Gifford, Sarah Dunnigan, Alan MacGillivray, Beth Dickson, 2002 This substantial new volume is a stimulating yet in depth introduction to Scottish literature in English and Scots From medieval to modern the entire range of literature is introduced examined and explored Aimed primarily at those with an interest in Scottish literature this guide also responds to the need for students and teachers to have detailed discussions of individual authors and texts The volume looks at Scottish literature in six period sections Early Scottish Literature Eighteenth Century The Age of Scott Victorian and Edwardian The Twentieth Century Scottish Literary Renaissance and Scottish Literature since 1945 Each section begins with an overview of the period followed by several chapters examining exemplary authors and texts Each section finishes with an extensive discussion including suggestions as to how to further explore the rich and often neglected hinterlands of Scottish writing Extensive reading lists identify primary texts of the period as well as details of a wide range of additional authors Opening up neglected areas of study as well as responding to the burgeoning interest in novelists modern poets and dramatists this book serves as an invaluable guide to Scottish Literature Who's Who in Contemporary Women's Writing Jane Eldridge Miller, 2019-07-23 Unique in its breadth of coverage Who's Who in Contemporary Women's Writing is a comprehensive authoritative and enjoyable guide to women's fiction prose poetry and drama from around the world in the second half of the twentieth century Over the course of 1000 entries by over 150 international contributors a picture emerges of the incredible range of women's writing in our time from Toni Morrison to Fleur Adcock all are here This book includes the established and well loved but also opens up new worlds of modern literature which may be unfamiliar but are never less than fascinating

Bella Caledonia Kirsten Stirling, 2008 Bella Caledonia Woman Nation Text looks at the widespread tradition of using a female figure to represent the nation focusing on twentieth century Scottish literature The woman as nation figure emerged in Scotland in the twentieth century but as a literary figure rather than an institutional icon like Britannia or France's Marianne Scottish writers make use of familiar aspects of the trope such as the protective mother nation and the woman as fertile land which are obviously problematic from a feminist perspective But darker implications buried in the long history of the figure rise to the surface in Scotland such as woman nation as victim and woman nation as deformed or monstrous As a result of Scotland's unusual status as a nation within the larger entity of Great Britain the literary figures under consideration here are never simply incarnations of a confident and complete nation nurturing her warrior sons Rather they reflect a more modern anxiety about the concept of the nation and embody a troubled and divided national identity Kirsten

Stirling traces the development of the twentieth century Scotland as woman figure through readings of poetry and fiction by male and female writers including Hugh MacDiarmid Naomi Mitchison Neil Gunn Lewis Grassie Gibbon Willa Muir Alasdair Gray A L Kennedy Ellen Galford and Janice Galloway
