Wacker, Ulrich Becker, Katharina Crepaz, 2018-12-28 The so called refugee crisis represents one of the biggest contemporary political and social challenges Although many African countries have been dealing with forced migratory and refugee movements for decades their experiences have so far largely been neglected in the predominantly Eurocentric public debate The present volume aims to bridge this gap by providing comparative African and European perspectives from different disciplines highlighting the challenges but also potential mutual benefits of social diversification and offering an insight into possible solution strategies      The Challenges of Refugees and Internally Displaced Persons in Africa Sabella O.

Abidde,2020-12-05 This book discusses the phenomena of refugees and internally displaced persons IDP across several African countries There are 40 million IDP worldwide of these an estimated 12 6 million are in 37 of Africa s 55 countries Written by a team of fifteen scholars across four continents this book uses both quantitative and qualitative data to analyze the causes and consequences of this displacement the role of the state in creating and mitigating these situations and potential policy solutions The volume is divided into three sections Chapters in Section 1 discuss the causes of displacement Chapters in Section 2 discuss refugees in their regional context Chapters in Section 3 discuss IDP camps in Kenya Nigeria and Ghana Bringing scholarly analysis to address two humanitarian crises this book will be useful to students and researchers interested in African politics forced migration and policy as well as members of the diplomatic corps governmental and non governmental organizations actively working towards solving these challenges

African Migrants and the Refugee Crisis Olayiwola Abegunrin,Sabella O. Abidde,2020-11-12 This book discusses African migration and the refugee crisis Economic political and social tension in the Middle East and in many parts of the Global South has induced historic mass migration across national and international borders The situation is especially dire in Africa where a sizable number of Africans have chosen or have been forced to leave their countries of origin for Europe and North America Written by an international team of scholars this edited book traces the refugee crisis around the world telling the necessary story of forced migration intentional exclusion and human insecurity from an Afrocentric lens The volume is divided into three sections Section I places African migration within the broader contexts of international history law economics and policy Section II discusses cases of African migration to Europe Latin America and the Mediterranean Section III considers negative consequences of mass African migration including the restriction and criminalization of migration post traumatic stress disorder and gender based violence A compelling account of risk resilience and global power dynamics this volume will be useful to students and researchers interested in African studies migration peace and conflict studies and policy as well as professionals practitioners NGOs IGOs governmental and humanitarian organizations

Briefing on the Growing Refugee Problem United States. Congress. House. Committee on Foreign Affairs. Subcommittee on International Organizations,1979 Refugee Coloniality Bosco Opi,2024-04-27 This book presents a decolonial and Afrocentric critique of prolonged encampment of refugees centred on the case study of refugee camps in Kenya introduced through the author s decades long experience of forced displacement His positionality as a former refugee contributes to a wider discussion on representation voice and power within the refugee studies literature Likewise the revisiting of the refugee camp as site and tool of power from a colonial perspective is an important and timely contribution to the literature This book examines the camp as a colonial innovation and the enduring colonial logics of supposedly humanitarian extended encampment Drawing on the anti colonial theorists such as Fanon Mbembe and Nyerere etc it argues for an Africa without borders or encampment The study is interdisciplinary encompassing forced migration refugee studies camp studies decolonial studies and African studies More broadly it seeks to contribute to the literature on the politics of asylum in Africa through a critical examination of the colonial origins and the practice of encampment in Kenya

The Sage Encyclopedia of Refugee Studies Yen Le Espiritu,2025-09-18 Refugees and displacement are defining issues of the 21st century with over 70 million asylum seekers refugees and stateless individuals forced from their homes as of 2020 Every two seconds one person is forcibly displaced due to climate change global epidemics and ongoing conflicts The SAGE Encyclopedia of Refugee Studies edited by members of The Critical Refugee Studies Collective serves as a vital and comprehensive resource for understanding the historical political and cultural dimensions of displacement Featuring over 250 authoritative articles this landmark reference work is organized into three key themes law politics and policy humanitarianism and humanitarian organizations and media culture and storytelling Drawing from disciplines such as migration studies Indigenous studies critical race studies environmental studies sociology political science law anthropology and the arts this encyclopedia critically examines refugee issues in relation to imperialism racism patriarchy and militarism Beyond academic analysis The SAGE Encyclopedia of Refugee Studies centers refugee voices through narratives first person accounts and visual storytelling highlighting the lived experiences communities and creative expressions of displaced
