenda that shifted focus from constitutionalism before 1908 to administrative decentralization shortly thereafter. Using unpublished manuscripts and correspondence, inheritance documents and Ottoman era periodicals, this work weaves together social, political and intellectual aspects of a local history that represents an instance of a fundamental issue in modern history.

Inside the Gender Jihad Amina Wadud, 2013-10-01. A world renowned professor of Islamic studies, Amina Wadud has long been at the forefront of what she calls the gender jihad: the struggle for justice for women within the global Islamic community. In 2005 she made international headlines when she helped to promote new traditions by leading the Muslim Friday prayer in New York City, provoking a firestorm of media controversy and kindling charges of blasphemy among conservative Muslims worldwide. In this provocative book, Inside the Gender Jihad, Wadud brings a wealth of experience from the trenches of the jihad to make a passionate argument for gender inclusiveness in the Muslim world. Knitting together scrupulous scholarship with lessons drawn from her own experiences as a woman, she explores the array of issues facing Muslim women today, including social status, education, sexuality and leadership. A major contribution to the debate on women and Islam, Amina Wadud's vision for changing the status of women within Islam is both revolutionary and urgent. Conflict, Identity, and Reform in the Muslim World Daniel Brumberg, Dina Shehata, 2009. Conflict, Identity, and Reform in the Muslim World highlights the challenges that escalating identity conflicts within Muslim majority states pose for both the Muslim world and for the West, an issue that has received scant attention in policy and academic circles. Islamic Reform in Twentieth-Century Africa Roman Loimeier, 2016-09-08. The first comprehensive analysis of Muslim movements of reform in modern sub-Saharan Africa. Based on twelve case studies: Senegal, Mali, Nigeria, Niger, Chad, Sudan, Ethiopia, Somalia, Kenya, Tanzania, Zanzibar, and the Comoros, this book looks at patterns and peculiarities of different traditions of Islamic reform. Considering both Sufi and Salafi oriented movements in their respective historical contexts, it stresses the importance of the local context to explain the different trajectories of development. The book studies the social, religious and political impact of these reform movements in both historical and contemporary times and asks why some have become successful as popular mass movements while others failed to attract substantial audiences. It also considers jihad-minded movements in contemporary Mali, northern Nigeria and Somalia, and looks at modes of transnational entanglement of movements of reform. Against the background of a general inquiry into what constitutes reform, the text responds to the question of what reform actually means for Muslims in contemporary Africa. Key features: Biographies of reformist scholars complement the text. Case studies are placed in the context of the dynamics of reform in the larger world of Islam. Addresses the importance of trans national entanglements and their formative power Focuses on the dynamics of social and religious development the political dynamics of Islamic reform and issues of youth generational change and gender Reform and Modernity in Islam Safdar Ahmed, 2013-05-30 The debate over Islam and modernity tends to be approached from a Eurocentric perspective that presents Western norms as a template for progress against which Islamic societies can be measured This misses the historical development of Muslim reformist thought that actively engages with the world around it and seeks to reconfigure Islam within the diverse conditions of modernity Safdar Ahmed paints a complex and nuanced picture that goes beyond the idea that Muslim reformers have either reproduced or reacted against Western ideas Rather Ahmed argues they have reconstructed and appropriated these ideas and so the thread of Western influence runs through modern Islamic thought on nationalism and sovereignty femininity and gender Ahmed uncovers new historiographical perspectives by critically examining the work of prominent intellectuals such as Muhammad Abduh Qasim Amin and Abdul A la Maududi

Reformation of Islamic Thought Naṣr Ḥāmid Abū Zayd, 2006 After September 11 Islam became nearly synonymous with fundamentalism in the eyes of Western media and literature However widely held this view may be it is at odds with Islam's rich political history Renowned Egyptian scholar Nasr Ab Zayd here considers the full breadth of contemporary Muslim writings to examine the diverse political religious and cultural views that inform discourse in the Islamic world Reformation of Islamic Thought explores the writings of intellectuals from Egypt to Iran to Indonesia probing their efforts to expand Islam beyond traditional and legalistic interpretations Zayd reveals that many Muslim thinkers advocate culturally enlightened Islam with an emphasis on individual faith He then investigates the extent of these Muslim reformers success in generating an authentic renewal of Islamic ideology asking if such thinkers have escaped the traditionalist trap of presenting a negative image to the West A fascinating and highly relevant study for our times Reformation of Islamic Thought is an essential analysis of Islam's present and future Islamic Reform in South Asia Filippo Osella, Caroline Osella, 2013-05-16 The articles in this volume build up ethnographic analysis complementary to the historiography of South Asian Islam which has explored the emergence of reformism in the context of specific political and religious circumstances of nineteenth century British India Taking up diverse popular and scholarly debates as well as everyday religious practices this volume also breaks away from the dominant trend of mainstream ethnographic work which celebrates sufi inspired forms of Islam as tolerant plural authentic and so on pitted against a reformist Islam Urging a more nuanced examination of all forms of reformism and their reception in practice the contributions here powerfully demonstrate the historical and geographical specificities of reform projects In doing so they challenge prevailing perspectives in which substantially different traditions of reform are lumped together into one reified category often carelessly shorthanded as wah habism and branded as extremist if not altogether demonised as terrorist Toward an Islamic Reformation Abdullahi Ahmed An Na'im, 2019-01-31 Toward an Islamic Reformation is an ambitious attempt to modernize Islamic law calling for reform of the historical formulations of Islamic law commonly known as Shari'a that is perceived by many Muslims to be part of the Islamic faith. As a Muslim Abdullahi Ahmed An-Na'im is sensitive to and appreciative of the delicate relationship between Islam as a religion and Islamic law. Nevertheless, he considers that the questions raised here must be resolved if the public law of Islam is to be implemented today. An-Na'im draws upon the teachings and writings of Sudanese reformer Mahmoud Mohamed Taha to provide what some have called the intellectual foundations for a total reinterpretation of the nature and meaning of Islamic public law.

Reforms in Islamic Education Charlene Tan, 2014-04-24 In recent times there has been intense global interest on and scrutiny of Islamic education. In reforming Islamic schools, what are the key actions initiated and are they contested or negotiated by and among Muslims? This edited collection brings together leading scholars to explore current reforms in Islamic schools. Drawing together international case studies, Reforms in Islamic Education critically discusses the reforms, considering the motivations for them, nature of them, and perceptions and experiences of people affected by them. The contributors also explore the tensions, resistance, contestations, and negotiations between Muslims and non-Muslims and among Muslims in relation to the reforms. Highlighting the need to understand and critique reforms in Islamic schools within broad historical, political, and socio-cultural contexts, this book is a valuable resource for academics, policymakers, and educators.

CURRICULUM REFORM IN PAKISTAN Amna Afreen, 2022-02-25 I have written this book in an effort to explore how the history of Pakistan has resulted in the critical problems weighing down its education system. The book examines the questions: Why and how has a small elite class come to rule Pakistan? And how has their rule worsened the country's problems? The focus will be to critically examine the elements of the Pakistani national curriculum and madrasas and their effects on Pakistani society. The book represents the fusion of my experiences in Pakistan with extensive literature analysis, interviews, and textbook analysis. This research began when I came to the United States in January 2015 through the SAR program. I wanted to know the answers to profoundly unsettling questions: How can a society be so intolerant that a scholar educated solely in Pakistan is disregarded and assassinated while many Western educated scholars with traditional insular thoughts are not only appreciated but flourishing? I wanted to know why Pakistani elites have so much power and freedom while lower classes are profoundly oppressed. Elites who barely pay taxes have been in power for generations while those that pay taxes suffer from sky-high inflation. The influential religious leaders mostly belong to the elite class while their followers are mostly lower class. Ruling families and social classes mostly control appointed positions. Do those in power not have a responsibility to speak on issues of social justice rather than limiting themselves in claiming that theirs is the only true form of Islam? Why don't they work to end the disparity of quality education between classes in Pakistan? Instead, many elites run their own lucrative elite Islamic schools. More importantly, why do the ulama, which literally means those who possess knowledge, particularly of Islam, maintain a tight hierarchical system in the madrasa (Islamic seminary) community that rarely allows poor intelligent students to attain leadership positions? Why are the ulama silent in the face of ruthless murder?

of and discrimination against Pakistani minorities Book Review Pakistan Educational Reforms is a major study of education in Pakistan and its national and madrasa curriculum that fosters national and religious sectarian divisions intolerance and conflicts Dr Amna Afreen documents the political socio economic and religious causes limited government funding widespread poverty and illiteracy and the poor training and performance of teachers that have produced a failed educational system at urban and rural government and religious schools madrasa and offers a series of potential solutions and reforms John L Esposito University Professor and Founding Director of The Alwaleed Center for Muslim Christian Understanding Georgetown University Unveiling Modernity in Twentieth-Century West African Islamic Reforms Ousman Murzik Kobo,2012-08-27 In this book Ousman Kobo provides a fresh understanding of the indigenous origins of Islamic reforms sympathetic to Wahhabi ideas in two West African countries Burkina Faso and Ghana and connects these movements to Muslim s search for religious purity in modern contexts Reformist Voices of Islam Shireen Hunter,Shireen T Hunter,2014-12-18 In recent years Islamic fundamentalist revolutionary and jihadist movements have overshadowed more moderate and reformist voices and trends within Islam This compelling volume introduces the current generation of reformist thinkers and activists the intellectual traditions they carry on and the reasons for the failure of reformist movements to sustain broad support in the Islamic world today Richly detailed regionally focused chapters cover Iran the Arab East the Maghreb South Asia Indonesia Malaysia Turkey Europe and North America The editor s introductory chapter traces the roots of reformist thinking both in Islamic tradition and as a response to the challenge of modernity for Muslims struggling to reconcile the requirements of modernization with their cultural and religious values The concluding chapter identifies commonalities comparisons and trends in the modernizing movements Reformation of Islamic Thought Nasr Abu Zayd,2025-10-01 Ever since the dramatic events of September 11 2001 the fundamentalist and exclusivist trend prevails in most presentations of Islamic thinking Indeed these events have given extremists and fundamentalists a much more prominent position than they might ever have dreamt of In Reformation of Islamic Thought the prominent Egyptian scholar Nasr Ab Zayd examines the positive liberal and inclusive reaction embedded in the writings of Muslim thinkers He takes the reader on a critical journey across the Muslim World where Muslim thinkers from Egypt and Iran to Indonesia seek to divest Islam of traditionalistic and legalistic interpretation Instead these thinkers stress the value of a cultural enlightened Islam and an individualistic faith For many the dogmatic Islam established by the conservatives and supported by totalitarian political regimes is outdated they want it replaced by a spiritual and ethical Islam To what extent are these reformist thinkers engaged in a genuine renewal of Islamic thought Do they succeed in escaping the traditionalist trap of presenting a purely negative image of the West Shaping the Current Islamic Reformation B.A. Roberson,2004-08-02 The essays that comprise this study eschew stereotypical representations of a politicized Islam in the Mediterranean Region The contributors consider the reality that lies behind current issues in the area and the role that an embedded Islam has played or may play in the region Islam and Power Alexander S. Cudsi, E. Hillal Dessouki, 2013-07-24 The 1970s witnessed a mushrooming of Islamic movements and ideas which was described variously as Islamic revival Islamic resurgence and Islam on the march Whether as part of the majority or minority whether under capitalist or socialist regimes Muslims have been moved by this reawakening But what really are the causes and nature of this Islamic resurgence Is it a purely religious revival Or is it a social and political movement that must be understood in the context of the Muslim s conditions and milieu Will it really lead to the establishment of an Islamic socio political order or will it end up as an instrument of struggle between Muslim ruling elites and their opposition And what are the foreign policy implications of these developments Do they necessarily lead to a more militant and hostile attitude towards the West These questions and more are tackled by the contributors to Islam and Power First published in 1981
