Reforming Human Services:

Reforming Social Services in New York City Thomas J. Main, 2025-09-15 Reforming Social Services in New York City examines efforts across six decades to respond to poverty joblessness and homelessness through the establishment and periodic restructuring of the city's Human Resources Administration HRA and related social welfare agencies As Thomas J Main shows through archival research and interviews with key figures the HRA has been the focus of several mayoralties The John Lindsay administration's creation of the HRA in 1966 was a classic liberal effort to fight poverty Rudy Giuliani brought dramatic change by implementing work oriented welfare reform and the Bill de Blasio administration attempted to install a progressive social welfare agenda within the city's social service agencies to reduce inequality Reforming Social Services in New York City tells the story of these efforts assessing the strategies employed and the success of their outcomes concluding that major nonincremental change in urban welfare policy is not only possible but has been effective

Building Community: Reforming human services Malcolm Bush, Sidra Goldwater, Sean Zielenbach, 1996 Evaluating Reforms of Local Public and Social Services in Europe Ivan Koprić, Hellmut Wollmann, Gérard Marcou, 2017-10-20 This book explains the increasing demand for evaluation as a result of the increasing frequency of reforms to local services influenced by the New Public Management doctrine the severe austerity policy in many European countries and the wish to increase quality and reduce costs of public services especially at the local sub national level Positioned at the interface of local services and evaluation research it will enable the utilization of evaluation generated knowledge in evidence based policy making by focusing on the lessons learned from evaluation of local service delivery It encompasses local public and social services including waste water public transport healthcare education and eldercare and examines the hypothesis that there is a North West South East divide in Europe in terms of the evaluation of local service reforms Particular attention is devoted to the explanatory function of evaluation Providing fresh insight into the functioning of local government machinery in contemporary Europe this book will appeal in particular to practitioners and students of local government public economy public administration and policy

An Essay on Economic Reforms and Social Change in China Assar Lindbeck, 2006 Abstract The author applies a systems oriented holistic approach to China's radical economic reforms during the past quarter of a century He characterizes China's economic reforms in terms of a multidimensional classification of economic systems When looking at the economic consequences of China's change of economic system he deals with both the impressive growth performance and its economic costs The author also studies the consequences of the economic reforms for the previous social arrangements in the country which were tied to individual work units agriculture communes collective firms and state owned enterprises He continues with the social development during the reform period reflecting a complex mix of social advances mainly in terms of poverty reduction and regresses for large population groups in terms of income security and human services such as education and in particular health care Next the author discusses China s future policy options in the social field whereby he draws heavily on relevant experiences in industrial countries over the years The future options are classified into three broad categories policies influencing the level and distribution of factor income income transfers including social insurance and the provision of human services     Application of Organization and Systems Theory to Human Services Reform Myron E.
