Looking Through A Mirror Darkly:

Now Through a Glass Darkly Edward Peter Nolan, 1990 Nolan explores the way Roman and medieval authors used the mirror as both instrument and metaphor Seeing Darkly John Sparhawk Jones, 1904 Inhabited by Grace William O. Daniel, 2019-09-17 What does it mean to inhabit the life of liturgy What does it mean to be inhabited by Christ This book offers a way to rethink what we do when we pray so that we do not so much call on God for help but join in a conversation Readers will learn how to think about God through certain habits and practices how posture effects our perceptions of God and Christ how feasting on Christ in the Eucharist shapes our understanding of the body both our individual bodies and the body of the Church The author also offers tools for forming a deliberate rule of life to ground readers in the transcendent life of liturgy Readers will recognize the inseparability of the tables of their homes and the Eucharistic Table relating daily life with Eucharistic life Dr Daniel connects the language of the Book of Common Prayer with the everyday realities of ordinary life compelling the worshiper to discern how daily practices correspond with or fight against her participation in the Eucharistic economy Leaving God Behind David Arthur Auten, 2020-09-18 With warmth wisdom and compassion David Arthur Auten invites us to reclaim the secretive intuitive nature of authentic becoming In a time when many are increasingly disenchanted with traditional demarcations between belief and unbelief the sacred and secular Auten offers a refreshing account of what faith can look like beyond the bounds of religion Those thirsting for reacquaintance with true selfhood and the ability to heed the gift of their own inner voice will find consolation and inspiration in the author's story of leaving behind the church ministry and also God not in exchange for an atheist or even humanist outlook but as an act of faith itself Transgressive insightful and candid Leaving God Behind is a memoir of following God beyond God to a place of self compassion surrender and homecoming Death and Beyond Edwin L. Woolsey, 2021-06-23 Search the scriptures for in them ye think ye have eternal life and they are they which testify of me John 5:39 A mysterious disconnect exists between the amount of biblical material about death and Western theology's scant reliance on that body of Scripture to universally explain what happens when life ends In a vague way we assume to understand what occurs after our last breath but do we really Can we say with surety what happens next Where precisely do we go and when do we get there Are we able to point to ancient authoritative sources and say See here it is Due to the fuzzy nature of our current ideas the hodgepodge of religious speculations dealing with the afterlife are more likely an outgrowth of popular culture religious songs and anecdotal stories instead of solid biblical texts or early Judeo-Christian orthodoxy This quandary is probably a modern anomaly since medieval society was more familiar with the certainty of dying than we are The disassociation with spiritual reality might be a product of advancements in science and medicine that give us a false notion of immortality however nothing could be farther from the truth Unquestionably we will all die and guaranteed that fact a knowledge of what immediately follows the cessation of life is an asset worth having not only for peace of mind here but also for advanced preparation until we get there especially regarding faith based groups like Christianity If anyone should master the questions and answers dealing with the transition between life and death it should be the Church Maybe the somber nature of death makes us avoid the subject or possibly the opposite is true Our illiteracy of God s Word might be the reason death seems so cryptic and foreboding thus creating our shortsighted ignorance of the topic Regardless Jesus admonished us to pull our heads from the sand search the Scripture and make sure that our doctrines actually match God s source material hence the purpose of this book THE FIFTEEN

PEOPLE YOU MEET IN HEAVEN Mark A. Nemec,2022-05-05 Who do you think you will meet in heaven Who would you like to meet in heaven What questions would you like to ask them In his book Mark takes an in depth look at fifteen biblical heroes of the faith that he hopes you will meet someday These characters are ordinary people but with an extraordinary God They are plain people with a powerful God God accomplishes amazing things through average people every day Although they lived a long time ago how they responded to God in the midst of tragedy and calamity will inspire you in your walk with our Lord and Savior Mark s prayer is that God will pull back just a tiny corner of the veil that separates you from Him and He will reveal just a tiny glimpse of His glory Above all it is Mark s hope that these stories will encourage and edify enlighten and educate you so that you too will accomplish amazing things through the power strength and might of an awesome God

Vries,2021-03-11 Written at a time of global pandemic when we have been forced to confront age old existential questions Why are we here Where are we going perhaps for the first time Quo Vadis is extraordinarily relevant to leaders managers and anyone who wants to bring meaning and authenticity into their work and life Manfred Kets de Vries argues that we need to address these fundamental and disturbing questions if we are to live fully and meaningfully Too many people wake up on a Monday morning and do the same things they have done every Monday They go to work and function on autopilot without questioning their purpose But how can we make sure our lives are rich and fulfilling How do we know we re on the right track This is a book about death and the fear of death about angst and absurdity but it is also about endurance honesty well being responsibility living with hard truths creating meaning and happiness Quo Vadis makes us look full on at the things we prefer not to see It is a short book that pulls no punches but is far from bleak Instead Kets de Vries shows that our life is enriched and our ability to make meaning and find happiness is increased when we acknowledge the inevitable price we have to pay for knowing our own mind and understanding our inevitable end What I Drew in Church Rebecca McKillip

Cain,2023-01-30 Mirrors of the Divine examines four early Christian authors Tertullian of Carthage Clement of Alexandria Gregory of Nyssa and Augustine of Hippo and analyzes their writings on vision and knowledge of God to show how they envisioned one s relationship to the world and how they imagined the unknown Emily R Cain explores how contradictory theories of sight shaped their cosmologies theologies subjectivities genders and discursive worlds and shows that early Christian arguments about the phenomenon of visual perception are deeply intertwined with broader debates about identity agency and epistemology Coming to Peace with Psychology Everett L.
